Federal Housing Finance Agency Office of Inspector General

Report of Administrative Inquiry into Allegations of Misconduct by the FHFA Director

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) Office of Inspector General (OIG) received Hotline complaints alleging misconduct by the FHFA Director. OIG conducted an administrative inquiry into these allegations, and issued a report of administrative inquiry to the President of the United States, the Office of Government Ethics, and our Congressional oversight committees, pursuant to our responsibilities under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended (IG Act).

While this inquiry was open, FHFA-OIG was unable to release this report. FHFA-OIG has been advised that it is at liberty to release its report. Accordingly, we are publishing this report on our website, consistent with our obligations under the IG Act, 5 U.S.C. App., the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a.

November 29, 2018

Executive Summary

This is the second administrative inquiry conducted by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA or Agency) Office of Inspector General (OIG) into allegations in anonymous hotline complaints claiming that an executive position had been created inappropriately and unnecessarily in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer (OCOO) of FHFA and that the Manager of the Project Management Office (PMO Manager) had been pre-selected for this position.

We first received anonymous hotline complaints in the summer of 2017 alleging that: (1) (b)(6)(b)(7)(C)inappropriately created an executive position in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer (OCOO) for an FHFA employee, the PMO Manager; (2) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) advised two senior FHFA employees "not to bother applying for the job"; and (3) the creation of a new executive position was inconsistent with FHFA's prior buyout. At the conclusion of our fact finding for that first administrative inquiry, in late March 2018, we formally referred the matter to the Office of Special Counsel (OSC) and provided the OSC with a summary of the facts found during that inquiry. On May 3, 2018, the OSC provided us with its preliminary determination that the record as it then existed did not support the allegations that the new executive position had been created improperly or that FHFA executives provided the PMO Manager with an unauthorized preference or advantage in her selection for it. On May 7, 2018, we provided OSC's written preliminary determination to FHFA and informed the Agency that we had completed our administrative inquiry and planned to close it.

On May 9, 2018, the PMO Manager filed an informal complaint with FHFA's Office of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) alleging violations of her rights under the Equal Pay Act and discrimination (including sexual harassment) on the basis of her sex and race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended). Subsequently, the PMO Manager provided FHFA with specific allegations in support of her claims. FHFA contracted with the United States Postal Service (USPS) to gather facts and information regarding the PMO Manager's sexual harassment claim. This fact gathering began on June 14, 2018.

On July 3, 2018, while fact gathering was ongoing, the PMO Manager used her FHFA computer and email address to forward to her counsel an email exchange she had with the contract investigator regarding her disparate treatment EEO claims. She also blind-copied this message to over 100 FHFA managers. The message referenced recordings of conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director and stated that transcripts of those recordings were attached to it, although they were not. Several minutes later,

November 29, 2018 the PMO Manager re-forwarded that email message to her counsel and, once again, the FHFA managers. Attached to that re-forwarded message was an audio file containing a recording of a conversation between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director, as well as three purported transcripts of other conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director which were prepared by the PMO Manager. Shortly thereafter, the PMO Manager sent a third email to the more than 100 FHFA managers that read "Sorry – this was sent in error – please disreagrd [sic]." The body of that email contained the same string of communications as the first two messages.

We were unaware of the PMO Manager's sexual harassment claim against the Director during our first inquiry. We learned of it in July 2018, after we received three additional hotline complaints citing to the email messages and attachments sent by the PMO Manager. These three anonymous complaints alleged, in summary, that the FHFA Director misused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary executive position for the PMO

Manager, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints, and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created improperly (and for which we had previously completed our work). Our second inquiry, which began in July 2018, focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director, and this report sets forth our findings from that inquiry.

We also served subpoenas on the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager; and we interviewed 20 witnesses, including the FHFA Director. Initially, counsel for the PMO Manager cooperated in our inquiry, and provided us with 6 audio recordings of conversations between the Director and the PMO Manager and a total of 8 transcripts of conversations between them, some of which were prepared by the PMO Manager. Thereafter, the PMO Manager declined to cooperate further. She refused to be interviewed by OIG, and she did not comply with FHFA's request to return her government-issued cellphone. She also did not comply an FHFA-OIG administrative subpoena for audio recordings she made of conversations with the FHFA Director and other materials, even after an Order from a United States District Court required her do so.

The PMO Manager stated under oath in the USPS fact gathering process that she recorded every conversation she had with the FHFA Director from 2016 through 2018, and that twice a week she attended regularly scheduled senior staff meetings, which the Director also attended. Therefore, her statement

November 29, 2018 leads us to believe that she may have additional recordings of conversations between her and the FHFA Director, which, despite our best efforts, we have been unable to secure.

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, (IG Act) requires Inspectors General to timely report substantiated allegations of misconduct by senior agency officials. We have determined that the information we obtained during our administrative inquiry provides a sufficient basis to substantiate one allegation of misconduct by the FHFA Director and to give rise to a second finding of misconduct. Our two findings are:

The FHFA Director Misused his Official Position to Attempt to Obtain a Personal Benefit

Section 702 of the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch (the Standards), 5 CFR § 2635.702, prohibits an officer or employee from using any authority associated with his federal office in a manner that is intended to coerce or induce a subordinate to provide him with any benefit, financial or otherwise. The FHFA Director is bound by the Standards. We found that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in a personal relationship with him by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position with FHFA.

The FHFA Director advised the PMO Manager, and reported to us, that only he could approve the creation of a new executive position and the selection of a candidate to fill it. By his own design, he met alone in his apartment with the PMO Manager, a subordinate who the Director knew desired a promotion to an executive position in the Agency, and raised two possible opportunities for such a promotion. In a recording of a portion of their conversation in the FHFA Director's apartment, the FHFA Director can be heard to intermingle comments about his attraction to the PMO Manager and his admiration of her physical appearance with a discussion of possible paths by which she could advance into FHFA's executive ranks.

We find that there are no circumstances under which it would be appropriate for the head of FHFA to induce a subordinate employee to meet with him alone, in his apartment, for a conversation in which he professes his attraction for that employee and holds out opportunities for the employee to serve in specific executive positions over which he exercises total control.

November 29, 2018

The FHFA Director Was Not Candid

Every agency employee providing information in an OIG inquiry, including the head of an agency, must be fully forthcoming and candid as to all facts and information relevant to the inquiry, even if that employee is not specifically asked about particular facts or information. Thus, an employee must disclose those things that, in the circumstances, are needed to make the employee's statement complete and accurate.

At the start of our interview with the FHFA Director on February 15, 2018, in connection with the initial administrative inquiry regarding these matters, we advised the Director that his interview was part of an administrative inquiry into allegations that FHFA senior executives had improperly created a new executive position and pre-selected the PMO Manager to fill it. We find that the Director lacked candor when he omitted information that was material to our inquiry. Specifically, he omitted: (1) any mention of his personal friendship with, and mentorship of, the PMO Manager; and (2) that he had a "plan," dating back to at least June 2016, under which the PMO Manager could advance into FHFA's executive ranks.

We provided a draft of this report to the FHFA Director; his November 26, 2018, written response (Response) is attached as the Appendix. The Director's Response is notable for what it does not contain. Nowhere does the FHFA Director deny that: (1) he invited a subordinate to meet with him alone, in his apartment; (2) during that meeting, he professed his physical attraction for that employee and held out opportunities for that employee to be promoted into specific executive positions; and (3) he knew this subordinate employee sought these executive positions over which he exercised total control.

Nor does the Director offer any evidence or assertions that contradict our findings. Rather, he claims that this report is incomplete because we lack the balance of the recordings made by the PMO Manager of her conversations with the Director. The Director states that the missing recordings would show that the PMO Manager, and not the Director, initiated most of the conversations. The Director, however, does not explain why that information would be exculpatory to a claim of misuse of government position for personal gain.

Lacking any exculpatory facts, the Director criticizes the inquiry that brought his misconduct to light. In particular, the Director alleges that: the report represents a "rush to judgment" so we could vindicate our independence and integrity; we improperly investigated a matter under Title VII and compromised FHFA's EEO process; our administrative inquiry was flawed; and we misled a federal court in our subpoena application. For the reasons set

November 29, 2018 forth in this report, we flatly reject each of the process issues raised by the FHFA Director.

We follow the facts wherever they lead and we report the good and the bad. When our fact-finding identifies deficiencies in FHFA's programs and operations, shortcomings in FHFA's implementation of policies and guidance, inadequate internal controls, or wrongdoing by FHFA employees or senior executives of entities under FHFA's conservatorship, we report the evidence that demonstrates the deficiencies, shortcomings, or wrongdoing in accordance with professional standards. This inquiry and report were conducted in conformance with the Counsel of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE) Quality Standards for Investigations (2011) and the CIGIE Quality Standards for Federal Offices of Inspector General (2012). We stand by the integrity of our administrative inquiry and by our two findings.

We are issuing this report to the Pres	ident of the United States for such action
as he deems appropriate, and to the C	Office of Government Ethics and to our Congressional oversight committees.	We are referring to the OSC the allegations about (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	for its review and determination and are providing to O	SC the evidentiary record we compiled in this second inquiry, given that the	OSC has the statutory authority to determine whether FHFA senior exec	cutives engaged in any (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	28

Laura Wertheimer Inspector General

Leonard DePasquale Jennifer Byrne
Chief Counsel Assoc. Inspector General

Richard Parker Marla Freedman

Dep. Inspector General Dep. Inspector General for Investigations (Acting) for Audits

Kyle Roberts Angela Choy
Dep. Inspector General Assist. Inspector General for Evaluations for Evaluations

David Frost Robert Taylor
Assist. Inspector General for Assist. Inspector General
Compliance & Special Projects for Audits

TABLE OF CONTENTS
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
ABBREVIATIONS8
BACKGROUND9
OIG's First Administrative Inquiry10
Interview of the FHFA Director
Interview of the PMO Manager
OIG Refers to the Office of Special Counsel the Evidentiary Record of its Administrative Inquiry, and OSC Reaches a Decision on the Matter
FHFA's Investigation of the PMO Manager's EEO Complaint
OIG's Second Administrative Inquiry15
OIG's Efforts to Obtain Audio Recordings, Transcripts, and Other Documents16
Review of Audio Recordings
Interviews and Sworn Testimony
FINDINGS
The FHFA Director Misused his Official Position to Attempt to Obtain a Personal Benefit
2. The FHFA Director Was Not Candid
CONCLUSIONS30
APPENDIX: FHFA DIRECTOR'S RESPONSE

ABBREVIATIONS

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

CIGIE Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency

DGC Deputy General Counsel

DOC Division of Conservatorship

EEO Equal Employment Opportunity

FHFA Federal Housing Finance Agency

IG Act Inspector General Act of 1978 (as amended)

PMO Project Management Office

OCOO Office of the Chief Operating Officer

OIG Federal Housing Finance Agency Office of Inspector General

OMWI Office of Minority and Women Inclusion

OQA Office of Quality Assurance

OSC U.S. Office of Special Counsel

The Standards The Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch

USPS United States Postal Service

BACKGROUND

In the summer of 2017, the FHFA Office of Inspector General (OIG) received two anonymous hotline complaints which included allegations that: (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) inappropriately created an executive position within OCOO for an FHFA employee, the PMO Manager; (2)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) advised two senior FHFA employees "not to bother applying for the job;" and (3) the creation of a new executive position was inconsistent with FHFA's prior buyouts.

As explained above, it was not possible for the PMO Manager to apply for this executive position in the summer of 2017, because the position had not yet been announced. Moreover, OIG promptly forwarded the first two hotline complaints it received in the summer of 2017 to a DGC and requested a response within 30 days. The DGC reported that the FHFA Director had approved the creation of a new executive position, but the new vacancy had not been announced and that he intended to ask (b)(6);(b)(7)(or reconsider filling that position. Until a position description had been drafted and the vacancy announcement posted, there was no claim to investigate.

Contrary to the assertion of the FHFA Director, FHFA could not "advance" her into an executive position until she competed and was selected for such a position because she was not an executive, and the newly created executive vacancy was first announced on November 20, 2017. OIG commenced its first administrative inquiry in January 2018, and completed its fact-finding in less than three months. By any measure, a three-month inquiry, in which more than 12 witnesses were interviewed and numerous FHFA documents were obtained and reviewed, is not "foot dragging."

¹ Her official position was Supervisory Management & Program Analyst. Within FHFA's Division of Conservatorship and at the time (b)(6);(b)(7)() was considering whether to create a new executive position within OCOO, her title was Senior Advisor and PMO Manager.

² At page 2 of his Response, the FHFA Director claims that "the FHFA-OIG was intimately involved in delaying [the PMO Manager's] being able to compete for a position of advancement within FHFA and in the delays that ultimately led her to file an EEO complaint against FHFA," and OIG "made it impossible for FHFA to advance [the PMO Manager] within FHFA from the summer of 2017 until May of 2018, because [OIG] dragged its feet on an investigation that could and should have been completed long before it was."

³ The DGC further reported that (b)(6),(b)(7)(denied "discourag[ing] FHFA employees from applying" for the position, and he credited that denial.

filling that position. He subsequently reported that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) intended to advertise the position and fill it.

On November 20, 2017, FHFA posted a job announcement for the new executive position, which was open only to FHFA employees and only for two weeks. On November 27, 2017, the DGC agreed to notify us before FHFA offered the new executive position to anyone.

OIG's First Administrative Inquiry

We received three additional anonymous hotline complaints concerning the new executive position, after it was posted.

From January to March 2018, we conducted an administrative inquiry into the five hotline complaints, all of which were directed at the Agency and [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) None of the allegations suggested an improper relationship between the PMO Manager and the Director. In the course of our inquiry, we reviewed relevant Agency documents and interviewed 12 witnesses, including the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager. In January 2018, we requested that FHFA place a "legal hold" on the position, pending the outcome of our inquiry into the allegations in the hotline complaints, to which FHFA agreed. 5

Interview of the FHFA Director

The FHFA Director was interviewed on February 15, 2018. He reported that, several years ago, he determined to retain sole authority to approve the creation of all executive positions within FHFA because he wanted to have the appropriate number of executives in the agency. He further explained that, pursuant to a directive issued by President Trump, each agency had to consider whether any vacant executive position could be eliminated and must justify the creation of any

⁴ This inquiry was conducted by career law enforcement personnel and career investigative counsel.

⁵ In January 2018, a panel concluded interviews of the candidates for the new executive position and determined that the PMO Manager was the most qualified candidate.

At page 2 of his Response, the FHFA Director contends that FHFA-OIG breached the confidentiality of the PMO Manager when it communicated to him that the panel had unanimously selected the PMO Manager for the new position. His assertion is incorrect.

The fact that the panel had unanimously selected the PMO Manager was not tightly-held. In late January 2018, the DGC informed FHFA-OIG that the panel had selected the PMO Manager. However, he did not advise that this selection was to be held in confidence. Indeed, the Chief of Staff to the FHFA Director, who was not a member of the panel, learned about the selection when she inquired about the result of the interview process for the position. She stated, in her signed declaration to the USPS contract investigator, that she assumed the PMO Manager's selection was rolled into the transfer of the PMO to the OCOO (which occurred in January 2018), and congratulated the PMO Manager on her selection. In sum, the PMO Manager had no privacy right that was violated when we reported the panel's selection recommendation to the FHFA Director.

new executive position. According to the Director, he had to be satisfied that any new executive would increase the Agency's efficiency.⁶ He stated that a number of FHFA employees, including the PMO Manager, expressed frustration that promotions to executive positions were available only through attrition because FHFA was "top-heavy."

The FHFA Director explained that beginning in 2016, there was a consensus among FHFA senior executives to transfer the PMO from DOC to OCOO, and that this transfer was a priority for 2017. However, he maintained that the allegation that (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) lobbied to create a new executive to manage the PMO for a specific employee was untrue. He denied both that he approved the creation of the new executive position in OCOO expressly for the PMO Manager and that the PMO Manager lobbied him directly to create an executive position for her.

The FHFA Director explained that he also retained sole authority to select a candidate to fill an executive vacancy. He stated that he usually followed recommendations made by his subordinates in selecting individuals to fill executive positions. He told us that he was unaware of the employees who applied for the new executive position and did not know the recommendation from the panel.

The FHFA Director acknowledged that, during his tenure, he spoke to a number of FHFA employees about the PMO Manager's abilities, but not specifically about whether she should be made an executive. According to the Director, FHFA has a number of talented employees, including the PMO Manager. In his view, the PMO Manager had great experience handling FHFA's relationship with Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and standing up DOC. He noted that the PMO Manager was a trusted lieutenant to the former Deputy Director of DOC, prior to her retirement, and that this former Deputy Director had spoken highly about the PMO Manager.

During this interview, the FHFA Director made no mention that he had previously discussed possible executive opportunities with the PMO Manager in private conversations and had a mentoring relationship with her.

_

⁶ In effect at the time that the FHFA Director approved (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) recommendation to create a new executive position was FHFA's Order No. 4, "Delegation of Authority to Approve Personnel Actions, Determinations, and Requests," which was issued by the previous FHFA Director on January 5, 2009. Under that order, the FHFA Director retained the authority to approve requests for executive positions. The current FHFA Director explicitly retained that authority when he replaced Order No. 4 with Order No. 4, Amendment No. 4 on September 15, 2017. In addition, on February 10, 2017, the FHFA Director sent a memorandum to all FHFA executive staff requiring them to "make a compelling case" for any new position and the need to fill it in response to the "Presidential Memorandum Regarding the Hiring Freeze," issued by the President on January 23, 2017.

Interview of the PMO Manager

The PMO Manager was interviewed on March 16, 2018. She explained that senior FHFA executives recommended and implemented the reorganization that moved the PMO to OCOO. The PMO Manager reported that she never heard that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) had discouraged employees from applying for the new executive position or that he favored any applicant. She denied that: (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) told her that he had a preferred candidate for the position; she had been told in advance of the selection process that she would be selected for the new executive position; or she was the preferred candidate for it. 7

At page 2 of his Response, the FHFA Director claims that OIG created an actual or apparent conflict of interest that precluded it from investigating his misconduct when OIG alerted him to the fact that the Agency's EEO office declined to accept for filing the PMO Manager's EEO claim. The Director's claim is erroneous, both as a matter of fact and law.

By letter dated March 27, 2018, the then-Deputy Inspector General for the Office of Investigation in FHFA-OIG recommended, in writing, to then-counsel for the PMO Manager that the PMO Manager bring her Title VII claims to the attention of FHFA's EEO office. A senior investigative counsel in FHFA-OIG underscored that recommendation in an email April 18, 2018, "we believe that the FHFA EEO Office should promptly and fully investigate [the EEO] matter in the first instance."

By early April 2018, the PMO Manager had disclosed both her identity and her Title VII claims to FHFA officials. An April 4, 2018, letter from then-counsel to the PMO manager reported that FHFA's EEO office had advised the PMO Manager that she could not pursue EEO counseling unless she could identify the individuals who discriminated against her. FHFA documents show that the PMO Manager raised her Title VII claims to \(\begin{align*} \b

FHFA-OIG had a reasonable, good faith belief that the PMO Manager had voluntarily revealed both her identity and the same Title VII claims raised in her hotline complaint to senior officials in FHFA in April 2018. Pursuant to Section 4(a)(5) of the IG Act of 1978, as amended, FHFA-OIG has both the duty and responsibility to bring to the FHFA Director's attention the fact that the Agency's EEO function had turned away the PMO Manager's Title VII claims. The Inspector General fulfilled that responsibility when she provided this information to the FHFA Director on April 25, 2018.

The Inspector General has publicly explained the reasons for her disclosures to the House Financial Services Committee on September 27, 2018:

We got a letter from her then-counsel on April 4, saying the EEO office, FHFA had rejected her claim. I was quite concerned about that because these are EEO issues, they facially sounded quite intensely serious to me. EEO has a pretty short timeline. I felt that appropriate for the EEO office to deal with it. [The PMO Manager] had already identified herself and her complaint to the EEO office.

This document contains data or personally identifiable information that is protected under the Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub.L. 93-579, 88 Stat. 1896, enacted December 31, 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a). It is for official use only. Unauthorized disclosures of this information can result in civil, criminal, or administrative penalties.

⁷ Three days after this interview, on March 19, 2018, the PMO Manager filed a whistleblower complaint with FHFA-OIG and asked for anonymity. Her complaint made two allegations. First, she alleged that FHFA officials misused the OIG hotline and filed false claims in order to perpetuate discrimination in the FHFA workforce. Second, she alleged her rights under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended) were violated when she was discriminated against on the basis of sex and race. She did not make any allegations against the FHFA Director.

OIG Refers to the Office of Special Counsel the Evidentiary Record of its Administrative Inquiry, and OSC Reaches a Decision on the Matter

Congress established the OSC as an independent federal investigative agency, the primary mission of which is "to protect[] federal employees and applicants from prohibited personnel practices." Therefore, we concluded the OSC was the appropriate entity to determine whether a prohibited personnel practice, had occurred regarding the creation of or selection for the new executive position.

We spoke with OSC officials during the inquiry to alert them that we intended to refer the matter to the OSC at the conclusion of our fact finding and formally referred the matter to OSC on March 22, 2018. The OSC accepted our referral, and on April 2, 2018, we provided the OSC with a summary of the facts found during our administrative inquiry, including documents provided by FHFA. On April 5, 2018, we met with OSC attorneys. The fact finding for our administrative inquiry was complete at that time.

By letter dated May 3, 2018, the OSC reported to us that it had reached a preliminary determination that the record as it then existed did not support the allegations that the new executive position was improperly created, or that FHFA executives provided the PMO Manager with an unauthorized preference or advantage in her selection by the panel.

On May 7, 2018, we provided OSC's written preliminary determination to FHFA and informed it that we had completed our administrative inquiry and planned to close the inquiry.

FHFA advised us that, as of November 28, 2018, the position remained vacant.

FHFA's Investigation of the PMO Manager's EEO Complaint

On May 9, 2018, the PMO Manager filed an informal complaint with FHFA's EEO office, alleging violations of her rights under the Equal Pay Act and discrimination (including sexual harassment) on the basis of her sex and race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of

What I said to [the FHFA] Director [] was very simple. We've gotten a complaint, that complaint is from [the PMO Manager] who previously made it to the EEO office which rejected it and – and frankly, sir, you need to do your job and tell the EEO office [to process the complaint]. It wasn't until July that anyone in my office became aware of any claims of sexual harassment, which had nothing to do with our prior work.

Even assuming that the PMO Manager had some anonymity to protect, which she did not, Section 7(b) of the Inspector General Act, as amended, required the Inspector General to disclose the identity of the PMO Manager to the FHFA Director without her consent because she determined that such disclosure would be "unavoidable during the course of the investigation." In sum, compliance with the IG Act does not create an actual or apparent conflict of interest, notwithstanding the Director's assertion.

1964 (as amended). Subsequently, the PMO Manager provided FHFA with specific allegations in support of her claims.

As part of her harassment claim the PMO Manager alleged that:

nformation withheld	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
ecause allegations	The state of the s are outside the 4 scope of HFA-OIG's
nvestigation.
J

FHFA contracted with the USPS to gather facts and other information related to the PMO Manager's Title VII sexual harassment claim. The fact gathering, which began on June 14, 2018, included obtaining sworn statements, portions of audio recordings the PMO Manager chose to produce, and unofficial "transcripts" prepared by the PMO Manager.⁸

On July 3, 2018, while the fact gathering process was underway, the PMO Manager used her FHFA computer and email address to forward to her personal counsel an email exchange she had with the USPS contract investigator. She also blind-copied over 100 FHFA managers. The message referenced recordings of conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director and stated that transcripts of those recordings were attached to it, although they were not.

Several minutes later, the PMO Manager re-sent that email message to her counsel and, once again, blind-copied the same group of FHFA managers. Attached to that message was a file named "Watt Employment Charade Process" containing an audio recording of a portion of a conversation between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director. Also attached were three purported transcripts of recorded conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA

⁸ The report by the USPS contract investigator did not contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, and did not address the allegations of misconduct by the FHFA Director that are the subject of this report.

⁹ Any FHFA employee who seeks to access FHFA servers, whether through a government-provided computer, laptop, or personal computer, must first agree to terms and conditions in which the employee acknowledges no expectation of privacy.

¹⁰ The PMO Manager blind copied her first two messages to an FHFA email list, called "!2018 Managers Conference," which included more than 100 FHFA managers.

Director which the PMO Manager labeled, "Four Types Attraction," "Tattoo," and "Why Have You Rejected My Advances." 11

Shortly thereafter, the PMO Manager sent a third message to the same group of FHFA managers that read, "Sorry – this was sent in error – please disreagrd [sic]." The three purported transcripts and the recorded conversation were, once again, appended to the message.

OIG's Second Administrative Inquiry

We first learned of the PMO Manager's sexual harassment claim against the Director in July 2018, when we received three additional hotline complaints citing to the email messages and attachments sent by the PMO Manager. These complaints alleged, in summary, that the FHFA Director misused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary executive position for the PMO Manager, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created improperly (and for which we had previously completed our work). This inquiry focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director and was expressly authorized by the IG Act, as amended, which vests us with authority to investigate possible waste, fraud, and abuse in the operations and programs of FHFA and by FHFA officials. Contrary to the Director's assertion, this inquiry proceeded separately from the Agency's investigation into the PMO

¹¹ These were not actually transcripts, although they have the outward trappings of transcripts. Each of these three purported transcripts appeared to be produced by a certified transcription company because: each contained introductory pages labeled, "Transcript of Recorded Conversation;" each had a job number and the name of a court reporter who worked for the transcription company and provided the transcription; and each included a signed certification by the named court reporter, under penalty of perjury, that the transcript was a "full, true and correct transcription" of the recording.

We learned subsequently, from the USPS contract investigator's report, that these three purported transcripts were created by the PMO Manager in 2018 from her recollections of 2016 conversations, using a "template" of a transcript from the transcription company. As we explain later in this report, the PMO Manager declined to provide either to the USPS contract investigator or to us the recordings of these conversations that these "transcripts" purported to document. Therefore, we treated each of these purported transcripts as the PMO Manager's 2018 recollections of conversations that took place during 2016.

¹² The field work for this inquiry was conducted by career government attorneys who serve as senior executives in OIG.

¹³ As we advised counsel for the PMO Manager in March and April 2018, and the FHFA Director, jurisdiction for the Title VII claim raised by the PMO Manager rests initially with FHFA and then with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Manager's EEO claims and did not compromise or supplant that investigation. We conducted this inquiry in conformance with the Quality Standards for Investigations promulgated by CIGIE, and with CIGIE Quality Standards for Federal Offices of Inspector General.

As we did before, we are referring to the OSC the allegations regarding improper creation of a new executive position, and pre-selection of the PMO Manager. We are also providing to OSC the evidentiary record we compiled in this second inquiry, given that the OSC has the statutory authority to determine whether FHFA senior executives engaged in any (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

OIG's Efforts to Obtain Audio Recordings, Transcripts, and Other Documents

FHFA provided us with the July 3, 2018, emails and attachments sent by the PMO Manager to her counsel and the FHFA managers. Thereafter, we sent requests for information to FHFA, and to the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager, through their respective counsel. FHFA provided responsive documents. The PMO Manager's counsel sent us six recordings made by her client of conversations with the FHFA Director:

- one recording of a conversation that occurred purportedly on June 17, 2016;
- three recordings of portions of a conversation on November 11, 2016;
- a duplicate of one of the November 11, 2016, recordings; and
- one recording of a phone conversation that occurred on May 10, 2018.

After listening to those recordings, which appeared to stop and start during the conversations being recorded, we concluded that none was a complete record.

The PMO Manager's counsel also produced:

- transcripts of the June 17, 2016,¹⁵ and the three November 11, 2016, recordings, identified above;
- a transcript of a conversation with the FHFA Director that occurred purportedly on March 13, 2018 (but no recording for that conversation); and

This document contains data or personally identifiable information that is protected under the Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub.L. 93-579, 88 Stat. 1896, enacted December 31, 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a). It is for official use only. Unauthorized disclosures of this information can result in civil, criminal, or administrative penalties.

¹⁴ In the draft report we provided to the FHFA Director for his response, we referred to an Appendix A, which set forth a summary of the facts concerning the creation of the new executive position within OCOO. Because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) related to the creation of the executive position within OCOO is ongoing, we have not included Appendix A as part of this final report. Once OSC completes its review, we will report OSC's determination in our Semi-Annual Report as required under Sections 5(a)(19) and 5(a)(22)(B) of the IG Act.

¹⁵ The transcript of the conversation is dated June 17, 2016. However, the FHFA Director testified that the dinner meeting occurred on June 8, 2016, which was confirmed by the charge on his credit card statement. For purposes of this report, we refer to the recording of that meeting, and transcript, as June 17, 2016.

 three unofficial "transcripts" prepared by the PMO Manager of other conversations with the FHFA Director that occurred purportedly in 2016, which were substantially similar to the purported transcripts sent by the PMO Manager on July 3, 2018 (but no recordings for those conversations).

We also received from the USPS contract investigator, through FHFA, a recording of a phone conversation that occurred on May 8, 2018, between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director.

To ensure that all materials, including recordings, relevant to our administrative inquiry were produced by the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager, we issued separate administrative subpoenas to them on July 18, 2018. ¹⁶ Counsel for the FHFA Director and for the PMO Manager accepted service of the subpoenas. ¹⁷

On July 27, 2018, the FHFA Director produced responsive materials. Counsel for the PMO Manager assured us that the PMO Manager would cooperate, and expressly authorized us to travel to the PMO Manager's residence to retrieve from her copies of her audio recordings of conversations with the FHFA Director. That counsel asked for technological assistance to transfer all audio recordings to an encrypted flash drive and explained that such technological assistance was "the only impediment to the production" of the recordings. We agreed to provide that assistance.

From July 24, 2018, to the issuance of this report, the PMO Manager did not cooperate in our inquiry, although we advised her, both orally and in writing, that our inquiry focused solely on allegations of misconduct by the FHFA Director, for which she was only a witness. We asked FHFA to provide to us the government cell phone issued to the PMO Manager because the PMO Manager said she used it to record conversations with the FHFA Director. The Agency asked the PMO Manager to return that phone. The USPS contract investigator's report stated that the PMO Manager recounted that she had taken the government cell phone issued to her to a third party "data recovery provider who was able to recover data from [her] work phone." However, the PMO Manager declined to return this FHFA-issued government cell phone to FHFA.

After the PMO Manager refused to comply with our administrative subpoena, we sought the assistance of the Office of the US Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia to file a petition with the Court to enforce the subpoena. At that time, our second administrative inquiry was approximately one month old, and we believed that the information sought from the PMO was essential to our ability to conduct the inquiry.

This document contains data or personally identifiable information that is protected under the Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub.L. 93-579, 88 Stat. 1896, enacted December 31, 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a). It is for official use only. Unauthorized disclosures of this information can result in civil, criminal, or administrative penalties.

¹⁶ Neither the PMO Manager nor her counsel provided to us any recordings of conversations between January 1, 2016, and June 7, 2016; between June 9, 2016, and November 10, 2016; and between November 12, 2016, and May 9, 2018.

¹⁷ Upon the receipt of the subpoenas, neither counsel questioned the independence of this administrative inquiry, challenged the subpoena as issued for an improper purpose (such as harassment, intimidation, or retaliation), or claimed that we lacked authority to issue it.

The PMO Manager stated in her signed declaration to the USPS contract investigator, dated August 8, 2018, that "there were two regular weekly [senior staff] meetings that [she] attended with the Director..." and that she "recorded all conversations with [the FHFA Director] from 2016 to present." Her statement led us to believe that she may have additional recordings of her conversations with the FHFA Director. To the best of our knowledge, the PMO Manager was, and remains, the sole source for these additional recordings. Despite our best efforts, we have been unable to secure those recordings.

At pages 3, 4, and 6 of his Response, the FHFA Director seizes on representations in our moving papers to claim that we have demonstrated "an apparent willingness to have the Justice Department deceive the United States District Court" because we reached two findings without obtaining the recordings sought in the subpoena.

Once again, the Director's claim has no factual basis. On October 5, 2018, after a full round of briefings and a hearing, the judge ordered the PMO Manager to produce all materials sought by the subpoena. On October 15, 2018, the PMO Manager appealed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. While we recognized that this litigation could lead us to obtain the materials in the possession of the PMO Manager, we were mindful that such litigation could take many months to resolve. Moreover, the IG Act requires us to timely report substantiated allegations of misconduct by senior agency officials. We determined, after close review of the information obtained during our second administrative inquiry, that the information we had acquired to date was sufficient to substantiate misconduct by the FHFA Director. It is the statutory mandate that creates the exigency of time, and not, as the Director suggests the expiration of his term on January 6, 2018.

We conveyed this analysis to the Office of the US Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia and an agreement was reached with counsel for the PMO Manager to dismiss her appeal. Together, the parties sought to dismiss the subpoena enforcement action, which was approved by the Court on November 1, 2018. In dismissing this action, the Court raised no concerns about the legitimate basis either for the petition or the dismissal.

Review of Audio Recordings

Audio recordings provide contemporaneous evidence of statements made by the FHFA Director to the PMO Manager. As we have explained, we obtained, from counsel for the PMO Manager and from the USPS contract investigator (through FHFA), recordings made by the PMO Manager of portions of four conversations with the FHFA Director, two of which occurred after the executive position was created and the PMO Manager was selected by the panel to fill it. We caused transcripts to be made for each of these recordings. Two of these recordings, from conversations between the PMO Manager and the Director in June and November 2016, are relevant to this inquiry.

The June 17, 2016, Recording:

The FHFA Director confirmed that he and the PMO Manager met for dinner at the Rosa Mexicano restaurant in June 2016 and that this dinner was one of two meals that they shared offsite and alone. The portion of the recording produced to us begins in the middle of a conversation that purportedly occurred in June 2016 in a restaurant, with the PMO Manager asking the FHFA Director when the position, which is an executive position, would become vacant. The FHFA Director responded, "I don't know what the timing is. [The wouldn't be surprised if it was sooner rather than later." At a subsequent point in the recording, the Director suggested that the Chief of Staff position, an executive position, would become vacant after his current Chief of Staff moved to a different position.

The Director asked the PMO Manager: "What do you want, not just limited to the things I've laid out, what do you want to do?" She responded: "I think I've definitely been looking for kind of, you know, an expansion in role. The chief of staff is ideal, but that'd be up to you, I guess." The FHFA Director explained that his term was limited to five years, which would be "a downside to having the chief of staff position" because "it doesn't necessarily carry over" and is "a discretionary position." The PMO Manager replied, "I don't think I'm going to stay at FHFA for the rest of my life" and "I think I can find other places." The FHFA Director concurred: "And being chief of staff to me would position you for a lot of places."

The November 11, 2016, Recording:

The FHFA Director confirmed that it is his voice on this recording of a conversation with the PMO Manager and that this conversation took place in his apartment in November 2016. Text messages between the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager sent and received from his

¹⁸ The PMO Manager declined to produce recordings for three conversations she had with the FHFA Director during 2016 for which she created three unofficial "transcripts," one version of which was attached to her July 3, 2018, email. The report of the USPS contract investigator recounted what the PMO Manager told the investigator: the PMO Manager used a template from a transcription service company to create unofficial "transcripts" of her recollections of these three 2016 conversations; at her request, a third party data recovery service provider recovered data from a government cell phone issued to her; after the third-party data recovery provider recovered data from that government issued cell phone, the PMO Manager listened to recordings that she thought had been erased; she compared the recordings to her unofficial "transcripts" created from her memory; she found that the recordings were "consistent with minor deviations"; she "modified" her unofficial "transcripts" to "match the recordings"; she provided those modified unofficial "transcripts" to the contract investigator; and she did not make the recordings available to that investigator.

private cell phone during the period November 4-11, 2016, show that the Director first invited the PMO Manager to his apartment over the weekend of November 12-13, 2016, and that she agreed to meet with him on November 11, a federal holiday.¹⁹

At pages 10-11 of his Response, the Director maintains that we have "chosen to ignore" a text message in order to reach the "disingenuous" conclusion that he induced the PMO Manager to come to his apartment. After the FHFA Director and PMO Manager, agreed by text, to meet on Friday, November 11, 2016 (which are set forth in footnote 19), the PMO Manager proposed in a text that the two meet, "at 1," to which the Director responded, "You can let me know where," and the PMO Manager replied, "What works for you?" In other words, the PMO Manager left it to the FHFA Director to select a meeting place – and he selected his apartment. The partial recording of the November 11, 2016 conversation between the PMO Manager and the Director underscores that the meeting place was chosen by the Director. In that recording, the Director stated, "I think you finally came – you finally came to the conclusion that I did, that this is the safest place to do this, to have this conversation. It would be the safest place to – if it were going beyond this conversation. But I think you were concerned that I was luring you here for other reasons."

This recording begins in the middle of a conversation in which the FHFA Director appears to have raised the opportunity for the PMO Manager to fill one of two potential executive positions in FHFA: Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer. The FHFA Director characterized the former as "our original plan" which was "to try to bring you into [the current Chief of Staff's] office, and that would've put you in line right behind [the current Chief of Staff] to become chief of staff." The Director then explained to the PMO Manager that this option "wouldn't have been a good idea anyway. Because the chief of staff is a position that basically whether you are career or whether you are schedule C, it's generally going to change when the new director comes in." He explained further that, in the event his successor chose a different chief of staff, she could "bump back" to her current position or to another position in the Agency equivalent to the one she left.

¹⁹ In these texts, the FHFA Director sought to have the PMO Manager visit him for a longer period of time than she was willing. The PMO Manager texted, "I have a few hours tomorrow [b]etween 1 and 3," to which the Director responds, "Do [yo]u have more, less or no time on Sat or Sun instead? How do you calculate that the time between 1 & 3 is a 'few' hours?" The PMO Manager replies, "Lol It's a lot for me." The Director then texted, "Sat or Sun or is my option only the 'few' hours between 1 & 3 tom[orrow]?" The PMO Manager replied, "Yes Friday." On her way to his apartment on November 11, 2016, the PMO Manager texted, "About 30 mins out," and the Director responds, "The 'few' gets shorter."

"take his position back" which was the reason that FHFA could not fill that position, even though the Director acknowledged that the PMO Manager was "doing a lot of the responsibilities that go with" that position.

The PMO Manager expressed her appreciation to the FHFA Director for "putting some thought into it and sharing that with me," and stated that "I think I would be qualified for either position..." She then said, "I just need to make sure that I feel clear and confident that this is just going to be based on merit and fitness for the position, and that there's nothing else."

The FHFA Director replied that he "intended to address that first." He then told the PMO Manager he thought she was "gorgeous" but he did not "make agency decisions based on who's gorgeous and who's not." He maintained that he had "gone out of [his] way to get this – get our friendship. . . – or whatever it is, out of the public view because when other people start seeing things, they start putting different equations into it." He reported to the PMO Manager that "the truth of the matter is I don't pay much attention to other people's perceptions unless I'm guilty. And I'm guilty of having an attraction to you. That is true."

The Director acknowledged that he had "tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me. And that's fine. I accept it. I know I can draw the line." After repeating four times that he could "draw the line," the FHFA Director added, "[m]uch to my disappointment..."

The FHFA Director then asked the PMO Manager, "How are you feeling? What are you feeling?" and she responded, "I think I've definitely had concerns with – well definitely with coming here." Even though he professed to know where to draw the line, he again remarked that his apartment was the "safest place to do this, to have this conversation" and that "[i]t would be the safest place to – if it were going beyond this conversation."

Interviews and Sworn Testimony

Between July 9, 2018, and October 18, 2018, we interviewed 20 witnesses – some on multiple occasions. Counsel for the PMO Manager did not respond to two written requests by us for an interview with the PMO Manager. A summary of two of these interviews follows.

Interview of the FHFA Director

On October 11, 2018, we interviewed the FHFA Director under oath, using a court reporter to transcribe the interview. 20 He confirmed that he met the PMO Manager alone in his apartment in November 2016, and that it is his voice on the recording of a portion of his conversation with the PMO Manager, provided to us by the PMO Manager's counsel.

²⁰ The FHFA Director was represented by counsel at this interview.

He testified that he is the only executive in FHFA authorized to approve the creation of a new executive position, and that FHFA remains "top-heavy" with executives, despite his approval of an executive buy-out which the Agency conducted in 2014. The FHFA Director stated that he recognized that circumstances might require him to approve a request to create a new executive position. However, he would do so only if such a request was supported by a "compelling case" based upon "substantial documentation and support." The Director established this standard in a February 10, 2017, memorandum he sent to FHFA executives following the issuance of the "Presidential Memorandum Regarding the Hiring Freeze" by the White House on January 23, 2017.

The FHFA Director also testified that he has been the PMO Manager's friend and mentor since at least 2016, ²² and that he met her alone outside of the FHFA workplace on four occasions in 2016: at a restaurant; at a night club; in Rock Creek Park; and at his apartment in Washington, D.C. ²³ Although he testified that he has mentored a great many individuals, he could not recall a female mentee other than the PMO Manager whom he invited to his private residence in DC. ²⁴

The FHFA Director stated that the PMO Manager made it clear to him on multiple occasions that she wanted to be an executive in the agency. He added that "it was general knowledge that [the PMO Manager] was one of the people in the agency who had – who had good skills and should be considered if an executive level position ever got created."

He testified that he assumed the PMO Manager would apply for the new executive position in OCOO when he approved the creation of it. He also confirmed that one of the options he considered for the PMO Manager was the "original plan" to bring her into the Chief of Staff's office that "would've put [her] in line" to become chief of staff. He did not dispute that he discussed the chief of staff and COO positions with the PMO Manager, but thought he never ²¹ In 2014, the Director approved a buyout of 12 FHFA executives at a cost of about $1.45 million.

²² The FHFA Director testified that he became the PMO Manager's mentor when she started coming to him for advice after his first meeting with her to discuss the PMO in 2015.

²³ The FHFA Director also recalled meeting her at a restaurant in 2015.

²⁴ He recalled that a FHFA female IT technician came to his apartment "to set up [his] home computing capabilities with the office" but that he was not in "an ongoing mentoring relationship" with her. He stated that this technician had since retired. During his October 11, 2018, deposition, the Director confirmed that, other than the female IT technician and the PMO Manager, no other female mentees visited his apartment in Washington, D.C.

discussed with her the impediments to her if she competed for the COO position. He explained those impediments to us: if the PMO Manager, who was a grade below an executive, "was competing for the [COO's] position, there would probably be multiple existing executives who would want that position... And so no way a level 15 probably was going to get that job...."

Interview of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We interviewed (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) on October 10, 2018, under oath and before a court reporter who transcribed the interview. 25 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) testified that he was "transparent" with the PMO Manager and the OQA Manager, and discussed options by which to manage the PMO and OQA, including an option to create a new executive position and an option to place the PMO under an existing executive.

option other than the creation of a new executive position and became upset. Further, she advised that she was "going to go talk to the Director about that." (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) recalled that he warned the Director about this development and that the Director responded that the PMO Manager had already spoken with him and that he had told the PMO Manager that the decision was up to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 26

FINDINGS

As discussed, we recognize the likelihood that the PMO Manager has additional recordings of her conversations with the FHFA Director which the PMO Manager has not produced in response to our information request, subpoena, and a Court Order. To the best of our knowledge, the PMO Manager was, and remains, the sole source for these additional recordings. However, based on our review of the identified recordings, documents, and information learned during our interviews, we have determined that we have a sufficient basis on which to reach two findings of misconduct by the FHFA Director.

^{25 (}b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was represented by counsel at this interview.

When asked whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(reported the PMO Manager would complain to the FHFA Director if (b)(6);(b)(6);(b)(1) did not recommend creation of a new position, the FHFA Director answered: "He definitely didn't tell me that because I would have remembered that." He did not recall whether the PMO Manager came to see him after she thought (b)(6);(b)(7)(might not recommend creation of such a position.

The FHFA Director Misused his Official Position to Attempt to Obtain a Personal Benefit

The Standards establish a code of conduct applicable to all officials and employees of the federal executive agencies. At all times relevant to our inquiry, the FHFA Director was subject to the Standards.

Section 702 of the Standards prohibits an officer or employee from using any authority associated with his federal office in a manner that is intended to coerce or induce a subordinate to provide him with any benefit, financial or otherwise.

For the reasons set forth below, we find that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in some sort of relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position within FHFA.

The recording of the Director's conversation with the PMO Manager on November 11, 2016, establishes that the Director, not the PMO Manager, went "out of [his] way to get this – get our friendship. . . – or whatever it is, out of the public view because when other people start seeing things, they start putting different equations into it." The PMO Manager made clear in the recording that this off-site, on on one meeting at his apartment made her uncomfortable: "I think I've definitely had concerns with – well, definitely with coming here."

The Director explained his personal interest in the PMO Manager: "the truth of the matter is I don't pay much attention to other people's perceptions unless I'm guilty. And I'm guilty of having an attraction to you. That's true." He went on to say that he had "tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me," and was "comfortable with drawing the line where you told me I needed to draw it. So I've drawn that line [] [m]uch to my disappointment." He stated that his apartment was the "safest place...to have this conversation" and that "[i]t would be the safest place to – if it were going beyond this conversation."

The Director continued his discussion of the two executive position options for the PMO Manager, that of Chief of Staff and COO. He had also raised the option of the Chief of Staff position in the recorded conversation with the PMO Manager during the Rosa Mexicano dinner in June 2016. The PMO Manager responded that she thought she would "be qualified for either position," and asked the FHFA Director to assure her that any promotion "is just going to be based on merit and fitness for the position, and that there's nothing else." The FHFA Director responded that he thought she was "gorgeous" but didn't "make agency decisions based on who's gorgeous and who's not." He asserted that his discussion with the PMO Manager about two executive positions "has nothing to do with either your beauty or your – or my feelings. But that doesn't eliminate the feelings or the beauty."

The Director sought to get the PMO Manager to agree with his perspective about the need to meet, alone, at his apartment:

But you understand I think you finally came – you finally came to the conclusion that I did, that this is the safest place to do this, to have this conversation. It would be the safest place to – if it were going beyond this conversation. But I think you were concerned that I was luring you here for other reasons. I wasn't concerned about that.

He added that his apartment was "just a safer place to have a conversation" for the PMO Manager because she would otherwise have exposure "sitting in a restaurant, going to Blues Alley, anywhere out in the public" because he was "so well known."

During his sworn interview, the FHFA Director sought to cast these remarks in an innocent light. According to the Director, he did not have a romantic attraction to the PMO Manager. He testified that the PMO Manager "started to make periodic visits to [his] office, during which [they] would discuss work and non-work topics. The increased frequency of those visits" and the "odd times at which they – the visits started to occur raised [his] suspicions that [the PMO Manager] could be developing an attraction to [him] that would be inappropriate for either an employer/employee relationship or a friendship or a mentor/mentee relationship." For that reason, he explained that he "requested an off-site meeting with [the PMO Manager] after work hours for the specific purpose of addressing and hopefully eliminating [his] suspicions about [her] intentions" and this meeting occurred at Rosa Mexicano in June 2016.

The FHFA Director volunteered that, while en route to Rosa Mexicano, he mentioned to the PMO Manager that there was an attraction between them that needed to be explored so that he could ascertain the PMO Manager's reaction. She "denied that she had any attraction of the kind I had suspected." He maintained that he "confirmed that [his] intention was to make sure there was no confusion about whether there was anything other than 'an attraction of friendship'." The FHFA Director testified that it was that "clarification" from the PMO Manager "that made it possible for [them] to have [] the walk in Rock Creek Park or meet at a performance venue or even have her come to my house to talk about work," all of which he considered appropriate.

With that background, the FHFA Director explained that his remark on the November 11, 2016, recording that he was "guilty of having an attraction" to the PMO Manager meant only that he had "a friendship attraction" as he did with "all [his] mentees." The Director opined that there was nothing in the recording that was inconsistent with that meaning. He asserted that he has

"told a number of [his] mentees that [he] think[s] they're gorgeous" and that he has a "friendship attraction" to them. The Director acknowledged that no other female mentees had visited his D.C. apartment. He recalled that an FHFA female IT employee, who has since retired, had visited his apartment "to set up [his] home computing capabilities with the office" but that he was not in "an ongoing mentoring relationship" with her.

The Director also maintained that his reference to line-drawing concerned "[the] line between making decisions based on friendship and making decisions based on my responsibilities as Director" of FHFA. The FHFA Director dismissed his reference to his "disappointment" about drawing the line to be "a joke" and commented that both he and the PMO Manager laughed because "she knew [he] was joking" about whether he had a physical or sexual attraction to her. The Director also expressed his belief that the PMO Manager "knows in her heart that there was no effort [by him] to pursue any kind of romantic relationship with her."

We are not persuaded by the explanations offered by the FHFA Director. Contrary to his testimony, the recording of the November 11, 2016, conversation reveals that the PMO Manager drew the line in question, not the Director. In the recording the Director is heard to say, "I tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me" and that "I'm comfortable with drawing the line where you told me I needed to draw it." (Emphasis added.) As the FHFA Director's recorded words made clear, the line in question was drawn by the PMO Manager in an effort to place limits on his conduct toward her, which the Director "tried to accept." Thus, we reject the Director's explanation for this exchange. We are not persuaded by the Director's assertion that the PMO Manager considered his statement that he would observe the line "much to [his] disappointment" to be nothing more than a "joke." Less than a minute after the Director told the PMO Manager that he could "draw[] the line where you told me I needed to draw it," the PMO Manager said, "I think I've definitely had concerns with – well with definitely coming here."

The Director advised the PMO Manager, in the November 11, 2016, recording, and acknowledged, in both his February 2018 interview and October 2018 testimony to us, that he had sole authority to select candidates to fill executive positions. Had the FHFA Director sought solely to discuss potential advancement opportunities with a mentee, as he maintained, those discussions could, and would, have occurred during business hours in FHFA's offices.

Moreover, we find the FHFA Director's alternative explanation is not credible. He asserts that meetings outside FHFA's office with the PMO Manager were necessary to avoid unjustified suspicions of an inappropriate relationship. But he also maintains that he was concerned that the PMO Manager might have been interested in an inappropriate relationship, and he sought to assure himself that she was not. He acknowledges, in his sworn testimony, that he never met another female mentee at his apartment. Given the Director's stated concerns about the interests of the PMO Manager, the Director should have been especially scrupulous about conducting meetings with the PMO Manager in FHFA's offices. Instead, by his own admission, he treated the PMO Manager differently from other female mentees. A reasonable conclusion is that he did so because he was seeking an inappropriate relationship with her.

We find it more likely than not that the FHFA Director sought to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in some sort of relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by inviting her to his apartment (which he characterized as the "safest place to do this, to have this conversation. It would be the safest place to – if it were going beyond this conversation"), and reporting that he was "guilty of having an attraction" to her, by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in obtaining an executive position at FHFA which he knew that she sought.²⁷

We are not persuaded by the Director's assertion that our findings are misplaced because the balance of the recordings of his conversations with the PMO Manager would show "her initiating conversations with me, a lot more than me initiating conversations with her." Assuming the Director is correct in this regard, the recordings would neither mitigate nor excuse his conduct. There are no circumstances under which it is appropriate for the head of FHFA to induce a subordinate employee to meet with him alone, in his apartment, for a conversation in which he professes his attraction for that employee and holds out opportunities for the employee to serve in specific executive positions over which he exercises total control.

At page 11 of his Response, the FHFA Director complains that we are applying a standard that is "both sexist and inconsistent with current standards of gender equality [and] is also inconsistent with the standard of equality I have been fighting for throughout my professional career." We stand by our finding: had the Director sought only to mentor this subordinate employee (whether male or female), there would have been no reason to induce that employee to meet at the Director's apartment, alone, on a federal holiday, and embark upon a conversation in which the Director intermingles comments about his attraction to that employee and admiration of that employee's physical appearance with a discussion of possible paths by which she could advance into FHFA's executive ranks.

_

²⁷ We do not credit the Director's statement that the possible executive positions he was discussing had "nothing to do with either [her] beauty or [his] feelings" or attraction to her. Were that the case, these discussions would have occurred during office hours within FHFA.

Pursuant to governing federal regulation, 5 C.F.R.§ 2638.107, "an agency head is responsible for, and will exercise personal leadership in, establishing and maintaining an effective agency ethics program and fostering an ethical culture in the agency." To do so, the Agency head must "demonstrate the importance of integrity and ethical values through [his] directives, attitudes, and behavior" and "lead by an example that demonstrates the organization's values, philosophy, and operating style." Otherwise, employees will not believe in or abide by the tenets of the agency's ethical culture. The Director's conversation with the PMO Manager on November 11, 2016, certainly calls into question his commitment to gender equality, notwithstanding his public pronouncements.

For those reasons, we find that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 of the Standards when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in a relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position with FHFA.

2. The FHFA Director Was Not Candid

Every agency employee, including the head of an agency, providing information in an OIG inquiry must be fully forthcoming and candid as to all facts and information relevant to the inquiry, even if that employee is not specifically asked about particular facts or information. Thus, an employee must disclose those things that, in the circumstances, are needed to make the employee's statement complete and accurate.²⁹

At the outset of the interview with the FHFA Director on February 15, 2018, an OIG Investigative Counsel and an OIG Senior Special Agent informed him that they were conducting an administrative inquiry into allegations that FHFA senior executives had improperly created a new executive position and pre-selected the PMO Manager to fill it. We find that the FHFA Director was not candid during his February 15, 2018, interview for the reasons set forth below.

The FHFA Director stated that he was the only individual in the Agency who: (1) could approve the creation of an executive position in FHFA and (2) could approve the selection of an individual to fill that position. In these circumstances, the existence of his personal relationship

²⁸ Government Accountability Office, Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government (Sept. 10, 2014) (GAO-14-704G) (online at https://www.gao.gov/assets/670/665712.pdf).

²⁹ Ludlum v. Dept. of Justice, 278 F. 3d 1280, 1284 (Fed Cir. 2002). See Ludlum v. Department of Justice, 87 M.S.P.R. 56, paragraph 13 (2000), aff'd., 278 F.3d 1280 (Fed. Cir. 2002) ("lack of candor exists when an applicant breaches the duty 'to be fully forthcoming as to all facts and information relevant to a matter before the FCC, whether or not such information is particularly elicited."). Additionally, FHFA employees are obliged to provide OIG "accurate and complete information when requested" under a Memorandum of Understanding between FHFA and OIG in effect at all times relevant to both of our administrative inquiries.

- whether a friendship, mentorship, or "whatever it is" - with the PMO Manager was material to an inquiry examining whether an executive position had been properly created and whether the PMO Manager had been afforded preferential treatment. The FHFA Director, however, failed to disclose during his February 2018 interview what he disclosed during his October 2018, sworn testimony: that he considered himself to be the PMO Manager's friend and mentor, at least since 2016. We now know, from his recorded statements in November 2016 to the PMO Manager that he: was "guilty of having an attraction" to her; and it was "much to [his] disappointment" that he had to "draw[] the line" where she told him it needed to be drawn.

There can be no doubt that the information that the Director failed to disclose during his February 2018 interview was material to the first investigation. The focus of that inquiry was whether the executive position had been improperly created and whether the PMO Manager had been preselected for it. Therefore, it was highly relevant whether the Director had any sort of relationship with the PMO Manager. We find that the FHFA Director's omission of material information regarding the nature and tenor of his relationship with the PMO Manager during his February 15, 2018, interview to constitute a lack of candor.

We also find that the Director was not candid with us when he failed to disclose that he had a plan, dating back to at least June 2016, under which the PMO Manager could advance into FHFA's executive ranks, as the June 17, 2016, and November 11, 2016, recordings show. In the recorded conversations of June 17, 2016, the Director appears to have raised the opportunity for the PMO Manager to fill one of two potential executive positions in FHFA: Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer. In the recorded conversation of November 11, 2016, the Director explained, "our original plan was to – at least one of the options that we were looking at was to try to bring you into [the current Chief of Staff's] office, and that would've put you in line right behind [the current Chief of Staff] to become chief of staff." After recounting the reasons that this plan "wouldn't have been a good idea anyway," the Director described the scenario under which another executive position, COO, might become vacant, creating a vacancy for the PMO Manager. The Director's "plan" for the PMO Manager to obtain an executive position was material, particularly when the Director retained sole authority to create executive positions and appoint individuals to them. We find the Director's omission of material information during his February 15, 2018, interview regarding his "plan" for the PMO Manager to obtain an executive position to constitute a lack of candor.

CONCLUSIONS

We provided a draft of this report to the FHFA Director; his November 26, 2018, written Response is attached as the Appendix. The Director's response is notable for what it does not contain. Nowhere does the FHFA Director deny that: (1) he invited a subordinate employee to meet with him alone, in his apartment; (2) during that meeting, he professed his physical attraction for that employee and held out opportunities for that employee to be promoted into specific executive positions; and (3) he knew this subordinate employee sought these executive positions over which he exercised total control.

Nor does the Director offer any evidence or assertions that contradict our findings. Rather, he claims that this report is incomplete because we lack the balance of the recordings made by the PMO Manager of her conversations with the Director. The Director states that the missing recordings would show that the PMO Manager, and not the Director, initiated most of the conversations. The Director, however, does not explain why that information would be exculpatory to a claim of misuse of government position for personal gain.

Lacking any exculpatory facts, the Director criticizes the inquiry that brought his misconduct to light. In particular, the Director alleges that: the report represents a "rush to judgment" so we could vindicate our independence and integrity; we improperly investigated a matter under Title VII and compromised FHFA's EEO process; our administrative inquiry was flawed; and we misled a federal court in our subpoena application. For the reasons set forth in this report, we flatly reject each of the process issues raised by the FHFA Director.

We follow the facts wherever they lead and we report the good and the bad. When our fact-finding identifies deficiencies in FHFA's programs and operations, shortcomings in FHFA's implementation of policies and guidance, inadequate internal controls, or wrongdoing by FHFA employees or senior executives of the conserved entities, we report the evidence that demonstrates the deficiencies, shortcomings, or wrongdoing, in accordance with professional standards. This inquiry and report were conducted in conformance with CIGIE Quality Standards for Investigations and the CIGIE Quality Standards for Federal Offices of Inspector General. We stand by the integrity of our administrative inquiry and by our two findings.

We are issuing this report to the President of the United States for such action as he deems appropriate, and to the OGE and to our congressional oversight committees. We are refferring to the OSC the allegations about (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) for its review and determination.

APPENDIX: FHFA DIRECTOR'S RESPONSE

MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 26, 2018

TO: Leonard J. DePasquale and Laura Werthheimer, Office of the Inspector General, Federal Housing Finance Agency

	10.71.71.71.71.71
FROM: Melvin L. Watt, Director, Federal Housing Finance Agenc	1

(b)(6):(b)(7)(C)

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT

I strongly disagree with this Draft OIG Report of Investigation (Draft OIG Report or Draft Report) and its "Findings." The Draft OIG Report reflects that the real interests of the FHFA OIG in this matter have turned out to be deflecting attention away from the OIG's own involvement in causing Ms. Simone Grimes to file legal claims against FHFA, getting a quick result, and protecting the OIG from political criticism, instead of making an effort to obtain and fairly report the facts.

Additionally, both Finding 1 and Finding 2 are not supported by the facts in this case. Anyone reading this Draft Report (or the final OIG report, which I apparently will not be provided an opportunity to review and respond to) should be concerned that other interests have taken priority over the facts and should take special note of the following Response in evaluating whether the final OIG report or any of its conclusions should be considered.

In support of this Response, attached hereto are the following documents to which I make reference in this Response to ensure that the reader has a more complete understanding of all facts and circumstances related to this matter:

- Exhibit 1: Copy of letter from Leonard J. DePasquale dated November 15, 2018 and the Draft OIG Report to which this Response is being made.
- 2. Exhibit 2: Copies of emails from me and/or my attorney to Leonard J. DePasquale, General Counsel of the FHFA OIG dated November 16, 17, and 19, 2018 requesting an extension of time to prepare and respond to the Draft OIG Report and requesting a copy of Appendix A referenced in the Draft Report, and emails from Mr. DePasquale denying both requests:

- Exhibit 3: Memorandum in Support of Petition of the United States to Enforce Subpoena Issued by the Inspector General of the Federal Housing Finance Agency;
- Exhibit 4: Copy of my deposition provided under oath at the request of the FHFA OIG on October 11, 2018;
- Exhibit 5: Transcript of recorded conversation between me and Ms. Grimes on May 10, 2018;
- Exhibit 6: Fresh Facts publication on mentoring I prepared for Women's Equality Day.

The FHFA OIG should have recused itself from this matter because of real conflicts of interest as well as the appearance of a conflict of interest. The OIG has two real conflicts of interest and the appearance of a third conflict of interest which should have caused the OIG to recuse itself from this investigation.

- 1. The FHFA OIG was intimately involved in delaying Ms. Grimes' being able to compete for a position of advancement within FHFA and in the delays that ultimately led her to file an EEO complaint against FHFA. As confirmed on pages 4 5 of the Draft OIG Report, after sitting on two hotline complaints it received in the summer of 2017 and not starting an investigation of these complaints until January 2018, the FHFA OIG "requested that FHFA place a 'legal hold' on the position" for which Ms. Grimes was ultimately selected. That "legal hold" was not lifted until May 2018 because FHFA OIG took that long to complete its initial investigation. Essentially, the OIG made it impossible for FHFA to advance Ms. Grimes within FHFA from the summer of 2017 until May of 2018 because it dragged its feet on an investigation that could and should have been completed long before it was.
- 2. The FHFA OIG breached Ms. Grimes' confidentiality when the IG revealed to me that Ms. Grimes had filed an EEO complaint against FHFA and by communicating to me that Ms. Grimes had been recommended unanimously by the interview team from among the candidates for the executive position at issue in the hotline complaints that started in the - summer of 2017. I had no knowledge of either of those facts until the Inspector General communicated them to me.

Administrative Inquiry • OIG-2019-001 • November 29, 2018

- 3. Allegations have been made that the Inspector General has been "too cozy" in her relationship with me and, as a result, that the FHFA OIG has not been as aggressive as it should have been in evaluating me and the work of FHFA. These allegations have been reported in the press and have been under investigation by the unit that oversees U.S government offices of Inspectors General. While I do not agree with the allegations that have been made against the FHFA OIG, the fact that they have been made and are under investigation creates the appearance of a conflict of interest that could undermine fairness and the perception of fairness in this matter.

The Draft OIG Report acknowledges that the OIG has prioritized getting to a quick result over obtaining the facts.

Ms. Grimes stated under oath in her signed declaration to the U.S. Postal Service investigator as follows: "I have recorded all conversations with Watt from 2016 to present." (See page 19 of Declaration A in the Postal Service Report). Ms. Grimes selectively produced parts of audio tapes of these conversations to the Postal Service Investigator and the FHFA OIG has relied on the Postal Service Report in preparing the Draft OIG Report. (See pages 9 – 11 of Exhibit 1). When FHFA-OIG subpoenaed all the tapes, Ms. Grimes did not produce them. The government sued to enforce the subpoena. On August 10, 2018, the government lawyers on behalf of FHFA-OIG represented to the U.S. District Court that the audio recordings in the exclusive possession of Ms. Grimes "are essential to FHFA-OIG's ability to conduct its investigation." (See Exhibit 3, page 1). On October 5, 2018 the District Court issued an Order requiring production of these recordings based on that written representation. The FHFA OIG's acknowledgement on page 11 of its Draft Report that "we [the FHFA OIG] determined that the exigencies of time required us to complete our administrative inquiry based on the information we had obtained and report our findings, without the materials in the PMO Manager's [Ms. Grimes'] possession" is not only directly contrary to representations made to a United States District Court in the OIG's behalf, it is a stunning admission by the OIG that it has placed getting a quick result over getting the facts in this case.¹

The FHFA OIG has provided no explanation of what "the exigencies of time" are. In the absence of such an explanation, the timing of this Report can only further politicize this matter for which claims have already been filed and litigation is already pending in the established and appropriate legal forums at the EEOC and in court.

If "the exigencies of time" relate to the fact that my term as Director of FHFA ends on January 6, 2019, in these partisan political times Democrats will no doubt question whether the urgency of filing this Report was motivated by a desire to have the President consider removing a democratic appointee as Director of FHFA within the last 35 days of his term in the position. Republicans, on the other hand, will no doubt question whether the urgency was motivated by a desire to place the President in an embarrassing or uncomfortable political dilemma in light of the history of harassment allegations against him.

The real answer, of course, is that there are no "exigencies of time" and no reason for the OIG to elevate getting a quick result over getting the facts. The discussion on pages 9 – 14 of the Draft OIG Report as well as statements I made throughout my deposition (Exhibit 4) confirm, as I have asserted throughout this process, that no fair assessment of the facts in this case can be made without all of the audio recordings. The Draft Report also confirms the real prospect that the purported transcripts, and the recordings themselves, may have been tampered with (See especially footnote 16 on page 11 of the Draft Report) and that the represented dates of the recordings certainly are inconsistent with the dates on which meetings took place (See pages 137 – 141 of Exhibit 4 and footnote 12 on page 9 of the Draft OIG Report).² As I stated on pages 152-153 of Exhibit 4:

But I think if what she's saying is I've recorded every phone – every conversation we've had since 2016, then the best evidence of that would be the recordings, which is exactly what I've been saying all along. I mean – that's why I've been anxious to get all of the recordings because I think if you looked at this in its totality, it won't be me pursuing Ms. Grimes, it won't necessarily be her pursuing me either, but it will be her initiating conversations with me, a lot more than me initiating conversations with her. And there won't be many of either of those things, I think, in 2017, 2018.

Administrative Inquiry • OIG-2019-001 • November 29, 2018

¹ I am also disappointed that the OIG's rush to judgment also led the OIG to deny me the common courtesy of the short extension of time I requested to respond to the Draft OIG Report under the circumstances reflected in Exhibit 2.

² Footnote 12 on page 9 of the Draft OIG Report suggests that the OIG cares little about credibility or the facts even when evidence is available. Even in the face of documentary evidence that Ms. Grimes has provided dates that are incorrect, the OIG has distressingly chosen to use factually incorrect information.

While it is strange that an employee would be recording conversations between the employee and supervisors or other employees since 2016, if such recordings exist they certainly are critical evidence for anyone interested in getting the facts about what actually happened and would certainly be important in assessing the credibility of the people recorded. This is especially true where the employee who has such critical evidence has refused to cooperate with the OIG's investigation, where it is clear that the recordings "stop and start" (Draft Report, page 9) and do not contain the full conversations, where there is some indication that the recordings may have been tampered with, and where it is clear that the parts made available to the public and the investigator have been carefully selected and leaked in an effort to color the public's perception of the employee and to enhance the employee's legal position. Where one witness has been fully cooperative and provided sworn statements under oath to the OIG, it is fair to ask why the OIG is questioning the credibility of the one who has been cooperative while refusing to pursue the best evidence available on the facts and on credibility simply because it would take too long to do so. Without justification, the FHFA OIG simply abandoned the lawsuit to get the recordings to get to a quick conclusion of its investigation and to avoid criticism.

The Draft OIG Report's first contention that I misused my official position to attempt to obtain a personal benefit is simply unfounded.

Having been publicly chastised in the political arena for violating its obligation to protect Ms. Grimes from having her identity revealed publicly, the FHFA OIG in this Draft OIG Report now positions itself as investigator, prosecutor, judge and jury by ignoring the allegations made in the second round of hot line complaints and, instead, manufacturing allegations no one has ever made, bending facts and taking them out of context, and treating my reputation as collateral damage in its rush to prove that the IG has not been too cozy in her relationship with me.

While I have acknowledged having a number of conversations with Ms.
 Grimes about her interest in advancing at FHFA, almost all of which were initiated by Ms. Grimes (apparently with recorder in hand), there is simply no evidence that any of those conversations or anything else I did was intended to obtain any personal benefit for me.

If the presumed personal benefit imagined by the OIG was that I was seeking a sexual encounter with Ms. Grimes, surely I would have attempted some physical contact with her over such a protracted period. At no time during the 4+ years I have known Ms. Grimes have I ever attempted to have any physical contact with her, and Ms. Grimes has affirmed that under oath. The Postal Inspector's Report states as follows on page 47 of the investigative summary:

Ms. Grimes acknowledged that Director Watt never groped her nor touched her. Ms. Grimes testified, "We have never been intimate in any fashion; specifically, we have never held hands, kissed, or engaged in any sexual activity."

The FHFA OIG had a full copy of the Postal Inspector's Report available in the preparation of its Draft Report and a full copy has previously been made available to all recipients of this Draft OIG Report.

My testimony on lines 13 - 22 on page 136 and lines 1 - 19 on page 137 of my deposition (Exhibit 4 to this Response) also confirms that I avoided any physical contact between me and Ms. Grimes.

2. Just as the FHFA OIG demonstrated an apparent willingness to have the Justice Department deceive the United States District Court as described earlier in this Response, in multiple ways in its dealings with me and my attorney and in the Draft Report the OIG has been deceptive or dishonest, has reported discussions out of context, misrepresented or distorted them, or attempted to interpret them in ways that are simply inconsistent with reality.

In the days leading up to my October 11, 2018 deposition (Exhibit 4), my attorney made several efforts to determine the nature and scope of the OIG's investigation because the Inspector General had testified before the House Financial Services Committee that the OIG had no role to play with respect to EEO complaints and because we had not (and still have not) been provided a copy of any of the hotline complaints. The OIG investigator (Mr. Rich Parker) was ambiguous, at best, about what and who was being investigated. During the course of my deposition, however, the following exchange took place (see lines 1 – 11 on page 106 of Exhibit 4):

[Watt]: So let me just explain the sequence of events so that you're clear. I would say between – well, it might be better for me just to read it to you because I have been preparing my responses to interrogatories on the EEO matter. I don't know ---

Mr. Parker: We're only looking into the hotline complaints, sir.

The Witness [Watt]: I didn't understand the distinction that Laura was making when she testified, and I still don't understand it.

Mr. Parker's statement in the above exchange confirmed that the OIG was "only looking into the hotline complaints." Multiple statements from the Draft OIG Report also confirm Mr. Parker's statement that the OIG's investigation should have been confined to the hotline complaints, and should not have been about the EEO matters which are being pursued in separate legal proceedings and about which the Inspector General has testified that the OIG has no role and no authority to investigate. The OIG states on page 1 of the Report at the very outset of the Report:

This inquiry was conducted by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA or Agency) Office of Inspector General (OIG) into allegations raised in anonymous hotline complaints that an executive position had been created inappropriately and unnecessarily in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer (OCOO) of FHFA and that the Manager of the Project Management Office (PMO Manager) had been preselected for this position.

Administrative Inquiry • OIG-2019-001 • November 29, 2018

This is the second administrative inquiry involving the creation of this executive position and pre-selection of an employee to fill this position.

On page 2, the OIG Report states:

In the wake of the PMO Manager's email messages, we received three additional hotline complaints which alleged, in summary, that the FHFA Director misused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary executive position for the PMO Manager,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints, and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created improperly (and for which we had previously completed our work). The inquiry focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director.³

On page 8, the Draft OIG Report states:

In the wake of the emails sent by the PMO Manager, we received three anonymous whistleblower complaints. They alleged that the FHFA Director abused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary position for the PMO Manager, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created (and for which we had previously completed our work). This inquiry focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director.

As we did before, we are referring to the OSC [Office of Special Counsel] the allegations regarding improper creation of a new executive position, and pre-selection of the PMO Manager. We are also providing to OSC the evidentiary record we compiled in this ³ Note that this Draft OIG Report was the first time I became aware that this inquiry was focused solely on me.

second inquiry, given that the OSC has the statutory authority to determine whether FHFA senior executives engaged in any

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We set forth, in Appendix A, a summary of the facts we found during this second inquiry concerning the creation of the new executive position within OCOO.

As confirmed in Exhibit 2, the FHFA OIG has refused to provide me or my attorney a copy of the Appendix A referenced above and apparently does not plan to provide a copy of Appendix A to any recipients of the OIG Report other than the OSC. However, it should be noted that Appendix A (which I have never seen and apparently will not have the right to review and respond to) contains the OIG's report on the very allegations contained in both sets of hotline complaints, whether an executive position was created improperly in the OCOO. Appendix A is also the report that the OIG has repeatedly and erroneously represented that the Draft OIG Report is about.

This Draft OIG Report, however, is not about the matters alleged in the hotline complaints. Having concluded that the OSC has the exclusive authority to "determine whether FHFA senior executives engaged in any (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) by creating an executive level position in OCOO and having no evidence that I engaged in any such prohibited personnel practice based on my testimony at pages 6 – 71 of Exhibit 4 and the absence of any other evidence to support that contention, the OIG should have concluded its investigation. Instead, the FHFA OIG turned its investigation and this Draft OIG Report to the very things that are the contested issues in the EEO matter about which the Inspector General testified before the House Financial Services Committee the OIG has no

The Draft OIG Report relates to matters that occurred long before the PMO even became a part of OCOO and before the executive level position was even thought about or created, not to any matters alleged in any of the hotline complaints. In the investigation of these unrelated matters the FHFA OIG has positioned itself as investigator, standard setter, prosecutor, judge and jury in an apparent effort to demonstrate the IG's distance from authority to investigate.

me. In that process, the OIG demonstrates an even greater willingness to misstate and misconstrue facts and the OIG has set its own inappropriate standards and drawn conclusions ("Findings") that are inconsistent with reality and lack any evidentiary support.

The OlG's conclusions on pages 3 and 19 of the Draft Report, for example, that I "induced" Ms. Grimes to meet with me at my apartment is simply inconsistent with the documentary evidence. The following texts between me and Ms. Grimes prior to the meeting at my condo, which the OlG has apparently chosen to ignore, appear on pages 202 - 203 of the Attachments to Declaration A of the Postal Inspector's Report:

Grimes: I have a few hours tomorrow between 1 and 3.

Watt: Do you have more, less or no time on Sat or Sun instead? How do you calculate that the time between 1 & 3 is a "few" hours?

Grimes: LOL. It's a lot of time for me.

Watt: Sat or Sun or is my option only the "few" hours between 1 and 3 tom?

Grimes: Yes Friday.

Watt: OK. I assume you'll tell me more tomorrow or at some point.

Grimes: Can we meet at 1 tomorrow?

Watt: You can let me know where.

In light of this exchange, particularly the last text, it is just disingenuous for the OIG to reach the conclusion it has reached.

Likewise, the Draft Report states on page 18 that the "The Director acknowledged that no female mentees had visited his D.C. apartment" and on page 19 the Draft Report repeats that "He acknowledges that he never met another female mentee at his apartment." Both of these statements are directly contrary to my testimony at lines 18-22 on page 102 and lines 1-8 on page 103 of Exhibit 4 at which the following exchange took place:

Q. Just so I'm clear, that means you socialize with other mentees?

- A. Yes.
- Q. And you meet with them one-on-one as well?
- A. Yes.
- Q. For dinners, concerts?
- A. I have, yes. I have, yes.
- Q. And have other mentees met you at your home alone?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Have they met with you when other individuals are present?
- A. Yes.

Perhaps the OIG thought that no one would take the time to go behind the misstatements in its Draft Report to review or pay attention to the real record on which its unfounded conclusions were drawn.

It is also clear from the OIG's questions and from its Findings in the Draft Report that the OIG is applying a standard that is both sexist and inconsistent with current standards of gender equality. It is also inconsistent with the standard of equality I have been fighting for throughout my professional career. Throughout the questioning and the Report, the OIG has been consumed with how my friendship and mentorship with Ms. Grimes compares to my friendship and mentorship with other female employees, ignoring all the while how they compare with my friendships and mentorships of male employees. The OIG's Draft Report finally concludes on page 19:

Instead, by his own admission, he [Watt] treated the PMO Manager differently from other female employees. A reasonable conclusion is that he did so because he was seeking an inappropriate relationship with her.

While the OIG may consider that a "reasonable conclusion," it is also a sexist conclusion and one that men and women alike should find objectionable because it assumes that a man can't be a friend of or mentor a woman without "seeking an inappropriate relationship with her." This conclusion is inconsistent with everything I have supported and fought for throughout my professional career. I tried to explain this to the OIG from my own personal perspective on pages 112-115 of Exhibit 4 as follows:⁴

And, equally, you know, you really – you kind of have to know where I come from.

I practiced law in a civil rights law firm that did extensive employment discrimination work. And in our firm we really never distinguished between men and women in the way – I mean, the whole objective here is to get to a point where you don't have to be suspicious if you invite a female to do something that you would be – not be suspicious about if you invited a male to do it. That's equality from my perspective.

And so I've always tried to approach male and female friends and mentees in much the same way. And I carry – for 22 years we fought for this in the courts, landmark decisions to do away with employment discrimination. When I went to Congress, I took the same concept. It's in my DNA. When I came here, it's a bigger agency, and I've tried to follow the same concept. I haven't had – well, I've had as many friendships, but not as many mentoring relationships as I have had, although I've had a number in the period I've been here, not only with employees, but with the children of employees.

So you know, that's who I am. And now I'm not sure that that's, you know – I'm the first to tell you, this is in a sense a wake up call, it's a depressing wake up call when I know there are men in this agency who have visited my house in Charlotte, who have visited my condo, who I have much, much closer relationships with than the relationship I have with Ms. Grimes. And somehow the public is now saying that kind of equality is unacceptable. And, in my view, it's time for me to ride off into the sunset because the standards have become so confused that it's difficult to operate in them. (pages 112 - 113)

⁴ See also pages 93 – 100 of Exhibit 4.

But I think we're setting ourselves up for a very unequal situation here. And I'm kind of glad I don't have to deal with it beyond January 6 of 2019, because that's just not the way I have lived the last 22, plus 21, plus almost 5 years of my life now. (pages 114-115)

The Draft OIG Report's second Finding that I was not candid is also unfounded.

The Draft OIG Report concludes on page 21:

We find the Director's omission of material information during his January 15, 2018, interview regarding his 'plan' for the PMO Manager to obtain an executive level position to constitute a lack of candor.

Apparently, the OIG's theory is that I had some grand "plan" dating back to June or November 2016 to create an executive level position for Ms. Grimes and that the "plan" resulted in the approval of the executive position in OCOO. The theory, however, is simply inconsistent with the facts. No such plan ever existed and the notion that I had an obligation to reveal a plan that never existed and that had nothing to do with the original hotline complaints is nothing short of bizarre. Further, it would have required a giant conspiracy with multiple other parties, none of whom have supported the OIG's contention.

The OIG's theory appears to relate to discussions, which the Draft OIG Report disingenuously takes out of context, dating back to 2014 about where the Project Management Office (PMO) should be placed within FHFA. As I testified (page 10, line 19 to page 11, line 15 of Exhibit 4):

I can tell you that the decision to move the PMO office out of DOC [the Division of Conservatorship] to the chief operating officer's jurisdiction had been basically a two-year process, and there's substantial documentation of that. When I got here in 2014, we thought there were actually two offices that were probably misplaced in the agency, one of them – after some period of time, and just kind of feeling our way around. One of them was the project management office, the other one was the compensation office.

And the reason we thought they were misplaced is that they were in – they were in one particular branch of the organization, and they served the entirety of the organization. And so the thought process about changing the PMO out of the DOC to put it somewhere that was more universally accessible to all parts of the agency started as – probably as early as 2015.

The OIG's theory also ignores my testimony on lines 17 – 22 of page 128 of Exhibit 4:

We decided – we looked at the possibility of putting the PMO office under the chief of staff before we – that was one of the options, we didn't – it didn't seem to make a lot of sense to me, but that was an option that was discussed at one point.

The OIG's theory also ignores other important facts:

 I had no indication that the hotline complaints that led to the OIG's first investigation involved any allegations of impropriety on my part because they did not. The following from page 1 of the Draft OIG Report is instructive on this point:

Ve first received anonymous hotline complaints in the summer of 017 alleging that: 1) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) nappropriately created an executive position in the Office of the hief Operating Officer (OCOO) for an FHFA employee, the PMO Nanager; 2) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) advised two senior FHFA employees "not to other applying for the job"; and 3) the creation of a new executive osition was inconsistent with FHFA's prior buy-out.

 I did not then, nor do I now, believe that the approval of a buy-out or the approval of the creation of an executive position in OCOO represented anything other than approvals of sound business recommendations made by FHFA executives whose judgments I trusted.

- 3. I did not then, nor do I now, believe that either of these decisions related in any way to discussions with employees, including Ms. Grimes, about employment or advancement opportunities at FHFA or elsewhere, discussions I regularly engage in with employees in the regular course of business.
- 4. I did not know who would apply for the executive position in OCOO, did not participate in any way in the interview or selection process, and did not know Ms. Grimes had applied and become the unanimously recommended applicant until that was revealed to me by the Inspector General at the end of the OIG's investigative process, long after I had been interviewed by the OIG in connection with the first round of hotline complaints on February 15, 2018.
- 5. When I became aware that Ms. Grimes had been recommended for selection to the executive position in OCOO I recused myself from the process and have not been involved in any decisions regarding the position since then.
- 6. I did not become aware that Ms. Grimes was making any sexual harassment allegations against me or that she believed she had any basis for making any such allegations until she told me on May 10, 2018 in a phone conversation. As I said on lines 9 and 10 on page 114 of my deposition "There was nobody more shocked than I was, May 10, in that recording." (See lines 9 22 on page 114 and lines 1 4 on page 115 of Exhibit 4). I vigorously dispute Ms. Grimes' allegations and the May 10, 2018 conversation reflected in Exhibit 5 confirms my surprise and strongly suggests that these allegations were added as part of Ms. Grimes attorneys' strategy to enhance her legal claims against FHFA.

Conclusion.

Contrary to the conclusions reached by the OIG and reported in its Draft Report, no decision I have made during my tenure as Director of FHFA, either policy, personnel or otherwise, has been for personal gain or based on personal relationship or any other improper motivation. Neither have I failed to be candid or sought to deceive anyone. Despite that, it is clear that the allegations in this matter and the context from which they arose have resulted in severe distress to my family, to FHFA and to many others. For that, I express sincere regret.

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 1

Part 1 of 2

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

Federal Housing Finance Agency

400 7th Street SW, Washington, DC 20219

November 15, 2018

Via Hand Delivery

Melvin L. Watt Director Federal Housing Finance Agency Constitution Center 400 7th Street, SW Washington, DC 20219

In re: Draft OIG Report of Investigation into Allegations of Misconduct Against FHFA
Director Melvin L. Watt

Dear Director Watt:

As authorized by your attorney, Mr. Raymond Fay, Esq., enclosed is a draft report of the administrative inquiry into allegations of misconduct against you, prepared by the Federal Housing Finance Agency, Office of Inspector General (FHFA-OIG).

The attached draft report contains information that is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. The release of this report or its contents to third parties is prohibited by law, unless such release is authorized under the Privacy Act.

We are providing a copy of this draft report to you as authorized by 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(1) for the official purpose of obtaining your response, if any, which will be included in our final report to the White House. Should you wish to provide a response to this draft report, please send it to me by Noon, Monday November 26, 2018, via my email at (b)(6)(b)(7)(C)

FHFA-OIG intends to issue the unredacted report, together with any response provided by you, to the White House, Congressional Oversight Committees, the Office of Government Ethics, and the U.S. Office of Special Counsel by close of business on November 26, 2018.

Please feel free to have Mr. Fay call me with any questions. I may be reached at (b)(6):(b)(7)(C)

Sincerely,
(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

Summary

This inquiry was conducted by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA or Agency) Office of Inspector General (OIG) into allegations raised in anonymous hotline complaints that an executive position had been created inappropriately and unnecessarily in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer (OCOO) of FHFA and that the Manager of the Project Management Office (PMO Manager) had been pre-selected for this position.

This is the second administrative inquiry involving the creation of this executive position and pre-selection of an employee to fill this position.

On May 9, 2018, the PMO Manager filed an informal complaint with FHFA's Office of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) alleging violations of her rights under the Equal Pay Act and discrimination (including sexual harassment) on the basis of her sex and race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended). Subsequently, the PMO Manager provided FHFA with specific allegations in support of her claims. FHFA contracted with the United States Postal Service (USPS) to gather facts and information regarding the PMO Manager's sexual harassment claim. This fact gathering began on June 14, 2018.

On July 3, 2018, while fact gathering was ongoing, the PMO Manager used her FHFA computer and email address to forward to her counsel an email exchange she had with the contract investigator regarding her disparate treatment claims. She also blind-copied this message to over 100 FHFA managers. The message referenced recordings of conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director and stated that transcripts of those recordings were attached to it, although they were not. Several minutes later, the PMO Manager re-forwarded that email message to her counsel and, once again, the FHFA managers. Attached to that re-forwarded message was an audio file containing a recording of a conversation between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director, as well as three purported transcripts of other conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director which were prepared by the PMO Manager. Shortly thereafter, the PMO Manager sent a third email to the more than 100 FHFA managers that read "Sorry – this was sent in error – please disreagrd [sic]." The body of that email contained the same string of communications as the first two messages.

In the wake of the PMO Manager's email messages, we received three additional hotline complaints which alleged, in summary, that the FHFA Director misused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary executive position for the PMO Manager, (b)(6)(b)(7)(

(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints, and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created improperly (and for which we had previously completed our work). This inquiry focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director.

We requested and received information from FHFA and the PMO manager. We also served subpoenas on the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager; and we interviewed 20 witnesses, including the FHFA Director. Initially, counsel for the PMO Manager cooperated in our inquiry, and provided us with 6 audio recordings of conversations between the Director and the PMO Manager and a total of 8 transcripts of conversations between them, some of which were prepared by the PMO Manager. Thereafter, the PMO Manager declined to cooperate further. She refused to be interviewed by OIG, and she did not comply with FHFA's request to return her government-issued cellphone. She also did not comply with our administrative subpoena for audio recordings she made of conversations with the FHFA Director and other materials, even after an Order from a United States District Court required her do so.

The PMO Manager stated under oath in the USPS fact gathering process that she recorded every conversation she had with the FHFA Director from 2016 through 2018, and that twice a week she attended regularly scheduled senior staff meetings, which the Director also attended. Therefore, her statement leads us to believe that she may have additional recordings of conversations between her and the FHFA Director, which, despite our best efforts, we have been unable to secure. However, we have determined that the information we obtained during our administrative inquiry provides a sufficient basis on which to reach two findings of misconduct by the FHFA Director. We are issuing this report now because we have a statutory obligation to timely report misconduct by senior agency officials. Our two findings are:

The FHFA Director Misused his Official Position to Attempt to Obtain a Personal Benefit

Section 702 of the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch (the Standards) prohibits an officer or employee from using any authority associated with his federal office in a manner that is intended to coerce or induce a subordinate to provide him with any benefit, financial or otherwise. The FHFA Director is bound by the Standards. We found that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in a personal relationship with him by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position with FHFA.

The FHFA Director advised the PMO Manager, and reported to us, that only he could approve the creation of a new executive position and the selection of a candidate to fill it. By his own design, he met alone in his apartment with the PMO Manager, a female subordinate who the Director knew desired a promotion to an executive position in the Agency, and raised two possible opportunities for such a promotion. In a recording of a portion of their conversation in the FHFA Director's apartment, the FHFA Director can be heard to intermingle comments about his attraction to the PMO Manager and his admiration of her physical appearance with a discussion of possible paths by which she could advance into FHFA's executive ranks.

We find that there are no circumstances under which it would be appropriate for the head of FHFA to induce a subordinate female employee to meet with him alone, in his apartment, for a conversation in which he professes his attraction for that employee and holds out opportunities for the employee to serve in specific executive positions over which he exercises total control.

The FHFA Director Was Not Candid

Every agency employee, including the head of an agency, providing information in an OIG inquiry must be fully forthcoming and candid as to all facts and information relevant to the inquiry, even if that employee is not specifically asked about particular facts or information. Thus, an employee must disclose those things that, in the circumstances, are needed to make the employee's statement complete and accurate.

At the start of our interview with the FHFA Director on February 15, 2018, in connection with the initial administrative inquiry regarding these matters, we advised the Director that his interview was part of an administrative inquiry into allegations that FHFA senior executives had improperly created a new executive position and pre-selected the PMO Manager to fill it. We find that the Director lacked candor when he omitted information that was material to our inquiry. Specifically, he omitted 1) any mention of his personal friendship with, and mentorship of, the PMO Manager; and 2) that he had a "plan," dating back to at least June 2016, under which the PMO Manager could advance into FHFA's executive ranks.

We are issuing this report to the President of the United States for such action as he deems appropriate, and to the Office of Government Ethics and to our Congressional oversight committees. We have referred to the OSC the allegations about (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) for its review and determination. Appendix A to this report is a summary of the facts we compiled during our administrative inquiry, and that summary has been provided to the OSC.

Background

In the summer of 2017, the FHFA Office of Inspector General (OIG) received two anonymous hotline complaints which included allegations that: 1) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) inappropriately created an executive position within OCOO for an FHFA employee, the PMO Manager; 2) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) advised two senior FHFA employees "not to bother applying for the job;" and 3) the creation of a new executive position was inconsistent with FHFA's prior buyouts.

We forwarded the anonymous complaints to an FHFA Deputy General Counsel (DGC) and requested a response within 30 days. On September 15, 2017, that DGC reported to us that (b)(6)(b)(7)(d) did not create a new executive position for the PMO Manager. According to that DGC, (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) recommended to the FHFA Director that a new position be created to oversee the management of the Office of Quality Assurance (OQA) and the Project Management Office (PMO). The OQA was located in the OCOO and the PMO was being relocated from the Division of Conservatorship (DOC) to the OCOO. The FHFA Director approved (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) recommendation, in writing, on July 14, 2017.² The DGC advised us that FHFA had not advertised the opening for that new position, and that he intended to ask (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) to reconsider filling that position. He subsequently reported that (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) intended to advertise the position and fill it.

On November 20, 2017, FHFA posted a job announcement for the new executive position, which was open only to FHFA employees and only for two weeks. On November 27, 2017, the DGC agreed to notify us before FHFA offered the new executive position to anyone.

OIG's First Administrative Inquiry

We received three additional anonymous hotline complaints concerning the new executive position, after it was posted.

¹ Her official position was Supervisory Management & Program Analyst. Within FHFA's Division of Conservatorship and at the time (b)(6),(b)(7)(1) was considering whether to create a new executive position within OCOO, her title was Senior Advisor and PMO Manager.

² The DGC further reported that (b)(6);(b)(7)(denied "discourag[ing] FHFA employees from applying" for the position, and he credited that denial.

From January to March 2018, we conducted an administrative inquiry into the five hotline complaints, all of which were directed at the Agency and [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) None of the allegations suggested an improper relationship between the PMO Manager and the Director.³ In the course of our inquiry, we reviewed relevant Agency documents and interviewed 12 witnesses, including the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager. In January 2018, we requested that FHFA place a "legal hold" on the position, pending the outcome of our inquiry into the allegations in the hotline complaints, to which FHFA agreed.⁴

Interview of the FHFA Director

The FHFA Director was interviewed on February 15, 2018. He reported that, several years ago, he determined to retain sole authority to approve the creation of all executive positions within FHFA because he wanted to have the appropriate number of executives in the agency. He further explained that, pursuant to a directive issued by President Trump, each agency had to consider whether any vacant executive position could be eliminated and must justify the creation of any new executive position. According to the Director, he had to be satisfied that any new executive would increase the Agency's efficiency. He stated that a number of FHFA employees, including the PMO Manager, expressed frustration that promotions to executive positions were available only through attrition because FHFA was "top-heavy."

The FHFA Director explained that beginning in 2016, there was a consensus among FHFA senior executives to transfer the PMO from DOC to OCOO, and that this transfer was a priority for 2017. However, he maintained that the allegation that [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) lobbied to create a new executive to manage the PMO for a specific employee was untrue. He denied both that he approved the creation of the new executive position in OCOO expressly for the PMO Manager and that the PMO Manager lobbied him directly to create an executive position for her.

The FHFA Director explained that he also retained sole authority to select a candidate to fill an executive vacancy. He stated that he usually followed recommendations made by his subordinates in selecting individuals to fill executive positions. He told us that he was unaware

³ This inquiry was conducted by career law enforcement personnel and career investigative counsel.

⁴ In January 2018, a panel concluded interviews of the candidates for the new executive position and determined that the PMO Manager was the most qualified candidate.

⁵ In effect at the time that the FHFA Director approved (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) recommendation to create a new executive position was FHFA's Order No. 4, "Delegation of Authority to Approve Personnel Actions, Determinations, and Requests," which was issued by the previous FHFA Director on January 5, 2009. Under that order, the FHFA Director retained the authority to approve requests for executive positions. The current FHFA Director explicitly retained that authority when he replaced Order No. 4 with Order No. 4, Amendment No. 4 on September 15, 2017. In addition, on February 10, 2017, the FHFA Director sent a memorandum to all FHFA executive staff requiring them to "make a compelling case" for any new position and the need to fill it in response to the "Presidential Memorandum Regarding the Hiring Freeze," issued by the President on January 23, 2017.

of the employees who applied for the new executive position and did not know the recommendation from the panel.

The FHFA Director acknowledged that, during his tenure, he spoke to a number of FHFA employees about the PMO Manager's abilities, but not specifically about whether she should be made an executive. According to the Director, FHFA has a number of talented employees, including the PMO Manager. In his view, the PMO Manager had great experience handling FHFA's relationship with Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and standing up DOC. He noted that the PMO Manager was a trusted lieutenant to the former Deputy Director of DOC, prior to her retirement, and that this former Deputy Director had spoken highly about the PMO Manager.

Interview of the PMO Manager

The PMO Manager was interviewed on March 16, 2018. She explained that senior FHFA executives recommended and implemented the reorganization that moved the PMO to OCOO. The PMO Manager reported that she never heard that bad discouraged employees from applying for the new executive position or that he favored any applicant. She denied that:

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) told her that he had a preferred candidate for the position; she had been told in advance of the selection process that she would be selected for the new executive position; or she was the preferred candidate for it.

OIG Refers to the Office of Special Counsel the Evidentiary Record of its Administrative Inquiry, and OSC Reaches a Decision on the Matter

Congress established the OSC as an independent federal investigative agency, the primary mission of which is "to protect[] federal employees and applicants from prohibited personnel practices." Therefore, we concluded the OSC was the appropriate entity to determine whether a prohibited personnel practice had occurred regarding the creation of or selection for the new executive position.

We spoke with OSC officials during the inquiry to alert them that we intended to refer the matter to the OSC at the conclusion of our fact finding and formally referred the matter to OSC on March 22, 2018. The OSC accepted our referral, and on April 2, 2018, we provided the OSC with a summary of the facts found during our administrative inquiry, including documents provided by FHFA. On April 5, 2018, we met with OSC attorneys. The fact finding for our administrative inquiry was complete at that time.

By letter dated May 3, 2018, the OSC reported to us that it had reached a preliminary determination that the record as it then existed did not support the allegations that the new executive position was improperly created, or that FHFA executives provided the PMO Manager with an unauthorized preference or advantage in her selection by the panel.

On May 7, 2018, we provided OSC's written preliminary determination to FHFA and informed it that we had completed our administrative inquiry and planned to close the inquiry.

FHFA advised us that, as of November 8, 2018, the position remained vacant.

FHFA's Investigation of the PMO Manager's EEO Complaint

On May 9, 2018, the PMO Manager filed an informal complaint with FHFA's EEO Services, alleging violations of her rights under the Equal Pay Act and discrimination (including sexual harassment) on the basis of her sex and race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended).⁶ Subsequently, the PMO Manager provided FHFA with specific allegations in support of her claims.

As part of her harassment claim the PMO Manager alleged that:

nformation withheld
pecause allegations are outside the scope of FHFA-OIG's nvestigation.	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

FHFA contracted with the USPS to gather facts and other information related to the PMO Manager's Title VII sexual harassment claim. The fact gathering, which began on June 14, 2018, included obtaining sworn statements, portions of audio recordings the PMO Manager chose to produce, and unofficial "transcripts" prepared by the PMO Manager.⁷

On July 3, 2018, while the fact gathering process was underway, the PMO Manager used her FHFA computer and email address to forward to her personal counsel an email exchange she had

⁶ FHFA documents show that the PMO Manager raised in a conversation with (b)(6),(b)(7)(in early April 2018, allegations that she had been subjected to discrimination and harassment based on her race and gender, which he sent onto FHFA's Office of Minority and Women Inclusion (OMWI). FHFA documents also show that an OMWI official provided the PMO Manager with an EEO intake form and spoke with her about filing an informal EEO complaint, in April 2018.

⁷ The report by the USPS contract investigator did not contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, and did not address the allegations of misconduct by the FHFA Director that are the subject of this report.

with the USPS contract investigator.⁸ She also blind-copied over 100 FHFA managers.⁹ The message referenced recordings of conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director and stated that transcripts of those recordings were attached to it, although they were not.

Several minutes later, the PMO Manager re-sent that email message to her counsel and, once again, blind-copied the same group of FHFA managers. Attached to that message was a file named "Watt Employment Charade Process" containing an audio recording of a portion of a conversation between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director. Also attached were three purported transcripts of recorded conversations between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director which the PMO Manager labeled, "Four Types Attraction," "Tattoo," and "Why Have You Rejected My Advances." 10

Shortly thereafter, the PMO Manager sent a third message to the same group of FHFA managers, that read, "Sorry – this was sent in error – please disreagrd [sic]." The three purported transcripts and the recorded conversation were, once again, appended to the message.

OIG's Second Administrative Inquiry

In the wake of the emails sent by the PMO Manager, we received three anonymous whistleblower complaints. They alleged that the FHFA Director abused his government position for personal gain by creating an unnecessary executive position for the PMO Manager, b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

We learned subsequently, from the USPS contract investigator's report, that these three purported transcripts were created by the PMO Manager in 2018 from her recollections of 2016 conversations, using a "template" of a transcript from the transcription company. As we explain later in this report, the PMO Manager declined to provide either to the USPS contract investigator or to us the recordings of these conversations that these "transcripts" purported to document. Therefore, we treated each of these purported transcripts as the PMO Manager's 2018 recollections of conversations that took place during 2016.

⁸ Any FHFA employee who seeks to access FHFA servers, whether through a government-provided computer, laptop, or personal computer, must first agree to terms and conditions in which the employee acknowledges no expectation of privacy.

⁹ The PMO Manager blind copied her first two messages to an FHFA email list, called "!2018 Manager's Conference," which included more than 100 FHFA managers.

¹⁰ These were not actually transcripts, although they have the outward trappings of transcripts. Each of these three purported transcripts appeared to be produced by a certified transcription company because: each contained introductory pages labeled, "Transcript of Recorded Conversation;" each had a job number and the name of a court reporter who worked for the transcription company and provided the transcription; and each included a signed certification by the named court reporter, under penalty of perjury, that the transcript was a "full, true and correct transcription" of the recording...."

We opened a new administrative inquiry into these complaints and added the five prior anonymous hotline complaints which also alleged the executive position had been created improperly (and for which we had previously completed our work). This inquiry focused solely on possible misconduct by the FHFA Director.

As we did before, we are referring to the OSC the allegations regarding improper creation of a new executive position, and pre-selection of the PMO Manager. We are also providing to OSC the evidentiary record we compiled in this second inquiry, given that the OSC has the statutory authority to determine whether FHFA senior executives engaged in any (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) We set forth, in Appendix A, a summary of the facts we found during this second inquiry concerning the creation of the new executive position within OCOO.

OIG's Efforts to Obtain Audio Recordings, Transcripts, and Other Documents

FHFA provided us with the July 3, 2018, emails and attachments sent by the PMO Manager to her counsel and the FHFA managers. Thereafter, we sent requests for information to FHFA, and to the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager, through their respective counsel. FHFA provided responsive documents. The PMO Manager's counsel sent us six recordings made by her client of conversations with the FHFA Director:

- one recording of a conversation that occurred purportedly on June 17, 2016;
- three recordings of portions of a conversation on November 11, 2016;
- a duplicate of one of the November 11, 2016, recordings; and
- one recording of a phone conversation that occurred on May 10, 2018.

After listening to those recordings, which appeared to stop and start during the conversations being recorded, we concluded that none was a complete record.

The PMO Manager's counsel also produced:

- transcripts of the June 17, 2016, ¹² and the three November 11, 2016, recordings, identified above;
- a transcript of a conversation with the FHFA Director that occurred purportedly on March 13, 2018 (but no recording for that conversation); and

¹¹ This inquiry was conducted by career government attorneys who serve as senior executives in OIG.

¹² The transcript of the conversation is dated June 17, 2016. However, the FHFA Director testified that the dinner meeting occurred on June 8, 2016, which was confirmed by the charge on his credit card statement. For purposes of this report, we refer to the recording of that meeting, and transcript, as June 17, 2016.

three unofficial "transcripts" prepared by the PMO Manager of other conversations with the FHFA Director that occurred purportedly in 2016, which were substantially similar to the purported transcripts sent by the PMO Manager on July 3, 2018 (but no recordings for those conversations).

We also received from the USPS contract investigator, through FHFA, a recording of a phone conversation that occurred on May 8, 2018, between the PMO Manager and the FHFA Director.

To ensure that all materials, including recordings, relevant to our administrative inquiry were produced by the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager, we issued separate administrative subpoenas to them on July 18, 2018.¹³ Counsel for the FHFA Director and for the PMO Manager accepted service of the subpoenas.¹⁴

On July 27, 2018, the FHFA Director produced responsive materials. Counsel for the PMO Manager assured us that the PMO Manager would cooperate, and expressly authorized us to travel to the PMO Manager's residence to retrieve from her copies of her audio recordings of conversations with the FHFA Director. That counsel asked for technological assistance to transfer all audio recordings to an encrypted flash drive and explained that such technological assistance was "the only impediment to the production" of the recordings. We agreed to provide that assistance.

From July 24, 2018, to the issuance of this report, the PMO Manager did not cooperate in our inquiry, although we advised her, both orally and in writing, that our inquiry focused solely on allegations of misconduct by the FHFA Director, for which she was only a witness. The PMO Manager refused to comply with our administrative subpoena, as well as an Order issued on October 5, 2018, by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia directing production of all materials sought in the subpoena.

We asked FHFA to provide to us the government cell phone issued to the PMO Manager because the PMO Manager said she used it to record conversations with the FHFA Director. The Agency asked the PMO Manager to return that phone. The USPS contract investigator's report stated that the PMO Manager recounted that she had taken the government cell phone issued to her to a third party "data recovery provider who was able to recover data from [her] work phone."

¹³ Neither the PMO Manager nor her counsel provided to us any recordings of conversations between January I, 2016, and June 7, 2016; between June 9, 2016, and November 10, 2016; and between November 12, 2016, and May 9, 2018.

¹⁴ Upon the receipt of the subpoenas, neither counsel questioned the independence of this administrative inquiry, challenged the subpoena as issued for an improper purpose (such as harassment, intimidation, or retaliation), or claimed that we lacked authority to issue it.

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 1

Part 2 of 2

However, the PMO Manager declined to return this FHFA-issued government cell phone to FHFA.

The PMO Manager stated in her signed declaration to the USPS contract investigator, dated August 8, 2018, that "there were two regular weekly [senior staff] meetings that [she] attended with the Director..." and that she "recorded all conversations with [the FHFA Director] from 2016 to present," Her statement led us to believe that she may have additional recordings of her conversations with the FHFA Director. To the best of our knowledge, the PMO Manager is the sole source for these additional recordings. Despite our best efforts, we have been unable to secure those recordings.

The PMO Manager appealed the decision by the U.S. District Court ordering compliance with our administrative subpoena. Because this could take months to resolve, and because the whistleblower allegations are time-sensitive, we determined that the exigencies of time required us to complete our administrative inquiry based on the information we had obtained and report our findings, without the materials in the PMO Manager's possession.¹⁵

Review of Audio Recordings

Audio recordings provide the best evidence of statements made by the FHFA Director to the PMO Manager. As we have explained, we obtained, from counsel for the PMO Manager and from the USPS contract investigator, recordings made by the PMO Manager of portions of four conversations with the FHFA Director, two of which occurred after the executive position was created and the PMO Manager was selected by the panel to fill it. We caused transcripts to be made for each of these recordings. Two of these recordings, from conversations between the PMO Manager and the Director in June and November 2016, are relevant to this inquiry.

¹⁵ For those reasons, we reached an agreement with the PMO Manager, through her counsel, to dismiss the subpoena enforcement action.

¹⁶ The PMO Manager declined to produce recordings for three conversations she had with the FHFA Director during 2016 for which she created three unofficial "transcripts," one version of which was attached to her July 3, 2018, email. The report of the USPS contract investigator recounted what the PMO Manager told the investigator: the PMO Manager used a template from a transcription service company to create unofficial "transcripts" of her recollections of these three 2016 conversations; at her request, a third party data recovery service provider recovered data from a government cell phone issued to her; after the third-party data recovery provider recovered data from that government issued cell phone, the PMO Manager listened to recordings that she thought had been erased; she compared the recordings to her unofficial "transcripts" created from her memory; she found that the recordings were "consistent with minor deviations"; she "modified" her unofficial "transcripts" to "match the recordings"; she provided those modified unofficial "transcripts" to the contract investigator; and she did not make the recordings available to that investigator.

The June 17, 2016, Recording:

The FHFA Director confirmed that he and the PMO Manager met for dinner at the Rosa Mexicano restaurant in June 2016 and that this dinner was one of two meals that they shared offsite and alone. The portion of the recording produced to us begins in the middle of a conversation that purportedly occurred in June 2016 in a restaurant, with the PMO Manager asking the FHFA Director when the position, which is an executive position, would become vacant. The FHFA Director responded, "I don't know what the timing is. [The wouldn't be surprised if it was sooner rather than later." At a subsequent point in the recording, the Director suggested that the Chief of Staff position, an executive position, would become vacant after his current Chief of Staff moved to a different position.

The Director asked the PMO Manager: "What do you want, not just limited to the things I've laid out, what do you want to do?" She responded: "I think I've definitely been looking for kind of, you know, an expansion in role, you know. The chief of staff is ideal, but that'd be up to you, I guess." The FHFA Director explained that his term was limited to five years, which would be "a downside to having the chief of staff position" because "it doesn't necessarily carry over" and is "a discretionary position." The PMO Manager replied, "I don't think I'm going to stay at FHFA for the rest of my life" and "I think I can find other places." The FHFA Director concurred: "And being chief of staff to me would position you for a lot of places."

The November 11, 2016, Recording:

The FHFA Director confirmed that it is his voice on this recording of a conversation with the PMO Manager and that this conversation took place in his apartment in November 2016. (Text messages between the FHFA Director and the PMO Manager sent and received from his private cell phone during the period November 4-11, 2016, show that the Director first invited the PMO Manager to his apartment over the weekend of November 12-13, 2016, and that she agreed to meet with him on November 11, a federal holiday.)¹⁷

Again, the recording provided by the PMO Manager's counsel begins in the middle of a conversation in which the FHFA Director appears to have raised the opportunity for the PMO

¹⁷ In these texts, the FHFA Director sought to have the PMO Manager visit him for a longer period of time than she was willing. The PMO Manager texted, "I have a few hours tomorrow [b]etween 1 and 3," to which the Director responds, "Do u have more, less or no time on Sat or Sun instead? How do you calculate that the time between 1 & 3 is a 'few' hours?" The PMO Manager replies, "Lol It's a lot for me." The Director then texted, "Sat or Sun or is my option only the 'few' hours between 1 & 3 tom[orrow]? The PMO Manager replied, "Yes Friday." On her way to his apartment on November 11, 2016, the PMO Manager texted, "About 30 mins out," and the Director responds, "The 'few' gets shorter."

Manager to fill one of two potential executive positions in FHFA: Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer. The FHFA Director characterized the former as "our original plan" which was "to try to bring you into [the current Chief of Staff's] office, and that would've put you in line right behind [the current Chief of Staff] to become chief of staff." The Director then explained to the PMO Manager that this option "wouldn't have been a good idea anyway. Because the chief of staff is a position that basically whether you are career or whether you are schedule C, it's generally going to change when the new director comes in." He explained further that, in the event his successor chose a different chief of staff, she could "bump back" to her current position or to another position in the Agency equivalent to the one she left.

The FHFA Dir	rector continued that he w	as "not sure" that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	In the event (b)(6);(b)(7)(decided to return to his position (b)(6)(b)(7)(he could "take his posit	ion back" which was the r	reason that FHFA could not fill that position, even the PMO Manager was "doing a lot of the responsibilities that go with" t		The Charles State (Charles State (Ch

The PMO Manager expressed her appreciation to the FHFA Director for "putting some thought into it and sharing that with me," and stated that "I think I would be qualified for either position." She then said, "I just need to make sure that I feel clear and confident that this is just going to be based on merit and fitness for the position, and that there's nothing else."

The FHFA Director replied that he "intended to address that first." He then told the PMO Manager he thought she was "gorgeous" but he did not "make agency decisions based on who's gorgeous and who's not." He maintained that he had "gone out of [his] way to get this—get our friendship. . . –or whatever it is, out of the public view because when other people start seeing things, they start putting different equations into it." He reported to the PMO Manager that "the truth of the matter is I don't pay much attention to other people's perceptions unless I'm guilty. And I'm guilty of having an attraction to you. That is true."

The Director acknowledged that he had "tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me. And that's fine. I accept it. I know I can draw the line." After repeating four times that he could "draw the line," the FHFA Director added, "[m]uch to my disappointment..."

The FHFA Director then asked the PMO Manager, "How are you feeling? What are you feeling?" and she responded, "I think I've definitely had concerns with—well definitely with coming here." Even though he professed to know where to draw the line, he again remarked that his apartment was the "safest place to do this, to have this conversation" and that "it would be the safest place to—if it was going beyond this conversation."

Interviews and Sworn Testimony

Between July 9, 2018, and October 18, 2018, we interviewed 20 witnesses—some on multiple occasions. Counsel for the PMO Manager did not respond to two written requests by us for an interview with the PMO Manager. A summary of two of these interviews follows.

Interview of the FHFA Director

On October 11, 2018, we interviewed the FHFA Director under oath, using a court reporter to transcribe the interview. ¹⁸ He confirmed that he met the PMO Manager alone in his apartment in November 2016, and that it is his voice on the recording of a portion of his conversation with the PMO Manager, provided to us by the PMO Manager's counsel.

He testified that he is the only executive in FHFA authorized to approve the creation of a new executive position, and that FHFA remains "top heavy" with executives, despite his approval of an executive buy-out which the Agency conducted in 2014.¹⁹ The FHFA Director stated that he recognized that circumstances might require him to approve a request to create a new executive position. However, he would do so only if such a request was supported by a "compelling case" based upon "substantial documentation and support." The Director established this standard in a February 10, 2017, memorandum he sent to FHFA executives following the issuance of the "Presidential Memorandum Regarding the Hiring Freeze" by the White House on January 23, 2017.

The FHFA Director also testified that he has been the PMO Manager's friend and mentor since at least 2016,²⁰ and that he met her alone outside of the FHFA workplace on four occasions in 2016: at a restaurant; at a night club; in Rock Creek Park, and at his apartment in Washington, D.C.²¹ Although he testified that he has mentored a great many individuals, he could not recall a female mentee other than the PMO Manager whom he invited to his private residence in DC.²²

¹⁸ The FHFA Director was represented by counsel at this interview.

¹⁹ In 2014, the Director approved a buyout of 12 FHFA executives at a cost of about $1.45 million.

²⁰ The FHFA Director testified that he became the PMO Manager's mentor when she started coming to him for advice after his first meeting with her to discuss the PMO in 2015.

²¹ The FHFA Director also recalled meeting her at a restaurant in 2015.

²² He recalled that a FHFA female IT technician came to his apartment "to set up [his] home computing capabilities with the office" but that he was not in "an ongoing mentoring relationship" with her. He stated that this technician had since retired.

The FHFA Director stated that the PMO Manager made it clear to him on multiple occasions that she wanted to be an executive in the agency. He added that "it was general knowledge that [the PMO Manager] was one of the people in the agency who had – who had good skills and should be considered if an executive level position ever got created."

He testified that he assumed the PMO Manager would apply for the new executive position in OCOO when he approved the creation of it. He also confirmed that one of the options he considered for the PMO Manager was the "original plan" to bring her into the Chief of Staff's office that "would have put [her] in line" to become chief of staff. He did not dispute that he discussed the chief of staff and COO positions with the PMO Manager, but thought he never discussed with her the impediments to her if she competed for the COO position. He explained those impediments to us: if the PMO Manager, who was a grade below an executive, "was competing for the [COO's] position, there would probably be multiple existing executives who would want that position... And so no way a level 15 probably was going to get that job...."

Interview of	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
--------------	------------------

We interviewed (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) on October 10, 2018, under oath and before a court reporter who transcribed the interview. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) testified that he was "transparent" with the PMO Manager and the OQA Manager, and discussed options by which to manage the PMO and OQA, including an option to create a new executive position and an option to place the PMO under an existing executive.

recalled that the PMO Manager reacted negatively to his consideration of an option other than the creation of a new executive position and became upset. Further, she advised that she was "going to talk to the Director about that." (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) recalled that he warned the Director about this development and that the Director responded that the PMO Manager had already spoken with him and that he had told the PMO Manager that the decision was up to (b)(6),(b)(7) 24

Findings

As discussed, we recognize the likelihood that the PMO Manager has additional recordings of her conversations with the FHFA Director which the PMO Manager has not produced in response to our information request, subpoena, and a Court Order. To the best of our knowledge, ²³(b)(6);(b)(7)(was represented by counsel at this interview.

When asked whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(reported the PMO Manager would complain to the FHFA Director if (b)(6);(b)(7)(C did not recommend creation of a new position, the FHFA Director answered: "He definitely didn't tell me mat because I would have remembered that." He did not recall whether the PMO Manager came to see him after she thought (b)(6);(b)(7)(might not recommend creation of such a position.

the PMO Manager is the sole source for these additional recordings. However, based on our review of the identified recordings, documents, and information learned during our interviews, we have determined that we have a sufficient basis on which to reach two findings of misconduct by the FHFA Director.

1. The FHFA Director Misused his Official Position to Attempt to Obtain a Personal Benefit

The Standards establish a code of conduct applicable to all officials and employees of the federal executive agencies.²⁵ At all times relevant to our inquiry, the FHFA Director was subject to the Standards.

Section 702 of the Standards prohibits an officer or employee from using any authority associated with his federal office in a manner that is intended to coerce or induce a subordinate to provide him with any benefit, financial or otherwise.

For the reasons set forth, below, we find that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in some sort of relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position within FHFA.

The recording of the Director's conversation with the PMO Manager on November 11, 2016, establishes that the Director, not the PMO Manager, went "out of [his] way to get this—get our friendship. . . —or whatever it is, out of the public view because when other people start seeing things, they start putting different equations into it," a statement confirmed by text messages from the Director inviting the PMO Manager to his apartment. The PMO Manager made clear in the recording that this off-site meeting was not her idea: "I think I've definitely had concerns with — well, definitely with coming here."

The Director explained his personal interest in the PMO Manager: "the truth of the matter is I don't pay much attention to other people's perceptions unless I'm guilty. And I'm guilty of having an attraction to you. That's true." He went on to say that he had "tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me," and was "comfortable with drawing the line where you told me I needed to draw it. So I've drawn that line [] much to my disappointment." He reiterated that his apartment was the "safest place to have this conversation" and that "it would be the safest place to—if it was going beyond this conversation."

The Director continued his discussion of the two executive position options for the PMO Manager, that of Chief of Staff and COO. He had also raised the option of the Chief of Staff position in the recorded conversation with the PMO Manager during the Rosa Mexicano dinner in June 2016. The PMO Manager responded that she thought she would "be qualified for either position," and asked the FHFA Director to assure her that any promotion "is just going to be based on merit and fitness for the position, and that there's nothing else." The FHFA Director responded that he thought she was "gorgeous" but didn't "make agency decisions based on who's gorgeous and who's not." He asserted that his discussion with the PMO Manager about two executive positions "has nothing to do with either your beauty or my feelings. But that doesn't eliminate the feelings or the beauty."

^{25 5} CFR § 2635, et seq.

The Director sought to get the PMO Manager to agree with his perspective about the need to meet, alone, at his apartment:

But you understand I think you finally came -- you finally came to the conclusion that I did, that this is the safest place to do this, to have this conversation. It would be the safest place to -- if it were going beyond this conversation. But I think you were concerned that I was luring you here for other reasons. I wasn't concerned about that.

He added that his apartment was "just a safer place to have a conversation" for the PMO Manager because she would otherwise have exposure "sitting in a restaurant, going to Blues Alley, anywhere out in the public" because he was "so well known."

During his sworn interview, the FHFA Director sought to cast these remarks in an innocent light. According to the Director, he did not have a romantic attraction to the PMO Manager. He testified that the PMO Manager "started to make periodic visits to [his] office, during which [they] would discuss work and non-work topics. The increased frequency of those visits" and the "odd times at which the visits started to occur raised [his] suspicions that [the PMO Manager] could be developing an attraction to [him] that would be inappropriate for either an employer/employee relationship or a friendship or a mentor/mentee relationship." For that reason, he explained that he "requested an off-site meeting with [the PMO Manager] after work hours for the specific purpose of addressing and hopefully eliminating [his] suspicions about [her] intentions" and this meeting occurred at Rosa Mexicano in June 2016.

The FHFA Director volunteered that, while en route to Rosa Mexicano, he mentioned to the PMO Manager that there was an attraction between them that needed to be explored so that he could ascertain the PMO Manager's reaction. She "denied that she had any attraction of the kind I had suspected." He maintained that he "confirmed that [his] intention was to make sure there was no confusion about whether there was anything other than 'an attraction of friendship'." The FHFA Director testified that it was that "clarification" from the PMO Manager "that made it possible for [them] to have [] the walk in Rock Creek Park or meet at a performance venue or even have her come to my house to talk about work," all of which he considered appropriate.

With that background, the FHFA Director explained that his remark on the November 11, 2016, recording that he was "guilty of having an attraction" to the PMO Manager meant only that he had "a friendship attraction" as he did with "all [his] mentees." The Director opined that there was nothing in the recording that was inconsistent with that meaning. He asserted that he has "told a number of [his] mentees that [he] think[s] they're gorgeous" and that he has a "friendship attraction" to them." The Director acknowledged that no other female mentees had visited his D.C. apartment. He recalled that an FHFA female IT employee, who has since retired, had visited his apartment "to set up [his] home computing capabilities with the office" but that he was not in "an ongoing mentoring relationship" with her.

The Director also maintained that his reference to line-drawing concerned "[the] line between making decisions based on friendship and making decisions based on my responsibilities as Director" of FHFA. The FHFA Director dismissed his reference to his "disappointment" about drawing the line to be "a joke" and commented that both he and the PMO Manager laughed because "she knew [he] was joking" about whether he had a physical or sexual attraction to her. The Director also expressed his belief that the PMO Manager "knows in her heart that there was no effort [by him] to pursue any kind of romantic relationship with her."

We are not persuaded by the explanations offered by the FHFA Director. Contrary to his testimony, the recording of the November 11, 2016, conversation reveals that the PMO Manager drew the line in question, not the Director. In the recording the Director is heard to say, "I tried to accept what you told me, the first time you told me" and that "I'm comfortable with drawing the line where you told me I needed to draw it." (emphasis added) As the FHFA Director's recorded words made clear, the line in question was drawn by the PMO Manager in an effort to place limits on his conduct toward her, which the Director "tried to accept." Thus, we reject the Director's explanation for this exchange. We are not persuaded by the Director's assertion that the PMO Manager considered his statement that he would observe the line "much to [his] disappointment" to be nothing more than a "joke. About a minute after the Director told the PMO Manager that he could "draw[] the line where you told me I needed to draw it," the PMO Manager said, "I think I've definitely had concerns with – well with definitely coming here."

The Director advised the PMO Manager, in the November 11, 2016, recording, and acknowledged, in both his February 2018 interview and October 2018 testimony to us, that he had sole authority to select candidates to fill executive positions. Had the FHFA Director sought solely to discuss potential advancement opportunities with a mentee, as he maintained, those discussions could, and would, have occurred during business hours in FHFA's offices.

Moreover, we find the FHFA Director's alternative explanation is not credible. He asserts that meetings outside FHFA's office with the PMO Manager were necessary to avoid unjustified suspicions of an inappropriate relationship. But he also maintains that he was concerned that the PMO Manager might have been interested in an inappropriate relationship, and he sought to assure himself that she was not. He acknowledges that he never met another female mentee at his apartment. Given the Director's stated concerns about the interests of the PMO Manager, the Director should have been especially scrupulous about conducting meetings with the PMO Manager in FHFA's offices. Instead, by his own admission, he treated the PMO Manager differently from other female mentees. A reasonable conclusion is that he did so because he was seeking an inappropriate relationship with her.

We find it more likely than not that the FHFA Director sought to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in some sort of relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by inviting her to his apartment (which he characterized as the "safest place [] to have this conversation, if it were going beyond this conversation"), and reporting that he was "guilty of having an attraction" to her, by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in obtaining an executive position at FHFA which he knew that she sought.²⁶

We find that there are no circumstances under which it is appropriate for the head of FHFA to induce a subordinate female employee to meet with him alone, in his apartment, for a conversation in which he professes his attraction for that employee and holds out opportunities for the employee to serve in specific executive positions over which he exercises total control.

For those reasons, we find that the FHFA Director violated Section 702 when he attempted to coerce or induce the PMO Manager to engage in a relationship with him that went beyond their existing "friendship" and/or mentorship by suggesting or implying he would use his official authority to assist her in attaining an executive position with FHFA.

2. The FHFA Director Was Not Candid

Every agency employee, including the head of an agency, providing information in an OIG inquiry must be fully forthcoming and candid as to all facts and information relevant to the inquiry, even if that employee is not specifically asked about particular facts or information. Thus, an employee must disclose those things that, in the circumstances, are needed to make the employee's statement complete and accurate.²⁷

²⁶ We do not credit the Director's statement that the possible executive positions he was discussing had "nothing to do with either [her] beauty or [his] feelings" or attraction to her. Were that the case, these discussions would have occurred during office hours within FHFA.

²⁷ Ludlum v. Dept. of Justice, 278 F. 3d 1280, 1284 (Fed Cir. 2002). See Ludlum v. Department of Justice, 87 M.S.P.R. 56, paragraph 13 (2000), aff'd., 278 F.3d 1280 (Fed. Cir. 2002) ("lack of candor exists when an applicant breaches the duty 'to be fully forthcoming as to all facts and information relevant to a matter before the FCC, whether or not such information is particularly elicited."). Additionally, FHFA employees are obliged to provide

At the outset of the interview with the FHFA Director on February 15, 2018, an OIG Investigative Counsel and an OIG Senior Special Agent informed him that they were conducting an administrative inquiry into allegations that FHFA senior executives had improperly created a new executive position and pre-selected the PMO Manager to fill it. We find that the FHFA Director was not candid during his February 15, 2018, interview for the reasons set forth below.

The FHFA Director stated that he was the only individual in the Agency who 1) could approve the creation of an executive position in FHFA and 2) could approve the selection of an individual to fill that position. In these circumstances, the existence of his personal relationship – whether a friendship, mentorship, or "whatever it is" – with the PMO Manager was material to an inquiry examining whether an executive position had been properly created and whether the PMO Manager had been afforded preferential treatment. The FHFA Director, however, failed to disclose during his February 2018 interview what he disclosed during his October 2018, sworn testimony: that he considered himself to be the PMO Manager's friend and mentor, at least since 2016. We now know, from his recorded statements in November 2016 to the PMO Manager that he: was "guilty of having an attraction" to her; and it was "much to [his] disappointment" that he had to "draw[] the line" where she told him it needed to be drawn.

There can be no doubt that the information that the Director failed to disclose during his February 2018 interview was material to the first investigation. The focus of that inquiry was whether the executive position had been improperly created and whether the PMO Manager had been preselected for it. Therefore, it was highly relevant whether the Director had any sort of relationship with the PMO Manager. We find that the FHFA Director's omission of material information regarding the nature and tenor of his relationship with the PMO Manager during his February 15, 2018, interview to constitute a lack of candor.

We also find that the Director was not candid with us when he failed to disclose that he had a plan, dating back to at least June 2016, under which the PMO Manager could advance into FHFA's executive ranks, as the June 17, 2016, and November 11, 2016, recordings show. In the recorded conversations of June 17, 2016, the Director appears to have raised the opportunity for the PMO Manager to fill one of two potential executive positions in FHFA: Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer. In the recorded conversation of November 11, 2016, the Director explained "our original plan was to – at least one of the options that we were looking at was to try to bring you into [the current Chief of Staff's] office, and that would've put you in line right behind [the current Chief of Staff] to become chief of staff." After recounting the reasons that this plan "wouldn't have been a good idea anyway," the Director described the scenario under which another executive position, COO, might become vacant, creating a vacancy for the PMO

OIG "accurate and complete information when requested" under a Memorandum of Understanding between FHFA and OIG in effect at all times relevant to both of our administrative inquiries.

Manager. The Director's "plan" for the PMO Manager to obtain an executive position was material, particularly when the Director retained sole authority to create executive positions and appoint individuals to them. We find the Director's omission of material information during his February 15, 2018, interview regarding his "plan" for the PMO Manager to obtain an executive position to constitute a lack of candor.

Conclusion

We are issuing this report to the President of the Unit	ted States for such action as he deems appropriate, and to the OGE and to our congressional	l oversight committees. We have referred to the OSC the allegations about (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	for its review and determination.

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 2

Ray Fay

From:

Watt, Mel <wattmebj@fhfa.gov>

Sent:

Friday, November 16, 2018 11:34 AM

To:

DePasquale, Leonard ((b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cc:

Wertheimer, Laura (OIG); Ray Fay

Subject:

FW: Two Requests

Mr. DePasquale:

Thank you for the delivery yesterday afternoon of the Draft OIG Report of Investigation into allegations of misconduct against me. I respectfully make the following requests related to this matter:

- 1) The normal protocols we have adhered to between our office and the OiG related to draft reports, at least until the protocols were adjusted by the OiG to expedite finishing reports so they could be included in the OiG's most recent Semi-Annual Report to Congress, provided for 10 days for our office to provide "technical comments" to ensure that factual errors were called to the OiG's attention, followed by an additional 5 days for our response once our technical comments were considered and the draft was finalized. After reviewing the Draft Report delivered yesterday, there are several factual errors that I believe should be corrected before the Draft Report becomes a Final Report. I request that we follow our previously established protocols and that I be provided 10 days to provide technical comments to call these factual errors to your attention, followed by 5 days to provide my response from the time the Draft becomes Final.
- 2) Regardless of your disposition of the above request, I request that the time for me to provide my response be extended to no earlier than December 6, 2018 in light of previously scheduled Thanksgiving holiday travel plans and other pressing matters, both business (policy, transition, records retention, etc.) and personal (sale of DC residence, preparations to move, etc.), that are demanding my attention during this time frame. The Draft Report, of course, involves substantial reputational issues and neither the preparation of technical comments nor my response can be delegated.

Please advise me of your disposition of the above requests as soon as possible to enable me to plan appropriately.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Mel Watt

Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this e-mail and any attachments may be confidential or privileged under applicable law, or otherwise may be protected from disclosure to anyone other than the intended recipient(s). Any use, distribution, or copying of this e-mail, including any of its contents or attachments by any person other than the intended recipient, or for any purpose other than its intended use, is strictly prohibited. If you believe you have received this e-mail in error: permanently delete the e-mail and any attachments, and do not save, copy, disclose, or rely on any part of the information contained in this e-mail or its attachments. Please call 202-649-3800 if you have questions.

Ray Fay

From:

Ray Fay

Sent:

Saturday, November 17, 2018 1:53 PM

To:

DePasquale, Leonard (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cc:

Wertheimer, Laura (OIG); Watt, Mel

Subject:

RE: Two Requests

Mr. DePasquale,

This follows up on Mr. Watt's request to you below. The draft report states (at 4): "Appendix A to this report is a summary of the facts we compiled during our administrative inquiry, and that summary has been provided to the OSC." See id. At 9 ("We set forth, in Appendix A, a summary of the facts we found during this second inquiry....").

No Appendix A has been provided. Please furnish it to Mr. Watt and me. The incompleteness of the draft report reinforces Mr. Watt's request for additional time to provide his comments, on top of the independent merits of that request.

I am available this weekend to retrieve the missing document from you. Thank you.

Ray Fay

Raymond C. Fay
FAY LAW GROUP PLLC
1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 700
Washington, DC 20036
202 263 4604 t

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

202 261 3508 f

rfay@faylawdc.com

From: Watt, Mel [mailto:wattmebj@fhfa.gov]
Sent: Friday, November 16, 2018 11:34 AM

To: DePasquale, Leonard (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cc: Wertheimer, Laura (OIG)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Ray Fay <rfay@faylawdc.com>

Subject: FW: Two Requests

Mr. DePasquale:

Thank you for the delivery yesterday afternoon of the Draft OIG Report of Investigation into allegations of misconduct against me. I respectfully make the following requests related to this matter:

- The normal protocols we have adhered to between our office and the OIG related to draft reports, at least until the protocols were adjusted by the OIG to expedite finishing reports so they could be included in the OIG's most recent Semi-Annual Report to Congress, provided for 10 days for our office to provide "technical comments" to ensure that factual errors were called to the OIG's attention, followed by an additional 5 days for our response once our technical comments were considered and the draft was finalized. After reviewing the Draft Report delivered yesterday, there are several factual errors that I believe should be corrected before the Draft Report becomes a Final Report. I request that we follow our previously established protocols and that I be provided 10 days to provide technical comments to call these factual errors to your attention, followed by 5 days to provide my response from the time the Draft becomes Final.
- 2) Regardless of your disposition of the above request, I request that the time for me to provide my response be extended to no earlier than December 6, 2018 in light of previously scheduled Thanksgiving holiday travel plans and other pressing matters, both business (policy, transition, records retention, etc.) and personal (sale of DC residence, preparations to move, etc.), that are demanding my attention during this time frame. The Draft Report, of course, involves substantial reputational issues and neither the preparation of technical comments nor my response can be delegated.

Please advise me of your disposition of the above requests as soon as possible to enable me to plan appropriately.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Mel Watt

Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this e-mail and any attachments may be confidential or privileged under applicable law, or otherwise may be protected from disclosure to anyone other than the intended recipient(x). Any use, distribution, or copying of this e-mail, including any of its contents or attachments by any person other than the intended recipient, or for any purpose other than its intended use, is strictly prohibited. If you believe you have received this e-mail in error; permanently delete the e-mail and any attachments, and do not save, copy, disclose, or rely on any part of the information contained in this e-mail or its attachments. Please call 202-649-3800 if you have questions.

Ray Fay

From: DePasquale, Leonard (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Sent: Monday, November 19, 2018 12:20 PM

To: Ray Fay

Subject: RE: Two Requests

Mr. Fay:

This note responds to Director Watt's request of November 16 for an extension of time to respond to the draft report of FHFA-OIG's administrative inquiry into allegations of misconduct against him and your request of November 17 for a draft of Appendix A.

Director Watt's request incorrectly asserts that FHFA-OIG is not following "normal protocols" with FHFA for this draft report. The "normal" protocols were put into place for audits, evaluations and compliance reviews, and we have never applied them to roll-up reports, management alerts, or reports of administrative inquiries. As we explain below, these latter three categories of reports are fundamentally different from audits, evaluations and compliance reviews. For that reason, the "normal protocol" of 10 business days for "technical comments" followed by an additional 5 days for a management response has never applied to roll-ups, management alerts and reports of administrative inquiry.

A roll-up report, of which FHFA-OIG has issued two, summarizes FHFA-OIG's conclusions from a number of previously issued audits, evaluations and compliance reviews for which FHFA had 15 business days to provide technical comments and responses. For example, in December 2016, FHFA-OIG issued a roll-up report of 12 prior assessments of critical elements of DER's supervision program for the Enterprises and identified four recurring themes from the prior fact finding and recommendations. Safe and Sound Operation of the Enterprises Cannot Be Assumed Because of Significant Shortcomings in FHFA's Supervision Program for the Enterprises (OIG-2017-003, December 15, 2016). So too, the roll-up report issued in September 2018, FHFA's Housing Finance Examiner Commissioning Program: $7.7 Million and Four Years into the Program, the Agency has Fewer Commissioned Examiners (COM-2018-0067, September 6, 2018), explained the shortcomings and weaknesses of FHFA's Housing Finance Commissioning Program, based on the facts and findings from four previously issued reports. For each roll-up report, FHFA was provided 10 days to submit its management response.

Management alerts are issued to inform the FHFA Director of ongoing action (or inaction) in FHFA's operations and programs that, in the view of FHFA-OIG, require the Director's immediate attention. Providing FHFA with a technical comment period of 10 business days on the "facts" section of a management alert, followed by a response period of 5 business days, would serve only to delay issuance of a management alert for which immediate action is sought. During Director Watt's tenure, FHFA-OIG has issued several management alerts and has provided FHFA with 10 business days in which to submit both its technical comments, if any, and management response. See, e.g., Consolidation and Relocation of Fannie Mae's Northern Virginia Workforce (OIG-2018-004, September 6, 2018); Fannie Mae Dallas Regional Headquarters Project (OIG-2017-002, December 15, 2016); Management Alert: Need for Increased Oversight by FHFA, as Conservator of Fannie Mae, of the Projected Costs Associated with Fannie Mae's Headquarters Consolidation and Relocation Project (COM-2016-004, June 16, 2016).

For those reasons, Director Watt's assertion that FHFA-OIG "adjusted" the "normal protocols" to expedite completion of reports so they could be included in its most recent Semi-Annual Report to Congress is inaccurate. During that semi-annual period, FHFA-OIG drafted one roll-up and one management alert, and with respect to each, provided FHFA with the customary 10 business days for technical comment and/or management response.

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, requires every federal Office of Inspector, including FHFA-OIG, to timely report misconduct by senior agency officials. Reports of administrative inquiries or administrative reviews typically are issued to set forth FHFA-OIG's fact-finding and conclusions into allegations of misconduct by an individual or individuals. Where the facts found are drawn, in whole or in large measure, from FHFA records, FHFA-OIG has issued its report of administrative inquiry without providing FHFA with any opportunity to provide technical comment and has instead subsequently appended to the already-issued report any management response later submitted by FHFA. See, e.g., Administrative Investigation into Anonymous Hotline Complaints Concerning Timeliness and Completeness of Disclosures Regarding a Potential Conflict of Interest by a Senior Executive Officer of an Enterprise (OIG-2017-004, March 23, 2017); Administrative Investigation of an Anonymous Hotline Complaint Alleging Use of FHFA Vehicles and FHFA Employees in a Manner Inconsistent with Law and Regulation (OIG-2017-001, December 6, 2017).

Where, as here, the facts found are drawn from a limited record, FHFA-OIG has provided FHFA with 5 business days in which to submit its technical comments and response. See, e.g., Administrative Review of a Potential Conflict of Interest Matter Involving a Senior Executive Officer at an Enterprise (OIG-2018-001, July 26, 2018). As the draft report provided to Director Watt on Thursday, November 15, plainly acknowledges, the record on which FHFA-OIG made its findings was limited, and Director Watt was provided with the opportunity to supplement that record during his deposition. Based upon this record, FHFA-OIG determined that the information obtained during its administrative inquiry provided a sufficient basis on which to reach two findings of misconduct. The facts found in its draft report are drawn largely from agency records, including two recordings in FHFA's possession since August 2018 and the report of the contract investigator, provided to FHFA on August 13, 2018; a memorandum of Director Watt's interview of February 15, 2018, and a transcript of Director Watt's sworn testimony of October 11, 2018, where he was represented by counsel; and a charge card record produced by Director Watt through you as his counsel. Given that the facts found in this draft report are drawn from a limited record, FHFA-OIG will follow its practice and provide Director Watt 5 business days in which to submit his technical comments and response. (We note that these 5 business days equate to 10 calendar days).

Director Watt noted that he identified "several factual errors" in this draft report for which correction is warranted before issuance of the final report. FHFA-OIG has developed and implemented rigorous internal controls to ensure the accuracy of its reports. The draft report provided to Director Watt on November 15 has record support for each factual statement, all of which have been checked for accuracy by lawyers in FHFA-OIG's Office of Counsel. Notwithstanding these controls, FHFA-OIG recognizes that a potential for error exists. As Director Watt reported that he had already identified "several factual errors" in the draft report, kindly provide us with a list of those factual errors by close of business, November 20. Expedited identification of errors will allow us to revise the current draft, as necessary, and provide you with a revised draft no later than 5 pm on November 23.

With regard to Appendix A, that Appendix was prepared for OSC, as the current draft makes clear, for its use in its ongoing review. Because that review is not complete, we have determined not to include Appendix A as part of this report. Consequently, Appendix A will be delivered solely to the OSC, which follows the practice that we used for the first administrative inquiry. The draft report will be revised to remove all references to Appendix A. Because the information in Appendix A is provided to OSC for its ongoing review, we will not provide Appendix A to you, as counsel for Director Watt, or to any stakeholders.

For the reasons set forth above, FHFA-OIG will continue to adhere to its practice of providing 5 business days to FHFA for technical comment and a response. Should Director Watt wish to submit a management response after the November 26 deadline, FHFA-OIG shall forward that response to all stakeholders who receive the unredacted report.

Sincerely,

Len

Leonard J. DePasquale Chief Counsel FHFA-OIG

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

From: Ray Fay [mailto:rfay@faylawdc.com]
Sent: Saturday, November 17, 2018 1:53 PM

To: DePasquale, Leonard (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cc: Wertheimer, Laura (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Melvin L. Watt <wattmebj@fhfa.gov>

Subject: RE: Two Requests

Mr. DePasquale,

This follows up on Mr. Watt's request to you below. The draft report states (at 4): "Appendix A to this report is a summary of the facts we compiled during our administrative inquiry, and that summary has been provided to the OSC." See id. At 9 ("We set forth, in Appendix A, a summary of the facts we found during this second inquiry....").

No Appendix A has been provided. Please furnish it to Mr. Watt and me. The incompleteness of the draft report reinforces Mr. Watt's request for additional time to provide his comments, on top of the independent merits of that request.

I am available this weekend to retrieve the missing document from you.

Thank you.

Ray Fay

Raymond C. Fay FAY LAW GROUP PLLC 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 700 Washington, DC 20036 202 263 4604 t

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

202 261 3508 f

rfay@faylawdc.com

From: Watt, Mel [mailto:wattmebj@fhfa.gov]
Sent: Friday, November 16, 2018 11:34 AM

To: DePasquale, Leonard (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cc: Wertheimer, Laura (OIG) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Ray Fay < rfay@faylawdc.com>

Subject: FW: Two Requests

Mr. DePasquale:

Thank you for the delivery yesterday afternoon of the Draft OIG Report of Investigation into allegations of misconduct against me. I respectfully make the following requests related to this matter:

- The normal protocols we have adhered to between our office and the OIG related to draft reports, at least until the protocols were adjusted by the OIG to expedite finishing reports so they could be included in the OIG's most recent Semi-Annual Report to Congress, provided for 10 days for our office to provide "technical comments" to ensure that factual errors were called to the OIG's attention, followed by an additional 5 days for our response once our technical comments were considered and the draft was finalized. After reviewing the Draft Report delivered yesterday, there are several factual errors that I believe should be corrected before the Draft Report becomes a Final Report. I request that we follow our previously established protocols and that I be provided 10 days to provide technical comments to call these factual errors to your attention, followed by 5 days to provide my response from the time the Draft becomes Final.
- 2) Regardless of your disposition of the above request, I request that the time for me to provide my response be extended to no earlier than December 6, 2018 in light of previously scheduled Thanksgiving holiday travel plans and other pressing matters, both business (policy, transition, records retention, etc.) and personal (sale of DC residence, preparations to move, etc.), that are demanding my attention during this time frame. The Draft Report, of course, involves substantial reputational issues and neither the preparation of technical comments nor my response can be delegated.

Please advise me of your disposition of the above requests as soon as possible to enable me to plan appropriately.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Mel Watt

Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this e-mail and any attachments may be confidential or privileged under applicable law, or otherwise may be protected from disclosure to anyone other than the intended recipient(s). Any use, distribution, or copying of this e-mail, including any of its contents or attachments by any person other than the intended recipient, or for any purpose other than its intended use, is strictly prohibited. If you believe you have received this e-mail in error; permanently delete the e-mail and any attachments, and do not save, copy, disclose, or rely on any part of the information contained in this e-mail or its attachments. Please call 202-649-3800 if you have questions.

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 3

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

	RN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA 2018 AUG 10 A s	9 OS
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, on behalf of the Federal Housing Finance	ALEXAGE COLUMN TO S	ouri illa
Agency's Office of Inspector General, Petitioner,)))) MISC. NO.: 1:18-mc-26 (LO/JFA) v.)
SIMONE GRIMES,) }
Respondent

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PETITION OF THE UNITED STATES TO ENFORCE SUBPOENA ISSUED BY THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE FEDERAL HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY

INTRODUCTION

The Federal Housing Finance Agency ("FHFA") Office of Inspector General ("OIG") is investigating allegations of misconduct involving FHFA Director Melvin L. Watt. As part of that investigation, FHFA-OIG served Ms. Simone Grimes, an FHFA employee (Respondent), with a subpoena to obtain copies of audio recordings made by the Respondent, as well as other documents and material that are in her possession ("Subpoena"). See Exhibit 1.

The audio recordings of the communications, as well as the associated records in the Respondents possession may be the only such recordings that exist, and are essential to FHFA-OIG's ability to conduct its investigation.

Respondent has not produced the information required by the Subpoena. Respondent, through her then-counsel, previously provided FHFA-OIG certain information – partial audio recordings and partial transcripts – from a parallel administrative proceeding. However, those recordings and transcripts do not appear to be complete, and Respondent has additional audio recordings in her possession.

BACKGROUND

FHFA-OIG is an independent office within FHFA charged with, inter alia, investigating waste, fraud and abuse relating to FHFA's programs and operations.

FHFA-OIG is conducting an investigation into allegations that FHFA's Director (Director) may have engaged in misconduct. FHFA-OIG identified the Respondent as a party who is likely the sole source of certain information necessary for OIG to complete its investigation.

On July 18, 2018, FHFA-OIG issued the Subpoena to the Respondent to obtain complete, unedited audio and other records of conversations between Respondent and the Director as well as conversations between Respondent and anyone else concerning her employment with FHFA; any and all transcripts of those audio and/or video recordings; any and all records of communication by and between the Respondent and the Director made from January 1, 2014, through July 17, 2018, including, but not limited to, emails and their attachments, text messages, telephone calls, voice mail, and other media.

Respondent, through her counsel at the time, confirmed receipt of service of the Subpoena on July 19, 2018. See Exhibit 2. On July 20, 2018, Respondent's then-counsel ("Counsel") stated that the Respondent had already provided information to the FHFA-OIG prior to the issuance of the Subpoena, asserted that the Respondent would provide additional information responsive to the subpoena on a rolling basis, and requested an extension to respond to the subpoena through August 17, 2018. As support of her request, Respondent's Counsel informed FHFA-OIG that her client would be away, she needed time to locate and assemble the requested information and recover deleted voicemails, and last, she requested technological assistance to transfer audio recordings. FHFA-OIG offered technical assistance to download the full, unedited audio files and any other computer-hosted materials in Respondent's care, custody, or control, and sought a mutually-agreeable schedule for production of the remaining materials.

On July 24, 2018, Counsel authorized FHFA-OIG to communicate directly with Respondent to retrieve the relevant audio files within the next two days. However, on July 25, 2018, Respondent informed FHFA-OIG that she was going to obtain another counsel¹ to represent her in the OIG investigation.² Respondent stated that she would provide the name of her representative once secured. On July 26, 2018, the Respondent's prior counsel confirmed that she was not representing Respondent in the FHFA-OIG matter.

The subpoena deadline passed on July 27, 2018. On July 31, 2018, FHFA-OIG contacted Respondent by email to request the name of the attorney whom she had retained for the OIG matter. Respondent responded with a host of questions not relevant to her obligation to comply with the Subpoena, e.g., questioning FHFA-OIG's authority to conduct the investigation and its scope. On August 1, 2018, FHFA-OIG informed the Respondent that she was not the subject of FHFA-OIG's investigation, and requested immediate cooperation to obtain the information required by the subpoena. FHFA-OIG again offered technical assistance, and emphasized the need for the complete audio recordings, with a rolling production acceptable thereafter.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Respondent received more than 18 hours of administrative leave time to work on responding to FHFA-OIG's document requests, FHFA-OIG informed her that it would secure authority for her to use official work time to work on responding to the

¹ FHFA-OIG's investigation into allegations of misconduct is an independent, parallel proceeding to another matter in which Counsel represents Respondent.

² FHFA-OIG has informed Respondent that she is a cooperating witness, not the subject of the investigation.

Subpoena. Respondent responded that she would not "work on it until the week of August 13, 2018," and further, that she was not providing any evidence to FHFA-OIG until a parallel administrative proceeding reached a certain point (an indefinite period). Respondent also stated that she had not agreed to turn over personal, non-government property to FHFA-OIG or allow FHFA-OIG to attach devices to her personal property, effectively refusing to comply with the Subpoena.

ARGUMENT

I

THE FHFA-OIG IS AUTHORIZED TO OBTAIN THE RECORDS IT HAS SUBPOENAED

The Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 ("HERA"), Pub. L. No. 110-289, 122 Stat. 2668 (2008), established the FHFA and an FHFA Inspector General therein appointed in accordance with the Inspector General Act of 1978. Id. § 1105(a)(5), (c).

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, 5 U.S.C. app. 3 § 6(a)(4) ("the IG Act"), authorizes an inspector general to require by subpoena the production of a wide variety of evidence "necessary in the performance of the functions assigned" by the IG Act and further provides that such subpoenas "in the case of contumacy or refusal to obey, shall be enforceable by order of any appropriate United States district court" Id.

Congress has recognized that IG subpoenas are critically-needed tools in investigations of allegations of fraud, waste, and abuse of government funds. During its consideration of the IG Act in 1978, Congress proclaimed: "Subpoena power is absolutely essential to the discharge of the Inspector and Auditor General's functions." S.Rep. 1071, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 34 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 2676, 2709.

II

THE COURT SHOULD ENFORCE FHFA-OIG'S SUBPOENA

The role of a district court in enforcing subpoenas issued under the authority of the Inspector General Act is well established. As an initial matter, "[t]he [judicial review] process is not one for a determination of the underlying claim on its merits; Congress has delegated that function to the discretion of the administrative agency. Rather, courts should look only to the jurisdiction of the agency to conduct such an investigation." EEOC v. Am. & Efird Mills, Inc., 964 F.2d 300, 303 (4th Cir. 1992) (per curiam).

FHFA-OIG has authority through the IG Act, 5 U.S.C. App. 3, §§ 4(a)(1) and 6(a)(4), to conduct this investigation and to demand the evidence it seeks from Respondent, through its July 18, 2018, subpoena. Accordingly, the Court need only be satisfied with affirmative answers to three areas of inquiry regarding the FHFA-OIG subpoena at issue: (1) is FHFA-OIG authorized to investigate the matter?; (2) has FHFA-OIG afforded due process to Respondent?; and, (3) has FHFA-OIG demanded information from Respondent that is relevant to the FHFA-OIG's investigation or inquiry? The answer to all three inquiries is "yes." See, e.g., United States v. American Target Advertising, Inc., 257 F.3d 348, 351 (4th Cir. 2001); EEOC v. Lockheed Martin Corp., Aero & Naval Systems, 116 F.3d 110, 113 (4th Cir.1997); EEOC v. City of Norfolk Police Dep't, 45 F.3d 80, 82 (4th Cir. 1995).

Accordingly, the United States has established its prima facie case for enforcement of the subpoena.

III

REASONS PROFFERED BY RESPONDENT FOR NONCOMPLIANCE

Respondent has not complied with the Subpoena requirements, but her reasons have nothing to do with the established test for enforcing Inspector General subpoenas. Respondent cited time constraints because she had been away just prior to receiving the Subpoena and plans to be away from August 6-10, 2018. Respondent has received more than 18 hours of administrative leave time to work on responding to FHFA-OIG's document requests, and FHFA-OIG informed her that it would secure authority for her to use official work time to work on responding to the Subpoena. Respondent should have the sought-after material readily available because it is relevant to a parallel proceeding. Moreover, FHFA-OIG has worked to make the Subpoena production easy and expedient, with the least burden possible to Respondent. FHFA-OIG repeatedly has offered technical assistance to facilitate the production of the full, unedited audio files and any other computer-hosted materials in Respondent's care, custody, or control. FHFA-OIG remains amenable to a rolling production of materials after receiving the audio files.

Respondent's challenges to FHFA-OIG's independence and authority lack merit. FHFA-OIG's authority to conduct this investigation is well-established under the IG Act and HERA.

FHFA-OIG must fully investigate allegations of misconduct at FHFA in a timely manner and determine whether any allegations are substantiated.³ Respondent is a person who has information necessary for OIG to obtain in order for OIG to fulfill its statutory duties.

Respondent has previously produced only partial audio recordings and transcripts of partial audio recordings, which appear to be incomplete. FHFA-OIG believes that there are additional audio recordings made by the Respondent of her conversations with the Director. FHFA-OIG also seeks any and all transcripts of those recordings, handwritten notes and other materials relevant to FHFA-OIG's investigation. It is critical that FHFA-OIG obtain these materials—especially complete, unedited copies of the audio recordings that Respondent possesses—because she likely is the only person who possesses much of this information.

³ FHFA-OIG may conduct an independent, parallel investigation into matters within its jurisdiction notwithstanding the fact that the conduct under investigation may also violate other laws or regulations that provide individual remedies to aggrieved parties.

Respondent is not complying with the Subpoena, and the deadline for production has passed. Specifically, the Respondent is refusing to turn over requested information until after her parallel administrative matter is completed – some indefinite time – and her statements raise significant doubt regarding whether she will ever comply with the lawfully-issued Subpoena.

Respondent does not contend that she has been denied due process. Respondent has not claimed that the information sought by FHFA-OIG is not relevant. Instead, Respondent has raised various irrelevant, specious arguments to assert justifiable noncompliance, which now include the search for new counsel. The Subpoena satisfies the requirements for a valid subpoena and should be enforced.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Petitioner, the United States, respectfully requests that the Court:

- Order Respondent to comply with the Subpoena and produce the recordings and documents demanded by the Subpoena within ten days of the date of this Court's Order, and,
- Grant such other and further relief as the Court finds just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

G. ZACHARY TERWILLIGER UNITED STATES ATTORNEY

	/s/
By:	RICHARD W. SPONSELLER
, com e con	Assistant United States Attorney (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) United States Attorney's Office Justin W. Williams United States Attorney's Building
	2100 Jamieson Avenue
	Alexandria, Virginia 22314-5702
	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 4

Part 1 of 3

22-
1
2	X
3	MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW :
4	OF :
5	MELVIN L. WATT :
6
7
8	X
9	Washington, D.C.
10	Thursday, October 11, 2018
11	Interview of MELVIN L. WATT, a witness
12	herein, called for examination by the FHFA-Office of
13	the Inspector General, in the above-entitled matter,
14	pursuant to agreement, the witness being duly sworn
15	by $(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)$ a Notary Public in and for the
1.6	District of Columbia, taken at the offices of Federal
17	Housing Finance Agency, 400 7th Street, Southwest,
18	Washington, D.C., at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, October 11,
19	2018, and the proceedings being taken down by
20	Stenotype by [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) RPR, FCRR, and
21	transcribed under her direction.
22

ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. Asst. Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW 415 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 45 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141 45 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 41		Washington, DC
2 EXHIBIT S 3 On behalf of the FHFA-Office of Inspector General: 5 RICHARD PARKER, ESQ. 6 Dep. Inspector General for Investigations Federal Housing Finance Agency 6 Washington, DC 20006 10 (202) 414-6439 11 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. 13 ASL Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 14 (207) 414-6439 15 Federal Housing Finance Agency 16 (202) 414-6439 16 Federal Housing Finance Agency 17 EXHIBIT NO. 7 Letter dated 7-27-18 82 18 EXHIBIT NO. 8 Letter dated 9-2-18 84 11 EXHIBIT NO. 9 Colloquy Trott/Watt 103 12 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 13 EXHIBIT NO. 11 Email dated 8-19-14 141 14 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141 15 EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145 16 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 17 EXHIBIT NO. 15 Extra dated 9-21-15 141 18 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#3 145 19 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 10 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 10 Page 5 1 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 11 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 12 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 13 MELVIN I. WATT, 14 Was called as a winces by counsel for the 15 FIFFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been 6 duly swom by the Notary Public, was examined and 12 testificat as follows: 14 EXHIBIT NO. 19 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 15 PR O C EE D I N G S 2 Whereupon, 16 EXHIBIT NO. 10 PR O MINIT NO. 11 PR O C N O N O N O N O N O N O N O N O N O		V 535	5/24	Page 4
3 On behalf of the FHFA-Office of Inspector 4 General: 5 RICHARD PARKER, ESQ. 6 Dep. Inspector General for Investigations 7 Federal Housing Finance Agency 8 400 7th Street, SW 9 Washington, DC 20006 10 (202) 414-6439 11 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. 12 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. 13 EXHIBIT NO. 1 FHFA Form dated 5-29-18 82 14 EXHIBIT NO. 5 Memo dated 11-7-17 76 15 EXHIBIT NO. 5 Memo dated 47-27-18 82 16 Washington, DC 20006 17 Edward Housing Finance Agency 18 EXHIBIT NO. 6 FHFA Form dated 5-29-18 80 19 EXHIBIT NO. 7 Letter dated 7-27-18 82 10 EXHIBIT NO. 8 Letter dated 9-2-18 84 11 EXHIBIT NO. 9 Colloquy Trott/Watt 103 12 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 13 EXHIBIT NO. 11 Email dated 8-19-14 141 14 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141 15 EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145 16 EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145 17 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 18 19 20 21 21 22 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	l	APPEARANCES:	2200	10/90-44529/#URROOK
4 EXHIBIT NO. 2 Memo dated 3-6-14 23 5 EXHIBIT NO. 3 Organizational Chart 26 5 Dep. Inspector General for Investigations Federal Housing Finance Agency 8 400 7th Street, SW 400 7th Str	- 1000			$100 $100 $100 $100 $100 $100 $100 $100
RICHARD PARKER, ESQ. Dep. Inspector General for Investigations Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW Mashington, DC 20006 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. ANGIELA CHOY, ESQ. ANGIELA CHOY, ESQ. Washington, DC 20006 Federal Housing Finance Agency Mashington, DC 20006 Federal Housing Finance Agency Page 3 Page 3 PROCEEDINGS PROCEEDINGS PROCEEDINGS MELVIN L. WAIT, Was called as a witness by counsel for the FHFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and vestified as follows: EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG Mill Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 15 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 16 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 7 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BYMR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 4 that have come in over the course of the last several	55/4	100 March 100 Ma	1
Dep. Inspector General for Investigations	1983		1
Federal Housing Finance Agency	100	The same of the sa	5
1		sens Gar seathful tree trees and	0.040	1000
Washington, DC 20006 (202) 414-6439 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. ASST. Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW Washington, DC 20006 (202) 414-6439 Page 3 Page 3 On behalf of the Witness: RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. Fay Law Group, PLLC Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 (202) 263-4604 Rfay@faylawdc.com Pfiff-A-Office of the Inspector General for Evaluations EXHIBIT NO. 12 Letter dated 7-27-18 82 EXHIBIT NO. 9 Colloquy Trott/Watt 103 110 121 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 122 EXHIBIT NO. 11 Transcript of Recording#1 14 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141 EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 15 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 16 EXHIBIT NO. 15 EXHIBIT NO. 16 EXHIBIT NO. 18 EXHIBIT NO. 19 Calendar dated 9-11-15 14 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 13 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 14 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 14 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 EXHIBIT NO. 18 EXHIBIT NO. 19 Calendar dated 9-11-15 14 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 13 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 13 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 14 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 14 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 14 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 15 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 16 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 15 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109 16 EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript	26.75		7	EXHIBIT NO. 5 Memo dated 11-7-17 76
10 (202) 414-6439 11 ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. 12 ASSL. Inspector General for Evaluations 13 Asst. Inspector General for Evaluations 14 Federal Housing Finance Agency 15 400 7th Street, SW 16 Washington, DC 20006 17 (202) 414-6439 18 19 19 20 20 21 21 22 21 22 22 Page 3 2 Page 5 2 On behalf of the Witness: 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 20 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 20 Page 6 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 20 Page 7 21 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Liz Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation, You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 10 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Wat here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	2000	The advanced management and advanced and adv	8	EXHIBIT NO. 6 FHFA Form dated 5-29-18 80
ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. Asst. Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW 401 400 7th Street, SW 402 414-6439 Page 3 Con behalf of the Witness: RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. Fay Law Group, PLLC Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. Fay Law Group, PLLC Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 Refay@faylawdc.com Refay@faylawdc.com Signal Symmetry Refay@faylawdc.com Signal Symmetry Refay (202) 263-4604 Refay@faylawdc.com Signal Symmetry Refay (202) 263-4604 Refay@faylawdc.com Refay (202) 263-4604			9	EXHIBIT NO. 7 Letter dated 7-27-18 82
ANGELA CHOY, ESQ. Asst. Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 40 7th Street, SW 41 EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141 41 EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145 42 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 43 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 44 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 45 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 46 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145 47 PROCEEDINGS 48 Whereupon, 49 Page 5 40 Washington, DC 20036 40 Washington, DC 20036 41 EXHIBIT NO. 15 Text Messages 145 41 PROCEEDINGS 42 Whereupon, 43 MELVINL WATT, 44 was called as a winess by counsel for the 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 45 Suite 200 46 duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and 14 testificd as follows: 47 Washington, DC 20036 48 (202) 263-4604 49 Rfay@faylawdc.com 40 Washington, DC 20036 51 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 14 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 15 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 16 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 17 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 18 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 18 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 18 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 19 Par	10	(202) 414-6439	10	EXHIBIT NO. 8 Letter dated 9-2-18 84
Asst. Inspector General for Evaluations Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW Kashington, DC 20006 (202) 414-6439 Page 3 On behalf of the Witness: RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ, Suite 200 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ, Washington, DC 20036 Suite 200 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ, RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ, Suite 200 Raymon, Suite 200 Raymon, Raymon, DC 20036 Ray@faylawdc.com Raymon, DC 20036 Raymon, Nature a complex inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector Raymon, Nature a complex inspector General for Exhlustion. You know us both. Sir, do you want to enter your appearance on the record? Raymon, Nature a complex inspector general for Exhlustion. You know us both. Sir, do you want to enter your appearance on the record? Raymon, Nature a complex inspector general for Exhlustion. You know us both. Sir, do you want to enter your appearance on the record? Raymon, Nature a complex inspector general for Exhlustion. You know us both. Sir, do you wan	11		11	EXHIBIT NO. 9 Colloquy Trott/Watt 103
Federal Housing Finance Agency 400 7th Street, SW 16 Washington, DC 20006 17 (202) 414-6439 18 19 19 20 20 21 22 22 Page 3 Page 3 Page 5 1 PROCEEDINGS 2 Whereupon, 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	12		12	EXHIBIT NO. 10 Transcript of Recording#1 109
15 400 7th Street, SW 16 Washington, DC 20006 17 (202) 414-6439 18 18 19 19 20 20 20 21 21 22 22 22 Page 3 24 Page 3 25 On behalf of the Witness: 26 AYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 27 Fay Law Group, PLLC 28 Fay Law Group, PLLC 29 Connecticut Avenue, NW 29 G Washington, DC 20036 29 Washington, DC 20036 20 G Washington, DC 20036 20 G Washington, DC 20036 21 C Washington, DC 20036 22 Whereupon, 23 MELVIN L. WATT, 24 was called as a witness by counsel for the duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and testificd as follows: 20 Washington, DC 20036 21 C Washington, DC 20036 22 Whereupon, 23 MELVIN L. WATT, 24 was called as a witness by counsel for the EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG Washington, DC 20036 26 Washington, DC 20036 27 Washington, DC 20036 28 C Whereupon, 30 MELVIN L. WATT, 41 was called as a witness by counsel for the EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG Washington, DC 20036 42 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector Investigations at FHFA, your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	13	Salar Sa	13	EXHIBIT NO. 11 Email dated 8-19-14 141
Washington, DC 20006 16 EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145	14		14	EXHIBIT NO. 12 Calendar dated 9-11-15 141
17 (202) 414-6439 18 18 19 20 20 21 21 22 Page 3 Page 5 1 PROCEEDINGS Whereupon, 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 11 PARCHER 10 PARKER: 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 11 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	15	400 7th Street, SW	15	EXHIBIT NO. 13 Text Messages 145
18 19 20 20 21 22 Page 3 Page 3 Page 5 1 PROCEEDINGS Page 5 2 Whereupon, 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 2 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 2 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 2 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 2 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 3 MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 5 FHFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been 6 duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and 7 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 9 BY MR. PARKER: 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	16	Washington, DC 20006	16	EXHIBIT NO. 14 Transcript of Recording#3 145
Page 3 Page 3 Page 5 1 PROCEEDINGS Page 5 1 PROCEEDINGS Whereupon, 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 PROCEEDINGS Whereupon, 3 MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 5 FHFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been 6 duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and 1 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 9 BY MR. PARKER: 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 PROCEEDINGS Whereupon, 3 MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 5 FHFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been 6 duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and 1 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 10 PROCEEDINGS MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 1 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 10 PROCEEDINGS MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 1 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 10 PROCEEDINGS MELVIN L. WATT, 4 was called as a witness by counsel for the 1 testified as follows: 8 EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG 10 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 11 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	17	(202) 414-6439	17
Page 3 Page 3 Page 5 Page 5	18		18
Page 3 Page 5 Page 5 Page 6 Page 7 Page 7 Page 8 Page 8 Page 8 Page 5 Page 5	19		19
Page 3 Page 3 Page 5 Page 5	20		20
Page 3 Page 5 Page 6 Page 5 Page 5	21		21
1 PROCEEDINGS 2 On behalf of the Witness: 3 RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. 4 Fay Law Group, PLLC 5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 10 11 11 12 12 13 14 15 16 16 17 18 18 19 19 10 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20	22		22
On behalf of the Witness: RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. Fay Law Group, PLLC Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 Refay@faylawdc.com Refay@faylawdc.com MELVIN L. WATT, was called as a witness by counsel for the EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR FHFA-OIG BY MR. PARKER: Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, representing Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	100	Page 3		Page 5
RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. RAYMOND C. FAY, ESQ. READ Law Group, PLLC Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 Results 200 Results 20			1
Fay Law Group, PLLC 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 Rfay@faylawdc.com Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do you want to enter your appearance on the record? MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, representing Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	2		2	Whereupon,
5 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW 6 Suite 200 7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 10 10 10 11 11 11 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 18 18 19 19 10 19 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 11 11 11 11 11	3
Suite 200 Washington, DC 20036 Rfay@faylawdc.com Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do you want to enter your appearance on the record? MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, representing Mr. Watt here. BY MR. PARKER: Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you a couple of questions about some hotline complaints that have come in over the course of the last several	5000	Fay Law Group, PLLC	4	was called as a witness by counsel for the
7 Washington, DC 20036 8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	100		-5	FHFA-Office of the Inspector General, and having been
8 (202) 263-4604 9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 10			6	duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and
9 Rfay@faylawdc.com 9 BY MR. PARKER: 10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several			7
10 Q. Mr. Watt, good afternoon. I'm Rich 11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	12.04		8
11 Parker, I'm the Deputy Inspector General for 12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several		Rfay@faylawdc.com	9	BY MR. PARKER:
12 Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is 13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	10		10
13 Angela Choy to my right, the Assistant Inspector 14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	11		11	and the state of t
14 General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do 15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	12		12	Investigations at FHFA, your agency. And this is
15 you want to enter your appearance on the record? 16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	13		0.000
16 MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray, 17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	14		14	General for Evaluation. You know us both. Sir, do
17 representing Mr. Watt here. 18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	15		15
18 BY MR. PARKER: 19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	16		16	MR. FAY: My name is Raymond Ray,
19 Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you 20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	17		17	representing Mr. Watt here.
20 a couple of questions about some hotline complaints 21 that have come in over the course of the last several	18		18	BY MR. PARKER:
21 that have come in over the course of the last several	19		19	Q. So, Mr. Watt, we're here today to ask you and have come in over the course of the last several	20		20	a couple of questions about some hotline complaints
22 months concerning the creation of an executive	21		21	that have come in over the course of the last several
	22		22	months concerning the creation of an executive

Page 6

- 1 position in the Office of the Chief Operating
- 2 Officer, and allegations concerning how that position
- 3 was established and filled. I've discussed that with
- 4 your counsel, Mr. Fay, and if there's no reason you
- 5 can think of we shouldn't go forward, then I'm just
- 6 going to ask you a couple of questions and then turn
- 7 it over to Angela. Okay?
- 8 A. Okay.
- 9 Q. Sir, I'm going to show you what we're
- 10 going to mark as Exhibit Number 1. I have a copy for
- 11 Mr. Fay as well, sliding it over to you, Mr. Watt.
- 12 And I'm going to give this to the court reporter.
- MR. PARKER: Can you mark this as Number
- 14 1, please, ma'am.
- 15 (Exhibit No. 1 was marked for
- 16 identification.)
- 17 BY MR. PARKER:
- 18 Q. Sir, what we have there is a document that
- 19 is signed by you at the bottom, 7-14-2017. If you
- 20 would please take a moment and examine that for me
- 21 and tell me if it looks familiar to you, please, sir.
- 22 A. Yes.

Page 7

- Q. Thank you, sir. Is Exhibit No. 1 the
- 2 record of your decision to establish a new executive
- 3 position in the Office of the Chief Operating
- 4 Officer?
- 5 A. It is, yes.
- 6 Q. Does it contain all of your reasons for
- 7 establishing that position, sir?
- 8 A. I don't know that it contains all of them.
- 9 Q. Can you take a look at it and tell me
- 10 which ones are missing?
- 11 A. I mean, I couldn't do that quickly, but
- 12 this is a -- was prepared by other people.
- 13 Q. Is that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) sir?
- 14 A. I don't know exactly who prepared it. It
- 15 came to me via (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) yeah.
- Q. Did (b)(6);(b)(7)(C describe the document to
- 17 you, sir?
- 18 A. Yes, sir. Yes. And I reviewed it at the
- 19 time, yeah.
- Q. What did he say it was, sir?
- 21 A. He said it was his position description.
- Q. Did he say it was his recommendation to

- 1 establish a new executive position in the Office of
- 2 the Chief Operating Officer?
- A. I'm sure he did, yes, sir.
- 4 Q. Can you tell me, please, sir, when he
- 5 delivered it to you?
- 6 A. I don't know that I can tell you that
- 7 other than that the date that I signed it was
- 8 7-14-2017. I'm pretty sure it would have been at
- 9 some point prior to that, but I don't know how far in
- 10 advance of that he would have given it to me.
- 11 Q. Did (b)(6);(b)(7)(hand it to you, sir, or
- 12 did you get it through routing or something?
- A. I don't recall. I don't have any
- 14 recollection of it. What normally happens is it
- 15 comes through a red folder process or a folder
- 16 process. Seldom does somebody just hand it to me
- 17 directly, but I couldn't rule that out.
- 18 Q. This signature above yours on the first
- 19 page of what has been marked as Exhibit No. 1, do you
- 20 recognize it, sir? And whose signature does it
- 21 appear to be?
- 22 A. I'm assuming that's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Page 9

- 1 (b)(6);(b)(signature, but I don't --
- Q. And the date next to his signature is the
- 3 11th of July and the date next to yours is the 14th
- 4 of July?
- 5 A. Yes, so it's possible he could have
- 6 delivered it to me on the 11th of July.
- 7 Q. Okay. Did you receive a recommendation
- 8 concerning how to manage the PMO, the Project
- 9 Management Office, upon its transition from DOC to
- 10 OCOO from the PMRC?
- 11 A. No. No. I don't get recommendations from
- 12 the PMRC, it is a collaboration tool, it is not an
- 13 advice tool. They meet -- they try to reconcile
- 14 differences, if there are differences. I get the
- 15 minutes sometimes two or three weeks after the PMRC
- 16 met.
- 17 Q. Do you know if the establishing of this
- 18 executive position was discussed at the PMRC, if so,
- 19 did you see the minutes?
- 20 A. I don't recall. But if it was discussed
- 21 at the PMRC I would have gotten the minutes. Not
- 22 real minutes, but kind of a brief report from a

	- 135.0
Page 1	0

- 1 scribner because PMRC is a less formal body than some
- 2 of the bodies in our organization.
- Q. I assume that before you decided to
- 4 establish the position, based upon Exhibit No. 1, you
- 5 talked about it with other people, the possibilities
- 6 of how to handle PMO when it moved into OCOO. Did
- 7 you have any conversations with anyone other than (b)(
- (b)(6);(b) before you made your decision?
- A. Not about the management of PMO after it
- 10 was in.
- Q. I'm sorry, sir, I don't understand. What
- 12 do you mean by the management of PMO?
- A. I thought that was the question you asked.
- 14 Q. How would PMO be managed? Did you -- I
- 15 mean, there were a number of ways to do it, according
- 16 to Exhibit No. 1, did you discuss with anyone other
- 17 than (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) how that should occur -- how the
- 18 management should occur?
- 19 A. I don't recall that I did. I can tell you
- 20 that the decision to move the PMO office out of DOC
- 21 to the chief operating officer's jurisdiction had
- 22 been basically a two-year process, and there's

Page 11

- 1 substantial documentation of that. When I got here
- 2 in 2014, we thought there were actually two offices
- 3 that were probably misplaced in our agency, one of
- 4 them -- after some period of time, and just kind of
- 5 feeling our way around. One of them was the project
- 6 management office, the other one was the compensation
- 7 office.
- 8 And the reason we thought they were
- 9 misplaced is that they were in -- they were in one
- 10 particular branch of the organization, and they
- 11 served the entirety of the organization. And so the
- 12 thought process about changing PMO out of the DOC to
- 13 put it somewhere that was more universally accessible
- 14 to all parts of the agency started as -- probably as
- 15 early as early 2015.
- And then in 2000 -- in either 2016 or
- 17 2017, we actually put it on a priority -- the
- 18 executive -- my direct reports, what I call my
- 19 executive team, did a priority listing, which would
- 20 be available in our records. And it was put on a
- 21 priority list to move it. It had nothing to do with
- 22 anything other than it being the PMO office.

- And then throughout, I think, '15, '16,
- 2 '17, my recollection is that it actually was not
- 3 formally moved until -- we made the decision to move
- 4 the PMO office in the first quarter of 2017. And
- 5 then -- so it would have been on our priority list in
- 6 2017 -- in 2016, and actually in 2017.
 - Q. So after it was agreed to move it, the PMO
- 8 to OCOO, it became (b)(6);(job to recommend to you
- 9 how to manage it, right?
- 10 A. Well, he wouldn't have recommended it to
- 11 me. He would have started managing it. And I don't
- 12 know that I would have been really involved in a
- 13 conversation about how to manage it. At some point
- 14 he decided that it made sense to consolidate PMO with
- 15 I think our quality assurance office, and at that
- 16 point we had a discussion about that.
- 17 But the actual management of the PMO
- 18 office would have been totally within his
- 19 jurisdiction, because just like it was in DOC's
- 20 jurisdiction when it was in DOC, it would have been
- 21 under (b)(6);(b)(7)(decisionmaking process, it would
- 22 have been under (b)(6);(b) decision-making process once

Page 13

- 1 it moved to OCOO.
- Q. So, okay. At some time did (b)(6)(b)(7)(C)
- 3 tell you that he was considering managing it by
- 4 creating another executive to serve in OCOO?
 - Yes, he did.
- 6 Q. Did you have a conversation with him about
- 7 that?

12

- 8 A. I'm pretty sure I had, yeah.
- 9 Q. Do you recall how many you had?
- 10 A. I don't recall that we had a lot.
- Q. More than three or less than three?
 - I don't have any real recollection, to be
- 13 quite honest. I mean, you know, there are a lot of
- 14 decisions we make here that I just -- I can't keep up
- with the number of conversations I have with people
- -- With the number of conversations I have with people
- 16 about --
- Q. But is it correct to say -- and correct me
- 18 if I'm wrong, but is it correct to say that you do
- 19 recall having at least one conversation with him
- 20 about that?
- 21 A. Yes.
- Q. And could you tell me where that

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

Washington, DC Page 5 (14 - 17) Page 14 Page 16 1 conversation took place and who else was present, 1 (b)(6);(b)(7)(yeah, within his organization. 2 sir? That sounds like(b)(6);(b A. It probably would have taken place in my A. That sounds exactly like (b)(6); (And he is 3 4 office at a regular -- I mean, I meet with every one very methodical in the way he approaches things. 5 of my direct reports -- I meet with on a regular Q. So the people under him in OCOO with whom basis every other week, sometimes with other people. 6 he -- (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) socialized the proper way 7 But when it comes to this (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to manage PMO in OCOO would have been (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) there's no -- generally nobody else other than me and in the Office of Technology and Information (b)(6);(b)(Management, (b)(6);(b)(7)(and(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)n the Q. I see. When he came to talk to you, sir, 10 10 Office of Budget and Finance Management, (b)(6);(b)(7)((b)(6); in OFAC, and (b)(6);(b)(7)(in the Office of 11 at the conversation you recall, did he bring with him some notes? Human Resource Management. Yes? 12 13 A. I don't know what he brought with him to 13 A. Well, those are people under his direct --14 be quite honest. I mean, those are people that report to (b)(6);(14 15 Q. Okay. 15 directly. But I can't confirm or deny or refute who 16 A. I have on my list here that (b)(6),(b) 16 he talked to among those. He may have talked to 17 completed the decision, Re: The reorganization of people other than them, I don't know the answer to PMO and quality assurance on July 11, 2017, but --18 that 19 That's the date --19 Okay. So what did he tell you he got as 20 That is actually -- so that would have 20 feedback from the people in OCOO, even though he 21 been the date that it was formally presented to me, 21 didn't -- you don't recall him naming them? What did 22 but there were probably some conversations prior to 22 he say the feedback was? Page 15 Page 17 1 that time leading to that. 1 He said that there were people who had 2 Q. And you recall at least one of them, yes? 2 (b)(5)3 A. Yes. 3 Q. And when you say formally presented to 4 5 you, so formally presented means that you got what 5 6 has been marked as Exhibit No. 1? 6 A. Yes. Did(b)(6), tell you his thoughts on doing 7 Q. And this Exhibit No. 1 represents the 8 that, on putting the PMO and OQA under OBFM or OTIM? record upon which you made your decision. Is that I don't recall specifically him telling me

- 10 right?
- 11 A. Yes.
- 12 And when you made your conversation with
- 13 (b)(6);(do you recall whether or not he told you that
- 14 he had solicited from individual stakeholders their
- 15 input on how to manage PMO within the Office of the
- 16 Chief Operating Officer?
- 17 A. Yes. He told me that he - I think he - used the word, (b)(6);(b)(7)(by going to various
- 19 people in OCOO to talk to them about it, and that
- 20 he that various people wanted PMO under them as
- opposed to what he ended up doing. 21
- 22 So, yeah, he -- I think he used the word

- 10 that, but he could have. I don't just recall.
- 11 Q. What do you recall him saying about
- 12 placing OTIM in OQA under one of the other
- 13 directorates in his OCOO organization?
- 14 A. I think I told him at one point, look,
- 15 this is your decision, and whatever decision you make
- 16 you should make it the way you always make decisions.
- 17 in the same (b)(6);(b)(7) way that you approach things.
- 18 And you should document it because -- and the
- 19 documentation was less about any controversy about
- 20 it, the documentation had to do with the fact that
- 21 we -- that I basically had said we're not creating
- 22 any new executive level positions without a

Page	10
Page	1.0

- 1 compelling case.
- When I got here the agency was very top
- 3 heavy. And as a result of people coming from
- 4 different agencies into FHFA, it was a conglomeration
- 5 of people, and nobody who had been an executive level
- 6 person had been demoted or shuttered aside. So you
- 7 had all of these people who were executive level
- 8 people who probably, if you were starting an
- 9 organization from ground up, wouldn't have existed.
- So there was a disproportionate level of
- 11 people in management or executive level positions as
- 12 opposed to grades, you know, up to 15, that were not
- 13 executive level positions.
- 14 Q. You took some decisive action on that,
- 15 didn't you, sir?
- 16 A. He took --
- 17 Q. You did. You took some decisive action?
- 18 A. I took some decisive action. And so I
- 19 said, no creation of any new executive positions
- 20 without a compelling case. And then I reinforced
- 21 that, because after President Trump came into office
- 22 he sent out this thing basically saying, you know, go

17

- 1 and make a review of everything -- of your
- 2 organization, and if you find any inefficiencies, you
- 3 know, address them. So at that point I sent out
- 4 something to all of my managers saying -- and as part
- 5 of the budget process they sent out something at my
- 6 direction, saying, if you are contemplating creating
- 7 a new executive position, you need to justify it, and
- 8 justify it aggressively.
- 9 Q. You also amended order number four to make
- 10 certain that you had control over that, didn't you,
- 11 sir? I'm handing you now what is going to be marked
- 12 as Exhibit Number 2. It's an order that you created
- 13 which ensures that you have total control over the --
- 14 I gave a copy to him, I only brought one copy, Mr.
- 15 Fay -- under that order, sir, I believe it says that
- 16 you retain authority to promote executives and that
- 17 you didn't delegate it. Is that right?
- 18 A. I don't know exactly what it says. I
- 19 mean, it says what it says. I mean, I did sign it
- 20 and I think the primary provocation for this was the
- 21 President's executive order, I believe.
- Q. That's why I gave it to you.

1 A. If I recall. But, I mean, I don't know

- 2 exactly what it says because I haven't reviewed it
- 3 probably since I signed it.
- 4 Q. Okay, sir.
- 5 A. To be quite honest.
- 6 Q. Let's go back to 2014 and 2015. You
- 7 actually authorized a buy-out to reduce the
- 8 executive -- the EL-15 ranks, didn't you?
- 9 A. Yes.
- Q. And according to the HR department with
- 11 whom you spoke as late as yesterday, you were able to
- 12 reduce the executive ranks by 7 LLs, and you were
- 13 able to reduce the EL-15 ranks by seven, at the cost
- 14 of about $3.39 million. Does that sound right?
- 15 A. I'm sure I've got those numbers at some
- 16 point, but I don't have any independent recollection.
 - Q. It was successful at reducing the
- 18 executive ranks as you just told us?
- 19 A. It was modestly successful, yes.
- 20 Q. Since that time though, the HR --
- 21 A. I would alert you, though, that a primary
- 22 motivation of the buy-out was less about reducing the

Page 21

- 1 executive level positions than the political
- 2 realities that had -- that surrounded my
- 3 confirmation.
- 4 A lot of people had different notions
- 5 about who I was as a who I would be as a director.
- 6 And I didn't want anybody to feel like they were
- 7 captive to this organization. So we created a
- 8 buy-out opportunity for people who felt they would
- 9 rather leave than be managed by me. And that was one
- 10 of the primary motivations, as much as reducing the
- 11 management level positions.
- Now, it probably wasn't justified quite
- 13 like that in the write-ups about it, but that was
- 14 certainly part of my motivation for it.
- 15 Q. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was your (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 16 (b)(6),(back in 2014 when you authorized the buy-out?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. (b)(6)(b)(7)(sent out a memorandum to
- 19 announce the buy-out, and I'm going to show you that
- 20 to you in just a moment. I'm going to mark for you
- 21 the third line -- I'm going to read it now and give
- 22 it to you to read, sir. It says: Given the

- 1 organizational issues that had to be addressed when
- 2 FHFA was created, the agency's leadership staffing
- 3 ratios was disproportionately higher than the general
- 4 benchmark for other agencies of our size. That seems
- 5 to me to be a reason to have a buy-out.
- 6 A. Yeah, well, that's consistent with what
- 7 I'm saying. But I'm telling you that aside from that
- 8 document, I mean, normally when you're writing a
- 9 document like that you're not going to put what I
- 10 just -- the kind of considerations that I just
- 11 described to you. And this is about -- this is about
- 12 trying to create the whole frame. So I don't -- you
- 13 know, I'm clear that that was one of the
- 14 justifications that was given. And I don't know how
- 15 the other justification was handled, but I know that
- 16 that was general knowledge that everybody in the
- 17 organization had. I mean, because, I mean, one of
- 18 the concerns I had was, I didn't like -- I don't like
- 19 unhappy employees, and this was an opportunity to
- 20 create an opportunity for people who wanted to get
- 21 out because they were either committed to the prior
- 22 director or felt uneasy about the fact that I was

Page 23

- becoming the director of the agency. And it happened
- 2 pretty quickly. You notice this is dated March 6,
- 3 2014.
- 4 Q. Yes, sir, it is.
- A. And I just started as the director on
- 6 January 6th of 2014.
- 7 MR. PARKER: Will you mark that exhibit
- 8 next, please. Thank you very much.
- 9 (Exhibit No. 2 was marked for
- 10 identification.)
- Q. So that buy-out plus the high staffing
- 12 ratios, and what you mentioned was the number of
- 13 executives because of the merging of the two
- 14 agencies, created in your mind the requirement to
- 15 have a compelling case before you're going to make
- 16 new executives. That's what you said, isn't it?
- 17 A. Well, when you say in my mind, understand
- 18 that this -- the top heaviness existed before I got
- 19 here. Right? So that was in the mind of a lot of
- 20 people. I think my primary motivation, to be quite
- 21 honest, was the second motivation that probably is
- 2 not even reflected in that document because between

Page 24

- 1 January 6 of 2014, and March of whatever that date is
- 2 on that document, March 6, 2014, I mean, that's
- 3 basically 90 days -- January, February, March, yeah,
- 4 that's 60 days. So for me to have made that kind of
- 5 assessment that quickly lets you know that it wasn't
- 6 in my mind as much -- what was in my mind was, look,
- 7 all kinds of perceptions have been created about me
- 8 as the person coming in as the director of this
- 9 agency. I don't want unhappy employees, and this is
- 10 a good opportunity to allow anybody who felt like
- 11 they wanted to leave to do that. So that was my
- 12 primary motivation in my mind.
- 13 The memo I think was a reflection of ideas
- 14 that people had well before I got here.
- Q. Did you agree that the staffing ratios
- 16 were too high?
- 17 A. Obviously, this got sent out. I don't
- 18 know if I signed it.
- 19 Q. No, your (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 20 A. I think I approved it. I didn't think he
- 1 would have sent it out without me at least seeing it.
- 22 Q. And seven executives is, I think you said

Page 25

- 1 something to the effect of it's a good start, but
- 2 more was needed?
- 3 A. Well, it helped. But, again, I'm still at
- 4 that point assessing what the organization is going
- 5 to look like and trying to make some assessments
- 6 about it. I think the general perception has
- 7 continued that the agency is top heavy.
- 8 Q. Do you believe it's still top heavy?
- 9 A. Probably. But at the same time, if you've
- 10 got people in management level positions who are
- 11 misplaced and you need a management level position
- 12 that will enhance the effectiveness of the - organization, and you make a compelling case for it,
- 14 which is what the standard was that I set. This is
- 15 not the only executive level position that I think
- 16 has been created since I've been here, but every one
- 17 of them has been created with substantial
- 18 documentation and support. What I generally
- 19 characterize as a compelling basis for doing so.
- Q. Okay. So in Exhibit Number 1, which you
- 21 have a copy of in front of you, I'd like to ask you a
- 22 couple of questions.

	vv asimi	3001	8 1
1	Page 26 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) you mentioned a little while	1	Page 28 Q. You may be looking at Attachment 2, sir.
2		2	A. That's a different attachment. I thought
3		3	50 YOU PHILIPPING TO THE THE PRINT OF THE PR
4	A. No, wanted to manage PMO.	4	O. There are two attached to Exhibit 1.
5	Q. He didn't say anything about OQA?	5	A. Sorry, I looked at the wrong one. All
6	A. I don't think they were trying because		right. Yes, I see that now.
7	5/42/44049 V520 -055 - 32 -44	7	Q. So is it to your recollection, (b)(6)
8	1	8	(b)(6),(b) only discussed with you reluctance for his
9	TO THE CHAPTER AND THE THE THE THE THE CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY AND THE PRO	9	subordinate executives to manage PMO and not the
10		10	combination PMO/OQA?
11	SC CONTROL STORY CONTROL CONTR	11	A. My recollection is that that was the
12	manage PMO.	12	discussion.
13	Q. I have a very big poster here, which I'm	13	Q. Okay. But, you know, that's a you
14	going to describe for the record as the Office of the	14	20 00 VSS 10 E
15	Chief Operating Officer, a wire diagram, dated June	15	when we first started to talk that (b)(6) had talked
16	of 2017. It has an exhibit sticker on the bottom.	16	7807
17	MR. PARKER: You'll mark it next for me,	17	20 20 30 30 30 30 30 30 E
18	ma'am.	18	about that if you remember it.
19	(Exhibit No. 3 was marked for	19	 Yeah, but not in the context of his
20	identification.)	20	(b)(6);(b)(7)(with other people in the organization
21	BY MR. PARKER:	21	as I recall. He could have I mean, that could
22	Q. Why don't I put it over to you, sir, and	22	have been part of the discussion, but my recollection
	Page 27		Page 29
1	you can have a look at it. By the way, sir, it is an	1	was that the primary, quote, unquote, push-back he
2	attachment, Number 1 to Exhibit Number 1, which	2	had received was about where to put PMO. It
3	, see a see	3	wasn't it had little to do with quality assurance.
4	, and the decourage i	4	Q. Did any of the executives who worked for
5	wear glasses and I recommend that you wear glasses if	5	him, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
6	you're going to try to look at Exhibit No. 1. But I	6	did any of them recommend that (b)(6),(manage PMO by
1000	blew it up for you there.	7	creating a new executive?
8	A. I just started in July this is my first	8	A. I don't know the answer to that.
9	set of glasses.	9	Q. Did (b)(6); tell you any of them recommended
10	Q. God bless you, sir.	0/2-11	it?
11	A. It does help it helps me. First of all Attachment 1?	11	A. I don't recall that he did, but he could
12			have.
	Q. Can you tell me what executive is over OQA in that diagram, sir?	13	Q. Did he tell you he got push-back from them
15	Robert State Committee of the Committee	-5-	on doing that?
16	A. It says vacant at that point. Yeah. Which is probably well	15	A. I don't recall that he did.
17	Q. Actually, sir, the wire goes between chief	16	Q. What did he tell you that they advised?
18	operating officer, vacant, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	17	A. I don't know that he really went into a
19	straight down to the Office of Quality Assurance	18	lot of discussion about that because, you know, those
20	where (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) is? So it doesn't look like	19	are management decisions, kind of at a different
21	there's any officer	20	level, you know. I have a 30-minute meeting with my
22	A. Oh, I see.	11.0.00	direct reports, they're covering a lot of different
1	MADE STATES OF THE STATES OF T		issues. So I doubt that he got into that level of

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is edacted to protec their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

Page 30

- detail with me, but I couldn't swear that he didn't,
- 2 I just don't recall.
- Q. Well, at the meeting we're talking about
- 4 he was meeting to discuss with you whether or not to
- 5 create a new executive position, right?
 - I think he was floating different ideas.
- 7 He was considering different ideas. And my advice to
- (b)(6) was, look, make a decision that you think is in
- 9 the best interest of the organization, and support
- 10 it, if you're going to make a decision. And I would
- 11 have -- I think I probably would have supported any
- 12 decision that he made.
- Q. Did you tell him that? Did you tell him 13
- 14 you'd support whatever decision?
- 15 A. Probably not.
- 16 Q. Probably not?
- 17 A. Probably not. But certainly not
- 18 explicitly, I might have implicitly said that,
- because that's generally the way I deal with the
- people who report to me. I trust their judgment.
- And by that time, $\binom{(b)(6)}{(b)}$ had been in this $\binom{(b)(6)}{(b)}$
- 22 position for a long period of time. He had gotten

1 independent recollection of what you're saying, I 2 mean --

- - Q. I understood you -- I don't mean to cut
- 4 you off. I know we're pressed for time, so I'm just
- 5 trying to get some questions out, but if you want me
- 6 to stop, Mr. --
- A. I'm good.
- O. I'm a New Yorker.
- A. But at the point you're putting words in
- 10 my mouth --
- 11 I don't feel that way.
- 12 A. That I can either -- and generally I agree
- 13 with you. But if you're saying, do you have any
- 14 specific recollection of that, my answer is no,
- 15 because, you know -- I know we had discussions about
- 16 it. I know that he was considering that as one
- option. And I know that I said, look, you know, you
- have to make a decision about what you think is in
- the best interest of the organization, and you need 19
- to make that decision. You are the (b)(6):(b)(
- 21 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 22

Page 31

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)every year, and I

2 was trying to get him to take the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

1

- You know, that's just the way I
- manage. I'm not a micromanager from an organization
- or personnel perspective.
- (b)(6) came to meet with you, I understand,
- you recall once, about the matter which is contained
- 8 in Exhibit 1?
- 9 I recall at least once.
- Q. Yes, sir, at least one. Pardon me. And
- 11 that conversation was about whether or not he was - going to recommend to you the creation of an
- executive position to manage PMO in your
- 14 organization. Is that correct?
- 15 That's correct.
- 16 Q. And he discussed with you the fact that he
- 17 (b)(6) (b)(7) that idea, his word, not ours, with the
- 18 people that worked for him, the executives. Yes?
- 19 A. That is probably a general summary of what
- 20 happened, but --
- 21 Q. Feel free to answer it, sir.
- 22 A. I can't add to it because I don't have any

- 1 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 3
 - A. No. I just -- I got the feeling that the
- 5 whole process was stretching out longer than it
- 6 needed to.
- Q. How so?
- Because, I mean, we had moved the PMO
- office, and we had been talking about moving the PMO
- 10 office for a long, long period of time. And we had
- 11 moved to PMO office, I thought. And I just said, you
- 12 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 13 14
 - What did he tell you he was going to do?
- 15 A. Well, he didn't tell me anything until I
- 16 got this memo in July of 2017.
- 17 Q. So at his meeting with you he never .
- 18 discussed with you his options?
- 19 A. He did discuss options, but --
- 20 Q. Can you tell me what he said, please.
- 21 I don't have any recollection of specific
- 22 words that he used. I just know that he was looking

Washington, DC Page 34 1 at options. Where do you put PMO? Do you 1 an executive position she wanted to apply for, I 2 consolidate it with somebody else? Do you create an 2 think you'd remember that. 3 executive level position? And my response to him is, MR. FAY: There's no question pending. look, these are decisions within your control, at 4 He's making a statement. least in terms of recommending them, and you need to BY MR. PARKER: do what you think is in the best interest of the Q. Doesn't it seem odd to you? 7 organization. It doesn't seem odd to me at all, I'm Q. What you did he tell you was in the best 8 8 sorry. interest of the organization at that meeting, if you 9 9 Okay. O. recall? 10 You know, you're trying to conjure up 10 A. Well, when he gave me this, then I knew 11 11 something that doesn't exist. what he had decided was in the best interest of the 12 12 Q. I have a good faith basis for the organization. 13 13 question. We both know what that means. Q. Did he also tell you that he (b)(6);(b)(7)(C 14 14 MR. FAY: You're making more statements. his options with customers of OCOO like DHMG and DER? 15 15 I thought you were going to ask some questions. A. I don't recall that he said that to me, 16 16 MR. PARKER: I can ask questions. but he could have, I just don't recall. 17 17 MR. FAY: Okay. Q. Did he tell you that he sought input from 18 18 THE WITNESS: Am I finished with that? (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and Simone Grimes on that decision 19 19 MR. PARKER: She can roll it up. because they would be affected by it? (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) 20 20 MR. FAY: I'll roll it up. being an OQA and Simone Grimes being in PMO? 21 MR. PARKER: Thank you. I don't recall that he said that, but it's 22 22 BY MR. PARKER: Page 37 Page 35 1 possible that he could have. Q. I'm going to ask a specific question to Do you recall whether or not he told you 2 make the record clear. Do you have any recollection 3 of (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) elling you that one of the options 3 that Simone Grimes told him that if he, (b)(6),(didn't 4 that he was considering was elevating (b)(6);(b)(recommend creating a new executive position, that (b)(6),(b)(from under(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) she, Simone Grimes, would tell you about that? putting her 6 directly under him and having OQA and PMO report to He definitely didn't tell me that because 7 I would have remembered that. Q. Did she come to see you about the creation I don't have any recollection of him of the executive position after she thought (b)(6);(9 telling me that. 10 (b)(6);(b)(wouldn't create it? Q. Would that be a viable option, though, in 10 11 I don't think so. 11 your opinion? 12 She didn't --12 A. I have no idea what he would have Q. 13 I don't recall. 13 considered a viable option. 14 Q. She didn't come into your office and tell Q. Do you think it might be a viable option? 14 15 you about that? 15 I have no idea because I don't manage at 16 I don't have any recollection that she 16 that level, I'm sorry. 17 did, but it's possible that she did, I just don't 17 Q. And so for that same reason that you don't 18 have any recollection of it. 18 manage at that level, you don't have any opinion on 19 Q. Well, it seems -- please pardon me, but it whether it would be a good idea to put OQA and PMO 20 seems odd to me that as a director of an agency and a 20 under OTIM? nonexecutive comes into your office and tells you A. I wouldn't have any opinion independent of 22 that she's upset that someone is not going to create 22 somebody making a recommendation to me, and I

Page 11 (38 - 41) Page 38 Page 40 1 certainly wouldn't have gone down at that level and establish an LL in OCOO, did (b)(6);(b)(7) tell you that 2 made that decision myself. 2 she made this clear to him on numerous occasions as O. If (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) made that recommendation well, that she wanted to be an executive? should he have given it serious A. I don't recall that he told me that, but consideration? 5 he could have, yeah. Q. Do you recall what (b)(6);(b)(7)(A. I'm assuming if he made the recommendation to him, he probably did give it the consideration to what her potential to serve as an executive was, 8 that he thought it was due. But I can't say that he 8 sir? should have or shouldn't have or what weight he 9 I think everybody in our agency who dealt 10 should have given the recommendation if he got that with Ms. Grimes viewed her qualifications as being --11 recommendation, because I just don't -- there are 11 she had done an exceptionally good job as the head of things down in the organization -- I manage the 12 12 PMO, and people thought highly of her skill set. But people who directly report to me and have little 13 beyond that, I don't know what else I could say about 14 direct management relations with the people below 14 it. 15 15 Q. I kind of wanted to know if (b)(6),(b)(7 told Q. Do you recall if $\binom{(b)(6)}{(b)(7)}$ told you that the 16 you that she had potential to serve as an executive? 16 17 creation of a new executive position would create an A. I don't think he -- he may have. I don't 17 opportunity for appointing a new minority female to 18 know. I don't have any recollection that he said it 19 an executive position because (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) and 19 in that way, but I think it was general knowledge Simone Grimes were good candidates for the executive 20 that Ms. Grimes was one of the people in the agency position in OCOO that he recommended? 21 who had -- who had good skills and should be 22 I don't recall that he said that, but he 22 considered if an executive level position ever got Page 39 Page 41 1 could have. 1 created. Q. Would that be a good reason to create it Q. No matter what words he might have used, 3 in your mind? 3 what was (b)(6)(b)(7)(ppinion of her potential to serve A. It wouldn't be a compelling reason to 4 as an executive when he expressed that to you, if he 5 create an executive position, it would be one of the expressed that to you? 6 factors that one might consider because we also are A. I don't recall that he had an opinion 7 trying to accomplish some additional objectives 7 about her as an executive. He was expressing an 8 diversifying management, and EEOC has been pushing us 8 opinion that she was doing good work, and I think to do that. 9 that was a universally acknowledged thing. And I was 10 Q. Yes. Before you decided to accept (b)(6); 10 observing it because she was the point person on an 11(b)(6);(b)(7 recommendation and create the new 11 in number of things within DOC that came to the 12 executive position in OCOO, was it made clear to you conservatorship committee. 13 that Simone Grimes wanted to be an executive in this 13 So, I mean, I don't think you'll find 14 agency? 14 anybody in the agency who didn't think that she was 15 A. She had made it clear to me for a long 15 a, quote, unquote, rising star, so the speak, in the 16 period of time, yes. 16 agency. Q. On what occasions did that occur, sir? 17 17 Q. So you had contact with her in the context 18 Multiple occasions. of the conservatorship committee, is that right? 18 19 Q. Over what period of time, sir? 19 A. Yes. 20 A. Probably starting some time in late 2014 20 Q. And did you have occasion to form an 21 or early 2015. 21 opinion about her potential to serve as an executive?

22

And prior to making your decision to 22

I don't know that I have an opinion about

Page 42

- her potential to serve as an executive because that
- 2 is a process -- nobody gets appointed as an executive
- 3 without going through a competitive process, you
- 4 know. Anybody who gets an executive level position
- 5 has to go through a competitive process.
- 6 Q. Right. Did you form an opinion about her
- 7 potential to serve as an executive, or you didn't?
- 8 A. I don't know that I had an opinion one way
- 9 or the other. I just thought that she was
- 10 well-qualified at what she was doing.
- Q. Did (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) ever tell you that he
- 12 thought Simone Grimes had potential to serve as an
- 13 executive?
- 14 A. I don't recall that he did, but that's
- 15 quite possible that he did.
- Q. Well, if he had said that, would that have
- 17 counted for you? Would you have taken that into
- 18 consideration?
- 19 A. Why would I be taking it into
- 20 consideration? Unless there was an executive
- 21 position that she was bidding for, she was going to
- 22 have to go through a competitive --

knew she wanted to be an executive, and $\binom{(b)(6),(b)}{7 \lor (c)}$

9 having a career progression path discussion with you.

Q. I thought you just told me that everybody

- a ving a career progression pain discussion with you
- 10 That didn't include her becoming an executive, that

1 conversations, but I think he thought highly of Ms.

2 Grimes' skill set, and he was trying to figure out

3 how to advance her if he could. But, again, that's

4 different than getting an executive level position without going through a competitive process.

because nobody gets an executive level position

- 11 discussion?
- 12 A. Well, not -- because without a position,
- 13 he wouldn't have had that discussion with me. Now,
- 14 if he was contemplating a creation of a new executive
- 15 position, I think he would have had that discussion.
- 16 But I don't recall ever having that a discussion
- 17 about creating an executive level position for her.
- Q. Did (b)(6)(b)(7)(ever have a discussion
- 19 with you about creating a career advancement plan for
- 20 Ms. Grimes and his desire to help her do that?
- A. I don't have any recollection that he did.
 - MR. PARKER: Would it be all right if we

Page 4:

- 1 O. Well, I meant in taking into consideration
- 2 in forming your own opinion about her potential to
- 3 serve as an executive?
- 4 A. I would have taken any of my direct
- 5 reports' opinion about people into account, yes. I
- 6 took many, many opinions into account in deciding who
- 7 I should appoint as the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 8 (b)(6);(1 mean, you know, 1 probably (b)(6);(b)(7)(
- 9 that to the point that, you know -- because, you
- 10 know, it was -- that is a critical position. And so,
- 11 you know, I'm -- and I do have the reputation of
- 12 taking people's opinions into account.
- Q. Did Ms. Grimes ever tell you that she
- 14 would apply for an executive position if OCOO -- if
- 15 you approved it?
- 16 A. I don't recall that she did, but I
- 17 probably assumed that she would.
- Q. Did (b)(6);(b)(and/or -- did (b)(6);(b)(ever
- 19 tell you that he was trying to determine a career
- 20 advancement path for Ms. Grimes?
- A. Yeah, we had some conversations about
- 22 that, I don't remember the specific content of the 1 took a break, sir?

22

- 2 MR. FAY: Sure.
- 3 MR. PARKER: I appreciate it.
- 4 (Recess.)
- 5 BY MR. PARKER:
- Q. Mr. Watt, I want to direct your attention,
- 7 after this break, to your conversation with (b)(6)
- 8 (b)(6);(b) concerning the options for managing PMO on
- 9 its transfer to OCOO from DOC.
- 10 Do you recall any feedback you might have
- 11 given him during your conversation?
- 12 A. (b)(5)
- 13 (b)(5) You know, being a manager and a head of a
- 14 division requires people to make decisions. And
- 15 while it's important to listen to input from various
- 16 sources to make sure that you make the right
- 17 decision, you also have an obligation to make a
- 18 decision. And so, you know, I think that the primary
- 19 advice I was giving him -- or gave him on at least
- 20 one or two occasions.
- Q. So there's -- do you remember more than
- 22 one conversation with him about this?

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

	Page 46		Page 48
1	in thousand more than one. I that, you know, not	1	operate kind of varies from division to division to
2	acoust one position, but I mean, if	2	division, based on what their responsibilities are.
3	you go back and look at (b)(6);(b)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	3	I'm very hands-off I shouldn't say hands-off. But
4	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	4	I'm cognizant of what goes on in the regulatory side,
5		5	but I never tried to influence a rating for one of
6		6	the regulated entities, for example.
7	4	7	Again, I get all of the exam reports, I
8		8	review them, I question them sometimes about, you
9		9	know, how did you get to this result. But I have
10		10	never so, you know, I don't have a vision about
11		11	how to how the examination or regulatory side
12		12	ought to reach decisions about how they rate our
13		13	regulated entities, for example.
14		14	So that is why I was hedging why I was
15		15	hesitating a little bit, because depending on which
16	2	16	division you're talking about, my vision would be
17		17	more pronounced or less pronounced.
18	Q. Does being a good manager require you to	18	Q. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
19	get your subordinates to effectuate your vision for	19	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
20	the organization?	20
21	A. At some level, yes.	21
22	Q. Does it require you to get your	22
	Page 47
1	subordinate managers to do what you want them to do	1
2	in the way you want them to do it?	2
3	A. No. It I requires them to give me their	3
4	honest input and approach things in a thoughtful way,	4
5	but not to drag them out forever. And probably in	5	Q- (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
6	the OCOO space, my vision of the organization, you	6	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
7	know, this is about managing the organization and	7
8	getting things done. It's not about policy	8
9	decisions, such as DHMG, for example, would be making	9
10	policy decisions. DOC would be making policy	10
11	decisions for the enterprises while they are in	11
12	conservatorship.	12	Q. Would you be surprised to learn that one
13	My vision about that is more pronounced	13	of the reasons that (b)(6); decided not to (b)(6);(
14	than it is about personnel and operational issues	14	(b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
15	that would be under the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	15	•
16	mean, I'm not going down and tell people how to run	16	•
17	the parking lot, for example, or how to do parking.	17
18	I mean, you know, I'm generally aware of it. I have	18	A. I don't know that I would be surprised or
19	to participate in it and go through the process they	19	not surprised. I mean, none of this was within my
20	set up.	20	knowledge before you just said it.
21	So that's why I hesitated a little bit	21	Q. Sq(b)(6);(didn't tell you that?
22	because my vision of how the organization ought to	22	A. No.
	111 0	5 35 B

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

Page 50	Page 52
1 Q. And (b)(6); (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	1 don't see any numbers.
2 (b)(5),(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)	2 MR. PARKER: Yeah. Top of the
3	³ right-hand, July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3.
4	4 MR. FAY: 1 know, but it says Page 2 of 3,
5	5 and the next page is a chart. Page 3 of 3 is not
A. I don't recall that PMO needed any	6 here.
7 (b)(5);(b)(because with our executive team, we had	7 THE WITNESS: What are you all talking
8 pretty much made it clear that PMO was going to serve	8 about?
9 the whole enterprise. In fact, one of the	9 MR. FAY: He's talking about a page —
10 (b)(5)	MR. PARKER: We may have had a photocopy
11	11 problem here. I'm sorry, Mr. Watt.
12	12 THE WITNESS: Okay. You're talking about
13 (b)(5) We	13 (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
14 had a PMO office. And so but, you know, there was	MR. PARKER: No, no, no.
15 this view if it's in DOC, it serves only DOC. And	MR. FAY: This is the page you don't
16 that was not so that would be the only reason that	16 have. Let him show it to you.
17 you would be trying to get more visibility for it	17 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
18 that I could think of.	MR. PARKER: I apologize for that.
 Q. What reason is that again to get more 	19 THE WITNESS: What is this a part of?
20 visibility? I thought I just heard you say that the	20 BY MR. PARKER:
21 decision had been made by the executives to place PMO	21 Q. It's the last page in (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
22 in OCOO and that would give it the visibility it	22 memorandum.
Page 51	Page 53
1 needed. Is that right?	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of needed. Is that right? A. That would be the only reason I could	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What
needed. Is that right? A. That would be the only reason I could think of that anybody would be talking about giving	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
needed. Is that right? A. That would be the only reason I could think of that anybody would be talking about giving it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Inne are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second
needed. Is that right? A. That would be the only reason I could think of that anybody would be talking about giving it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that it was available to the entire organization.	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Iine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from
needed. Is that right? A. That would be the only reason I could think of that anybody would be talking about giving it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that it was available to the entire organization. Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6); to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(L)(1/2) told you about, was to	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6); to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) told you about, was to	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6); to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings,
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5)	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6); to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings, 9 stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(1-x)(7)/(1-x)(7) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings, 9 stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for 10 each alternative.
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)(6)(6)(1)(6)(6)(6)(1)(6)(6)(1)(6)(6)(1	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings, 9 stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for 10 each alternative. 11 A. Okay. I see that.
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(b)(7)/(c)(7) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is,	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings, 9 stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for 10 each alternative. 11 A. Okay. I see that. 12 Q. What alternatives is he talking about?
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Ine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(b)(7)/(c)(1) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't	1 A. Right before you get to the memorandum of 2 (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What 3 line are you directing me to? 4 Q. The second paragraph. The second 5 sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from 6 (b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that 7 memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during 8 several of our recent one-on-one meetings, 9 stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for 10 each alternative. 11 A. Okay. I see that. 12 Q. What alternatives is he talking about? 13 A. I really don't have any recollection of 14 what he would have been talking about, to be quite
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it.	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Ine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest.
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(b)(7)/(c)(1) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Iine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter 17 portion of Exhibit Number 1. It's on the top	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Ine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6); to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which is the administrative record upon which you made your
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter 17 portion of Exhibit Number 1. It's on the top 18 right-hand corner are the words Page 3 of 3.	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Iline are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which is the administrative record upon which you made your decision? Any alternatives discussion?
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6)/(x,x,r) told you about, was to 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter 17 portion of Exhibit Number 1. It's on the top 18 right-hand corner are the words Page 3 of 3. 19 A. What is Exhibit No. 1, I'm sorry.	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Ine are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for ach alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which is the administrative record upon which you made your decision? Any alternatives discussion? A. That would require me having to read all
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter 17 portion of Exhibit Number 1. It's on the top 18 right-hand corner are the words Page 3 of 3. 19 A. What is Exhibit No. 1, I'm sorry.	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Iline are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which is the administrative record upon which you made your decision? Any alternatives discussion? A. That would require me having to read all the way through it. I don't recall what is in this
1 needed. Is that right? 2 A. That would be the only reason I could 3 think of that anybody would be talking about giving 4 it visibility to make sure that everybody knew that 5 it was available to the entire organization. 6 Q. Was one of the reasons for establishing an 7 executive position, that (b)(6) 8 (b)(5) 9 10 A. I don't recall that we had that 11 discussion, but it may have been. Unless it's 12 reflected in this document, which I doubt that it is, 13 it would have been a discussion, which I don't have 14 any recollection of. But I'm not saying it didn't 15 happen, I just don't have a recollection of it. 16 Q. Can you turn to page 3 in the letter 17 portion of Exhibit Number 1. It's on the top 18 right-hand corner are the words Page 3 of 3. 19 A. What is Exhibit No. 1, I'm sorry. 20 Q. It's the administrative record that you	A. Right before you get to the memorandum of [b)(6)(b)(7)(C) Is that what you're saying? What Iline are you directing me to? Q. The second paragraph. The second sentence. This is a letter a memorandum from [b)(6) to you dated July 11, 2017, Page 3 of 3 of that memorandum, second paragraph. As we discussed during several of our recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder suggestions revealed pros and cons for each alternative. A. Okay. I see that. Q. What alternatives is he talking about? A. I really don't have any recollection of what he would have been talking about, to be quite honest. Q. Can you find in this document, sir, which is the administrative record upon which you made your decision? Any alternatives discussion? A. That would require me having to read all the way through it. I don't recall what is in this

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

	Page 54	Page 56
1	Q. Perhaps if you take a look at it it will	1 to read the memo at this point. Is this a document
2	refresh your recollection, sir.	2 that I can mark?
3	A. Okay.	3 Q. Sure, sir.
4	Q. Thank you.	4 A. Okay. All right. So if the question
5	A. Remind me again what the question is so as	5 is ask me the question again. I think I'm in a
6	I read it I can try to put in context what you're	6 position to answer it now.
7	asking.	7 Q. Which alternatives to these two appointing
8	Q. Sure. (b)(6);(b)(7)(has presenting options	8 an executive to OCOO does (b)(6);(b)(7)(lay out for
9	for the leadership of PMO within OCOO, that he's	9 you there?
	referencing discussions he had with you, and he's	10 (b)(5)
	talking about the pros and cons of those options, one	11
	of which is, of course, creating an executive?	12
13	A. Am I looking at the same document because	13
14	the document I'm looking at has no page numbers other	14
	than the one page?	15
16	MR. FAY: You want to look at the memo to	16
17	you from (b)(6):(and it's got three pages.	17
18	THE WITNESS: This is the (b)(6),(b)(memo	18 (b)(5) were fully explored
19	that you're talking about through (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	19 with stakeholders and given serious consideration.
20	This is from $(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)$ That's	20 As we discussed during several of our
21	the one that you want me to be reading. Okay. I'm	21 recent one-on-one meetings, stakeholder discussions reading the entirely wrong thing. Okay. Let me	22 reveal pros and cons of each alternative. After
-	Page 55	Page 57
1	now, I'm sorry, tell me again what the question was.	1 weighing these pros and cons on balance, I concluded
2	BY MR. PARKER:	2 that the best least disruptive alternative is to
3	Q. That's okay, I'll repeat it. I'm trying	3 request an additional executive position. While
4	to determine if (b)(6); has presented you with options	4 concurrently laying out a longer term view of a more for the leadership of PMO within OQA in this	5 optimal OCOO management structure that could evolve
1	administrative record upon which you made your	6 over time.
	decision to establish an executive?	7 So, I mean, I don't know that I got into a
8	A. I'm sorry. I missed the question.	8 discussion with him about the specific alternatives.
9	Q. Okay.	9 What I wanted to be what I think he was trying to
10	A. Tell me again what the question is.	10 make clear to me is that he had evaluated those
11	Q. Sure. Let's establish a few predicates	11 alternatives, and I certainly wasn't going back and
1	first. We established that this is the record upon	12 trying to reevaluate those alternatives. It was
13	which you made the decision to approve (b)(6);(b)(13 probably important to me that alternatives got
14	(A(C)	14 evaluated, clearly, but what those alternatives were,
15	A. Yes.	15 I didn't think I needed to have extensive discussion
16	Q. And within this record then, can you	16 about.
17		17 Q. Would you like no know what they were? We
18	put forward by (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to reach the decision
19	that appointing an executive was the best way to go?	18 interviewed (b)(6):(vesterday. Would you like to know what they were?
20	Mr. Watt, I blew up the attachment for you	20 A. Well, it's a little late for me to know
21		21 now. That's nothing I can do about it at this point.
22		22 Q. Well, actually you probably could,
		122 O. Well, actually you probably could,

	Page 58	1	Page 60
1	couldn't you?	1	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2	A. I don't know whether I can or not. I have	2
3	or any or this is since i	3	OBFM or OTIM. And I'm wondering if you think that's
4	have been completely removed from this process for	4	a good reason to create an executive position?
5	now 60 days or so, maybe even more than that. But,	5	A. Look, I based my decision on this memo.
6	you know, I'm out of this process, so I have no idea.	6	Whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
7	And with respect to this position, I wouldn't I	7	evaluated that, what, three times now. I've given
8	had already I already delegated it before I was	8	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
9	moved removed from the process.	9	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I grant you that.
10	So, you know, for me to know now what the	10	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
11	considerations were when I really am not in a	11	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
12	position to take them into account really wouldn't be	12
13	particularly helpful to me.	13
14	Q. I know you delegated the decision-making	14	(b)(6);(b)(You know, I just I don't have an
15	on that position, but you could take that authority	15	opinion about whether that's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
16	back, couldn't you?	16	I mean, sometimes if you run into a wall to
17	A. Theoretically, but that ain't likely to	17	continue to bang your head against that wall is not a
18	Tou know, I got,	18	good idea. It's sometimes better to back up and go
19	what, 85 days now in my tenure as the director of	19	around and accomplish what you're trying to
20	-game, and an agriculty social	20	accomplish in a different way. And that's (b)(6);(b)(
21	The same desired in the same and chegate that decision,	21	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I've done it many times
22	Q. $(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)$ told us last night that the	22	myself.
1	Page 59	1	Page 61
2	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	CON	Q. This would cause the creation of a new
3		3	executive position, and be contrary to the buy-out
4		4	and the policy, unofficial, official, of the agency of reducing the agency has gone from 66 LLs before
5		5	the buy-out to 54 thereafter to 49 now. And now
6		6	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
7		7
8	Does that sound like (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to	8
9	you?	9	I'm wondering if you think, sir, that is a
10	A. Well, I think he covers that when he	10	good reason to create an executive position?
11	says after weighing these pros and cons on	11	A. I think the reasons that I set out in this
12	balance, (b)(5)	12	memo are good reasons to create an executive
13	(b)(5)	13	position, if I hadn't, I wouldn't have approved it.
14		14	And I think (b)(6):(- now that I've gone back and read
15		15	through it (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
16	Now, what was behind that statement, I	16	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
17	can't tell you. But, you know, for me to say that's	17
18	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I don't	18
19	have the context for me to be able to judge that.	19	that is a short term solution that will solve the
20	Q. I can give you the context. We	20	problem.
21	interviewed (b)(6);(b)(7)(and asked him why he	21	And this memo, actually as I've read it,
44	recommended an executive position, and it seemed that	22	reflects the difficulty that he was wrestling with to

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 4

Part 2 of 3

		, , , , ,	2010
Page	17	(62	- 65)

Page 62 Page 64 1 make this decision. And those are difficult 1 Q. Yes or no. Were you curious or not, sir? 2 decisions all the time. I mean, we're not measuring 2 A. I doubt that I was because I don't 3 0 versus 100, we're often measuring 49 versus 51, and 3 typically manage at that level. But I can't say 4 you're trying to make a decision about what you 4 whether I was curious or not because I don't have 5 believe to be in the best interest of the 5 recollection of this. I obviously made a decision organization. And I have no doubt in my mind that 6 when I got this memorandum, and I thought it was a (b)(6);(was trying to figure out what was in the best 7 sound decision, and I continue to think it was a interest of the organization. 8 sound decision. Now, what all he took into account, I Q. If you had -- I'm sorry, sir. So if you 10 can't tell you. But if the objective is to have me 10 had -- would you have made the same decision if you 11 say he's a(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) because he was vexing 11 knew that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) about it, I vex about a lot of decisions and, you 12 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 13 know, at some point you have to make a decision. It 13 on the flow chart that I showed you, which is marked 14 is not always a perfect decision. But a 48/52 as Exhibit No. 1 -- in Exhibit No. 1? decision, a 49/51 decision quite often is the mark of A. I would have made the same decision if what managers have to deal with. (b)(6);(recommended it. 16 17 Q. So do I understand you correctly to say, 17 Q. I don't understand the answer. Could you 18 sir, that you didn't go behind any of the explain that to me. representations in the document that you just read to 19 A. If (b)(6) recommended what he did, I would determine whether or not to approve (b)(6);(b)(20 have probably taken his recommendation. If he had 21 recommendation? 21 recommended going a different way, I probably would 22 I did not. Yeah, you understood that. 22 have taken his recommendation. If he had said a Page 63 Page 65 Q. And so are you limited, sir, in 1 better way to do this for the organization is to put 2 determining whether or not to create a new executive 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) over it, that would have been a 3 to the matters in this letter or were there other 3 rational decision, but -options open to you? Q. It would have saved creating a new You mean about creating a new executive? executive, right? She's already an executive? 6 Yes, sir. A. It would have done that, yes, but it would A. I'm sure there would have been other 7 have not necessarily been the best thing for the 8 options available to me if I had changed the policy, 8 organization, and that's the criteria I used. and I have the authority to change the --Q. Why would it not be the best thing, sir? 10 Q. Couldn't you have asked (b)(6); whether 10 A. I'm not saying it wouldn't have been, but obviously (b)(6);(didn't think that it was the best 11 there were other options available? 12 A. Obviously, he's -option. And I wasn't going behind (b)(6); and looking 13 Because there's a -at multiple different options to second guess his 14 Obviously he's taken into account a bunch 14 recommendation. 15 of options and been considering this for a long 15 Q. Do you -period of time. I mean, that would have just 16 A. That is not the way I managed in this 17 prolonged the process even more. 17 agency. 18 Q. But you weren't curious to know what the 18 Q. Is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)Do you options were? You weren't curious about that? You 19 think she's a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) sir? were going to create an executive position, it seems 20 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 21 like quite a thing. You weren't curious at all, sir? 21 She's had some serious challenges, organizational 22 A. Is that a question? 22 challenges that she inherited, and I think she has

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

Page 66 Page 68 1 methodically tried to reorganize, organize her teams THE WITNESS: I'm just telling you, my in a way that get the best results. 2 decision was based on this recommendation. I think Q. She recommended that (b)(6) consider 3 it was a good decision. I don't know what all the (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 4 options(b)(6);(considered. Obviously, he considered 5 5 them, which I think a good manager does. But at some point you have to make your own recommendation and But I'm surprised (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 7 decision about what is in the best interest of the to learn that he didn't discuss it with you. Don't 8 organization, and make a recommendation. you think he should have discussed it with you? You know, I doubt that you will find any 10 No, I don't think he should have discussed 10 time in the almost 5 years that I've been here where 11 it with me because I have no idea why (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7) 11 I've gone down and just, you know, tried to (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 12 12 micromanage my direct reports. That is just not the 13 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 13 way that I -- especially on operational issues. Now, I respect opinions when it comes to what is happening in the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C 14 policy issues, we give and take, we collaborate, we (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 15 And I've approved many of her argue, we fight, we fuss, and at some point if recommendations, but I would not have given much 16 there's divisions of opinion, I have to make a weight to her opinion $\inf_{|(7)(C)|}^{(b)(6);(b)}$ shop. 17 decision. They are difficult decisions to make. 18 The management structure is management 18 And I respect the ability of my managers, structure. You just said she's met a couple of 19 19 my executive team, to make good decisions. I got challenges and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 20 enough decisions that I have to make on a day-to-day see why (b)(6); would take her opinion, couldn't you? 21 21 basis without going down in their shop and second 22 I'm not sure where you're driving. 22 guessing every decision that they make. And I just Page 67 Page 69 1 Q. I'm driving, sir --1 don't do that. And if you think that's 2 A. I'm trying to be responsive to your 2 irresponsible, I mean, you know, you just have to 3 questions, but you seem to have some preconceived 3 think that, but that's just not the way I manage. 4 notion of where you're trying to get to. And I want 4 BY MR. PARKER: 5 to be responsive to your questions, I'm not trying to Q. In light of what I told you today of the be uncooperative, but --6 options that were available at the time to manage PMO 7 Q. I'm trying to understand --7 and OQA, is it still your opinion that appointing an 8 But -executive was necessary? Q. I understand. I'm trying to understand A. It is my opinion that it was the best 10 why you would approve an executive position given option for the organization. Necessary -- I don't 11 that there are multiple options to it, recommended by 11 know what you mean by necessary, other than in the 12 senior managers in the organization, and you were 12 context of what I considered -- and what (b)(6);(b)(7) 13 not -- why you would do that in the face of all of 13 recommended and what I considered to be in the best 14 these options? I don't understand that. I just 14 interest of the organization. 15 don't get it. Q. What I mean by necessary, there were 15 MR. FAY: Counsel, I'm not going to say 16 already 10 executives in the Office of the (b)(6),(b)(7)(17 much here. The difficulty is the fact that you're 17 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) testifying so much, it confuses the question. So the 18 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) questions are great. The testimony from you, not so 19 19 great. And you're testifying about all these thing. Is it still necessary, in light of that 21 options, et cetera, et cetera, and Mr. Watt has told 21 information, to create yet another executive after 22 you what he knows and what he doesn't know. 22 the buy-out?

Page 19 (70 - 73)
Page 72

Page 70

- A. Well, I didn't make my decision based on
- 2 that definition of necessary. I made my decision
- 3 based on what was in the best interest of the
- 4 organization.
- Now, you can second guess the basis on
- 6 which my -- but I never used the word necessary in my
- 7 evaluation of this position. And your definition in
- 8 this case may be what happens in quite a number of
- 9 cases. The IG's definition of what's necessary and
- 10 my definition of what's necessary don't always
- 11 correspond, when they do, I try to take those into
- 12 account. But if you're trying to get me to say that
- 13 I would have done this a different way, I'm telling
- 14 you, based on the information I had at that time. I
- 15 would have made the very decision that I made.
- And having seen how (b)(6); (was wrestling
- 17 with this, and approaching it, I believe that he was
- 18 approaching it in a reasonable way.
- 19 Q. You made your decision based upon what was
- 20 in the best interest of the organization, do I
- 21 understand that correctly?
- A. What I perceived and (b)(6);(perceived to be

1 A. Yes.

- 2 Q. How many times have you spoken with her
- 3 about that, sir?
- 4 A. A number of times. She has been
- 5 advocating for it. I have the file on my desk now,
- 6 We still haven't made a decision about it.
- Q. I see. She recommended to you and she
- 8 gave you a memorandum laying out her reason for
- 9 creating that position?
- 10 A. Yes.
- Q. Did she have a conversation or two with
- 12 you about her recommendation before she presented you
- 13 with the memo?
- 14 A. Yes.
- Q. So much the same thing that happened with
- 16 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. And did you exceed to the creation of the
- 19 position an executive --
- 20 A. I haven't yet, but I might. We haven't
- 21 made a final decision on that, and (b)(6);(b) knows the
- 22 status of that.

Page 71

- 1 in the best interest of his organization in his 1 Q. The record seems to indicate that you
- ² division, and what I believed was in the best
- 3 interest of the organization, yes.
- Q. Now that I provided you with new
- 5 information from (b)(6); that was not available to you,
- 6 do you still think that your decision is the one
- 7 that's in the best interest of the organization?
- 8 A. I don't know the answer to that, and I'm
- 9 never going to have the opportunity to have to cross
- 10 that bridge. All I can tell you was that on 7-14 --
- 2017, I thought this was in the best interest of the - organization. And apparently on 7-11-17, (b)(6);(
- 13 thought it was in the best interest of his division.
- You know, for me to go back and start
- 15 hypothetically saying, you know, would I do this
- 16 different now -- I don't have the capacity to do it
- 17 different now, even if I were inclined. So that's
- 18 just not something that I feel comfortable engaging
- 19 in.
- Q. Did you have occasion to discuss the - creation of an executive position in the Office of
- 22 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

- Page 73
- 2 started talking with her about this in November
- 3 of 2017, so about 11 1/2 months ago. That is a
- 4 pretty long time to make a decision, isn't it?
- 5 A. Not -- I certainly haven't had a
- 6 recommendation from her in any kind of written form.
- 7 I'm not even sure I have one now, to be quite honest.
- 8 But I've got a bunch of papers in a file that, to be
- ⁹ quite honest, a lot of other things have distracted
- 10 my attention from my ability to make a lot of these
- 11 decisions.
- So, you know -- you know, she's got --
- 13 again, a person that is perceived to be a very
- 14 qualified person. It has some of the same parallels
- 15 with this. But the creation of a new executive
- position is something that we don't approach lightly
- 17 in this agency, and I never have and I think you go
- 18 back and count the number that I've created, you
- 19 know, you'll find that that's been the case all
- 20 along.
- Q. So what is the position that she wanted
- 22 you to create?

	Washing	gtoi	1, DC Page 20 (74 - 77)
	Page 74		Page 76
1	A. That (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) wants me to create?	ı	try to take her opinions into account. But that
2	Q. Yes, sir.	l .	docsn't necessarily mean that I approve everything
3	A. She wants she wants the person who is	ı	that she brings to me. And I have to perceive that
4	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to	4	it is in the best interest of the organization before
5		5	I approve it.
6	meets the criteria or doesn't meet the criteria. 1	6	MR. PARKER: Can we go on break, ma'am?
7		7	(Recess).
8	Q. What factors are you considering in that	8	MR. PARKER: I'd like you to mark an
9	decision, sir?	9	exhibit for me, please.
10	A. The same factors that are considered in	10	(Exhibit No. 5 was marked for
11		11	identification.)
12	Q. Which are?		BY MR. PARKER:
13	A. The responsibilities of the position. How	13	Q. Sir, I show you Exhibit Number 5, it's a
14	many people would be reporting to the position. You	14	request from $(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)$ to establish an executive
15	know, a number of factors that I would consider, but,	15	position in (b)(6);(b) and it's dated November of 2017.
16	you know, I'm not sure how that decision is all that		Do you recognize it?
17	relevant to this discussion. But I concede that	17	A. Yes.
18	there are parallels here, but that is a decision that	18	Q. Did you act on that request, sir?
19	hadn't even yet been made.	19	A. Yes, I acted on this request at that time.
20	Q. So I'd like to show you what (b)(6);(b)	20	and the second sequences and sequences
21	provided to us, which is the (b)(6),(b) organizational	1	at that time.
22	, and the same of the same	22	Q. Yes, sir. Can you say why you denied the
1	Page 75 (Exhibit No. 4 was marked for	1	Page 77 request, sir?
2	identification.)	2	A. I didn't think she submitted compelling
3	160		reasons for it, and that I didn't think it was in the
4	Q. Where would the executive go on that	1	best interest of the organization at the time.
5	- 1923 - C. 1933a	5	Q. Did she in her request to you represent
6	A. I have no idea. You know, I assume it		that the individual excuse me, that the office
7	would be on a line that would report directly to		that she wanted to appoint to an executive position
8	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	8
9	Q. How many people would then be reporting to	9	entities, that is the FHLBanks and Fannie Mae and
10	the proposed executive, sir?	10	Freddie Mac?
11	A. I have no idea.	11	A. Yes, that is true of a number of people in
12	Q. Can you count the boxes?	12	our organization that represent the agency at the
13	A. Well, it depend on how she organized it.	13	regulated entities. That certainly wouldn't be a
14	This is her existing organizational chart, how she	14	compelling reason.
15	would propose to organize it wouldn't necessarily be	15	Q. What about coupled with the fact that the
16	reflected on this chart. So I can't tell you how	16	individual had to have business acumen to understand
17	many people would be reporting to this person.	17	the business of the agency and how (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
18	Did she also give you a proposed	18	(b)(6),(b)(7) would work with the business of the agency?
19	organization chart? I mean, she's lobbying people	19	A. I think that's also true of virtually
20	I don't know why lobbying the IG. You know, I mean,	20	anybody that we sent out, not necessarily about (b)(6);(b)
21	I'm not blaming her, she has strong feelings about it	21	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but about whatever they are examining
22	and she likes her opinions taken into account. And I	22	about. That wouldn't

	Page 78	Page 80
1	Q. What about adding those two things, which	1 there is not another single agency in government that
2	by themselves, you indicated, are not persuasive with	2 has a set has developed examination protocols. I
3	the fact that the individual had to work in the	³ (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to be
4	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) environment, which takes a	4 hands-on. I don't want you to delegate too much of
5	certain amount of political acumen and savvy?	5 that responsibility.
6	A. Well, I acknowledged that, but just about	6 So those are the kinds of things that I'm
7	everything we do requires that also. I don't think	7 trying to because (b)(6);(b) is a brand new
8	that — it is somewhat unique to the $(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)$ it	8 organization, and everything we do in that space, I
9	is true, but it is also true that doing something on	9 can assure you, is watched.
10	criteria for (b)(6);(b) hat is different than the criteria	MR. PARKER: Can you mark this exhibit
11	that I would apply in other spaces could undermine a	11 for me next, please, ma'am.
12	number of things that we've tried to accomplish here.	12 (Exhibit No. 6 was marked for
13	I mean, it would be the first thing	13 identification.)
14	that people would say is that you're giving	14 BY MR. PARKER:
15	preference to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I mean, I'm	15 Q. Mr. Watt, this is a second request dated
16	just free-flowing about the kinds of considerations	16 5-29-18, for a creation of an executive position,
17	that I have to take into account. Now (b)(6);(b)(on	17 about which we just spoke, (b)(6);(b)(7)(Have you seen
18	ranger and the same and the sam	18 it, sir?
19	into account. She's just thinking about the	19 A. I don't know whether this is one of the
20	efficiency of (b)(6);(b) organization.	20 things that's in my file or not. I've got a file on
21	My responsibility is to think about it on	21 this on my desk. I haven't reviewed all of the
22	a broader basis. And so in that sense, I'm saying	22 things that are in that Cl. battle i
22	a oroador ousis. Thid so in that sense, I in saying	22 things that are in that file, but this is not
	Page 79	Page 81
1	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference	2,000
5353	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference to(b)(6);(position. I give a lot of discretion	Page 81
1	the same thing that I have said before with reference to (b)(6); (position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when	1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to(b)(7)(C)
1 2	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference to(b)(6);(position. I give a lot of discretion	1 addressed to me. This is from $(b)(6);(b)$ $(b)(6);(c)$ $(b)(6);(c)$ $(b)(7)(C)$ $(b)(7)(C)$ it's not
1 2 3	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference to(b)(6);() hy/7/(C) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think	1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(7)(C) 2 (b)(6);(b)(it's not 3 Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
1 2 3 4 5	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference to (b)(6);() position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did (b)(6);(b) mention to you, sir, that	Page 81 1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) (b)(6);(c) 2 (b)(6);(b)(it's not 3 Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 4 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and under the process the requests
1 2 3 4 5 6	the same thing that I have said before with reference to (b)(6); (position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did (b)(6); (b) mention to you, sir, that because she's the (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) when	Page 81 1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) 2 (b)(6);(b)(it's not 3 Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 4 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and under the process the requests 5 have to go through him?
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Page 79 the same thing that I have said before with reference to(b)(6);() position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did (b)(6);(b) mention to you, sir, that because she's the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the	Page 81 1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) (b)(6);(c) 2 (b)(6);(b)(it's not 3 Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 4 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and under the process the requests 5 have to go through him? 6 A. No.
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);(}{(b)(7)(C)} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{(7)(C)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the	Page 81 1 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(7)(C) 2 (b)(6);(b)(C) (b)(7)(C) 2 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 3 Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 4 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and under the process the requests 5 have to go through him? 6 A. No. 7 Q. That's what (b)(6);(c) told us. Is he wrong?
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8	the same thing that I have said before with reference to (b)(6); (position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did (b)(6); (b) mention to you, sir, that because she's the (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(c) told us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(b) I mean, if she's trying to create a new executive position, she might
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);()}{(b)(7)(C)} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{(7)(C)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(c)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person	Page 81 addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) (c)(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(f)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(c) told us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(b) I mean, if she's
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6),()}{(\chi_{\text{N/T/IC}})} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6),(b)}{(\chi_{\text{T/V/C}})} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive?	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(it's not
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	the same thing that I have said before with reference to (b)(6). position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did (b)(6);(b) mention to you, sir, that because she's the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(c) told us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(c) I mean, if she's trying to create a new executive position, she might the seeking (b)(6);(b) opinion about it and, quote,
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6),()}{(\chi/71)(\chi)} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6),(b)}{(\chi/71)(\chi)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [continued by the continued by the
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(b)(7)(C)} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(b)(6)()} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [c) and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(told us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(b) I mean, if she's trying to create a new executive position, she might be seeking (b)(6);(b) (7)(C) unquote, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But there's no requirement that it go through (b)(6);(c) There's no requirement that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) send a request for a new executive position if she wanted to create one
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);()}{\chi_1/71/C} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{\chi_1/71/C} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(c) told us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(c) I mean, if she's trying to create a new executive position, she might be seeking (b)(6);(b) (7)(C) popinion about it and, quote, unquote, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But there's no requirement that it go through (b)(6);(c) There's no requirement that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) send a request for a new
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(\text{N/T/IC})} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(b)(6)()} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6)()}{(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people under you do and I think if you actually go back	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) (b)(6);(c) (b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c) (c)
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);()}{\chi(7)(C)} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{\chi(7)(C)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{\chi(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it\(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{\chi(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people under you do and I think if you actually go back and look at\(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{\chi(c)} \)	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);()}{(\rightarred{(b)(7/1)(C)}} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{(b)(6);(b)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people under you do and I think if you actually go back and look at \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) one of the things I've said to	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) (b)(6);(c) (b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)(f)
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6)(.)}{(\text{N/T/VC})} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6)(.)}{(b)(6)(.)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6)(.)}{(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6)(.)(0)(7)(C)}{(b)(6)(.)(0)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people under you do and I think if you actually go back and look at \(\frac{(b)(6)(.)(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6)(.)(b)(7)(C)} \) one of the things I've said to her is, I want you to be in the early years of	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [continued by the continued by the
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	the same thing that I have said before with reference to \(\frac{(b)(6);()}{(\text{N/T/IC})} \) position. I give a lot of discretion about how people manage in their own space. But when it comes to creation of positions, I have to think about the totality of the organization. Q. Did \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)}{(b)(6);(b)} \) mention to you, sir, that because she's the \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) when there's a problem or a discontent at one of the regulated entities being examined that she gets the phone call and the individual on the ground who is the supervising examiner doesn't because that person is not an executive? A. Yes, she mentioned that. She's mentioned it \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) But, you know, my response to that is, the buck stops at the top in every division. And if people don't like what the people under you do and I think if you actually go back and look at \(\frac{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)}{(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)} \) one of the things I've said to her is, I want you to be in the early years of this of the implementation of an examination	addressed to me. This is from (b)(6);(b) to (b)(6);(c) [b)(6);(b)(c) it's not Q. Isn't that because (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [b)(6);(b)(7)(C) [and under the process the requests have to go through him? A. No. Q. That's what (b)(6);(b)(d) us. Is he wrong? A. Well, I don't think every request of this kind has to go through (b)(6);(b) I mean, if she's trying to create a new executive position, she might be seeking (b)(6);(b) (7)(C) unquote, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But there's no requirement that it go through (b)(6);(c) there's no requirement that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) send a request for a new executive position if she wanted to create one through (b)(6);(b) Not that I'm aware of. You know, that may be the way it has been done in the past. But I don't know that I have seen this request in this form. It may be in the file that is

Me	elvin L. Watt Washing	etor	10/11/2018 n, DC Page 22 (82 - 85)
	Page 82	1	Page 84
1	things have deferred my attention from a lot of	1	potentially create some precedent that I mean, I
2	things on my desk. But I haven't made a decision	2	think part of the reason I haven't acted on this is
3	about whether to create an executive level position	3	there have been multiple ideas to try to move it
4	(b)(6),(b)(7)(It is a very difficult decision, and I know	4	forward. And the most recent one of which just came
5	that whatever I do they are going to be detractors,		to me a couple weeks ago, not a different idea, but a
6	and I need to be satisfied in my own mind that I can		very long memo that (b)(6);(b) wrote justifying why this justify that the creation or non-creation of it is	ı	was an executive level position. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
	the right decision for the organization, because that	8	about it.
9	is my ultimate responsibility.	9	Q. So I'll mark that one for you now.
10	Q. I understand.	10	MR. PARKER: Would you mark this, ma'am.
11	MR. PARKER: Can you mark this next,	11	(Exhibit No. 8 was marked for 12	please, ma'am.	12	identification.)
13	(Exhibit No. 7 was marked for		BY MR. PARKER:
14	identification.)	13
15	BY MR. PARKER:	14	Q. Is that the memo, September 26, 2018?
5,770,000		15	That's a comparison of the position that she wants
16	Q. Can you describe that document for the	1	to she wants to create with the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
17	record, please.	2000000	(b)(7)(C) I'm reading from the top. Do you recognize
18	A. This is a memorandum from (b)(6);(b) to me,		that, sir?
19	dated July 27, 2018.	19	A. I recognize it in the sense that I know I
20	Q. What does it concern, sir?	20	have received it. It's dated September 26th. And I
21	A. Request to designate an executive level	-	know and I believe I have a copy of it in the file
22	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) EL-14	22	that I have on my desk, but I have not reviewed it.
-	Page 83		Page 85
2	vacant position to LL associate director position.		So I don't recognize it in the sense that I can tell
	Q. Do you know the genesis of that document,	2	you that I have reviewed it. But I know that she
3	sir? Do you understand why she did that?	3	gave me a document, which she said to me represented
4	A. I think she's been trying to figure out	4	a significant amount of research that backs up her how to accomplish what she what was not approved	5	position that this six pages of it. And she's now directly, how she might be able to accomplish it	6	lobbying me through the IG, it might give you some
7	indirectly. And by going this route, as I understood	7	indication of how strongly she feels about it.
8	it from talking to her, it could be done without	8	I mean, I know how strongly she feels
9	necessarily creating an executive level position	9	about it, but that's not going to, you know I
10	because you would be putting and I have reviewed	10	still have to do what is in the interest of the
11	this one because I marked it up and remember asking a	11	organization. And as long as I'm the director, I
12	bunch of questions about it. How would this work?	12	will continue to apply that as my criteria. That's
13	Q. Does it help her case?	13	all I can tell you.
14	 I don't know whether it helps her case or 	14	Q. Well, I guess what I'm trying to figure
15	not. It helps it would help in the sense that if	15	out is, how is it that all of the research and
16	we didn't have to create an executive level position,	16	documentation and argumentation and comparisons that
17	we wouldn't have to we wouldn't have to deal with	17	have been presented to you with respect to the (b)(6);(b)(
18	that. But it would certainly have some budget	18	position over the period of 11 1/2 months is not a
19	implications that would have to be taken into account	19	compelling case, but what's been marked as Exhibit 1,
20	because by doing it this way the person who will be	20	which is three pages, that doesn't lay out any
27.1	doing those meanibilities	1200

21 doing these responsibilities would be paid more than

22 they are paid now. And it would -- and it could

21 options and doesn't really say why an executive is 22 necessary -- is a compelling case? I don't get it.

_	Washing		Page 23 (86 - 89
	Page 86		Page 88
1	Can you explain that?	1	Q. Well, how many executives are there in
2	A. Well, part of it I can explain in the same	2	(b)(6);(b)(7
3	context that I remember you asked me a question	3	A. (b)(6);
4	and I hesitated about the answer, and then I talked	4	Q. And the request is to make a (b)(6); for a
5	about different things and different divisions? I'd	5	lot of the reasons that she laid out, correct?
6	be the first to tell you, I am probably more	6	A. Well, and I may do that. I don't know
7	hands-off in the operation side. But when it comes	7	that I won't do that.
8	to things like $\binom{(b)(6);(b)}{(7)(C)}$ I mean, I was on the committee	8	Q. You haven't for the last 10 1/2 months,
9	when (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) legislation was passed in	9	that's why I'm asking you.
10	Congress. I voted for it. I was one of the people	10	A. Well
11	who crafted it.	11	Q. And she's giving you four proposals. And
12	And I view a lot of the decisions that get	12	she's taken the time to write what she told me
13	made there as policy, not operational, which is why I	13	A. Thank you for complimenting me on being so
14	say, okay, we just created an (b)(6);(operation well,	14	deliberate and thoughtful in my approach. I don't there was an organization, we just filled the	15	know how I'm not sure what point you're trying to
16	position a couple years ago, I don't know when, maybe	16	make, Rich.
17	it was 3 years ago. I filled the position. I was	17	Q. Sir
18	very methodical about who I selected. A lot more	18	A. I hear where you're going. Unless you
19	methodical than some other positions that I either	19	want to substitute my judgment for you didn't like
20	inherited or selected people for.	20	my opinion here where I created it, and you
21	And I know that and I have	21	apparently don't like my opinion here where I haven't
22	affirmatively, in writing, said to (b)(6);(b)(1) want	22	created it. So, you know, that's exactly the kind of
Т	Page 87		Page 89
1	you to be hands-on in making a lot of these	1	scrutiny we get on just about everything because
2	decisions. So to say that this is a complete analogy	2	whether we do it or don't do it, we get criticized.
3	to what was done in $(b)(6)$; b I was the first to	3	Do you see what I'm saying? So
4	acknowledge to you that there were similarities.	4	Q. Let me just
5	There are similarities.	5	A I don't think
6	But the notion that I would apply the same	6	Q. Let me, please
7	kind of rigor to (b)(6),(b) that I would apply possibly to	7	A. I don't think I made a decision over here,
8	DHMG or to DOC or to OMWI, you know, there are	8	and I don't believe when I make a decision over here
9	differentials, and it's my responsibility as the	9	it will be a bad decision. Now, will it be
10	director to understand when those differential	10	100 percent versus 51/48, 51/49, 52/48. It will be a
11	considerations have to be taken into account.	11	close decision regardless, because I understand the
12	Because I know in this space, in the OMWI space, in	12	arguments that (b)(6);(b) is making.
13	the DOC space, everything we do is going to be second	13	But I also understand that there are
14	guessed, third guessed, split, cut, diced, you know.	14	implications of this that go beyond the arguments
15	And so when I make a decision on those	15	that she's making, and it's my responsibility to take
16	things, I do tend to be a lot more hands-on yeah.	16	those considerations into account.
17	So, yeah, there are parallels. I was the first to	17	Q. Let me just make the record clear that I
18	acknowledge that in an earlier question that you	18	don't have an opinion about any of your decisions.
19	asked. But to say that this is exactly the same	19	So, please understand that. I don't have any opinion
1		205530	100 CERT
20	situation, I think you have missed a bunch. And, you	20	about good or pag
0.00000	situation, I think you have missed a bunch. And, you know, everything that appears similar is not the	20	about good or bad. A. You seem to be very much critical
21	know, everything that appears similar is not the same.		A. You seem to be very much critical Q. Sir, sir.

		1	78 (/0 /20)
1	Page 90 A critical of this decision, while at the		Page 92 do engenders scrutiny. That's the very point that 1
2	(A) (32)	l	have been trying to make to you, which is why and
3	Vicin in the control of the control	1	now an increased amount of scrutiny because anything
4	Q. You can draw whatever		I do in the last 90 days of my tenure here everybody
5	A. That's what you seem to be saying.	5	is going to say I'm stacking the deck for the next
6	MANUAL STRUCTURE STATE OF THE S	360%	director. So there's even an additional factor that
7	23.4 (CC)	7	has to be taken into account in every decision that I
8	Q. Sir, I just told you I don't have an	8	make, and we're making these decisions every day.
9	St. 144 B1 920, 344 124983	9	This is not the only decision that we have to make.
10	[34] [44] [44] [44]	10	THE PROPERTY OF A STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE
11	N 39 - 20 - 20 - 39 - 30 - 30 - 30 - 30 - 30 - 30 - 3	2000	So, you know, forgive me for being more
12	Programme State of the Contract of the Contrac	11	cautious now than I might have been. But these
A-10004	MR. FAY: Can I ask a point of information.	12	are from my opinion, they are two different
100154		13	circumstances and I'm applying the criteria that I
14	MR. PARKER: Please.	14	think is appropriate in both of them.
15	The state of the s	15	Q. So one last question and then I'll turn it
16	J Processes note contectungly X X	16	b)(7)(C)
	(b)(6),(b) desire to have an executive position, were	17	position, is there any reason why that job couldn't
	, and the same of	18	be done by an EL-15 and you can plus-up the pay of?
19	MR. PARKER: No, sir.	19	I don't know the answer to that because I
20	MR. FAY: Okay.	20	haven't evaluated it. It would have the same budget
21	MR. PARKER: Not to my knowledge.	21	implications if you plussed up the pay that this most
22	MR. FAY: All right, I thought we were	22	recent (b)(6);(b) proposal would have, and I would have to
-83	Page 91		Page 93
0.96	here to talk about hotline complaints.	1	Page 93 take that into account if somebody proposed it. But
1 2	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other	1
0.96	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision	2	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But
2	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm	2	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it
2 3 4 5	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to	2 3 4	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me.
2 3 4 5	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm	2 3 4	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll
2 3 4 5	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to	2 3 4 5 6	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy.
2 3 4 5	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in	2 3 4 5 6	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you.
2 3 4 5 6 7	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in	2 3 4 5 6 7	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there,	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there,	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there, sir, my next question was, making one new executive in OCOO where	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them advice. And if you go back and read I would
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there, sir, my next question was, making one new executive in (D)(6);(b) and making one new executive in OCOO where there are already 10 executives and where there is	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them advice. And if you go back and read I would suggest you go back and read what I wrote in the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there, sir, my next question was, making one new executive in (b)(6);(b) and making one new executive in OCOO where there are already 10 executives and where there is only one in (b)(6);(takes 3 days, (b)(6);(takes 10 lo)(7)(C)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them advice. And if you go back and read I would suggest you go back and read what I wrote in the fresh facts for women's equality and think about how
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there, sir, my next question was, making one new executive in OCOO where there are already 10 executives and where there is only one in [b)(6);(b)(7)(c) takes 3 days, (b)(6);(takes 10 b)(7)(c)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them advice. And if you go back and read I would suggest you go back and read what I wrote in the fresh facts for women's equality and think about how I think about mentoring people. I've been doing it
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	here to talk about hotline complaints. THE WITNESS: Let me just add one other factor. You say, would you make the same decision today if you were making the decision? Well, I'm never going to make this decision. I still got to make this one. And I have the history now of having made this one that I have to take into account in making this decision. And how I will weigh that, I haven't really taken a step back and tried to figure that out, to be quite honest. But I will tell you one thing, I'm going to be very deliberate about it because I know whatever I do they are going to be unhappy people. BY MR. PARKER: Q. And before you gave your answer there, sir, my next question was, making one new executive in (D)(6);(b) and making one new executive in OCOO where there are already 10 executives and where there is only one in (D)(6);((D)(6);(takes 3 days, (D)(6);(takes 10 b)(7)(C) (T)(C)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	take that into account if somebody proposed it. But that's something that I haven't evaluated because it hadn't been presented the me. MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt. I'll turn it over to Ms. Choy. MS. CHOY: Thank you. BY MS. CHOY: Q. You testified last month that you mentor Simone Grimes? A. I did. Q. When did your mentorship of Ms. Grimes begin? A. I don't know that I can put a date on it, I mean, you know, when do you stop mentoring somebody? When they start coming to you when they asking for your advice on stuff, you try to give them advice. And if you go back and read I would suggest you go back and read what I wrote in the fresh facts for women's equality and think about how

- 1 responsibility.
- You know, I've been successful in life. I
- 3 came from meager beginnings and I have got a lot of
- 4 experiences over that time that I think is my
- 5 responsibility, not to just go and hide under a
- 6 bushel basket. There's something in the Bible that
- 7 says, don't hide your light under a basket. So, you
- know, that's my philosophy on mentoring.
- 9 But in that document, what I say is, you
- 10 know, I don't always think of this as a formal
- 11 mentoring relationship. So you start -- when you
- 12 start asking me, when did you your mentoring
- 13 relationship start? You know, your mentoring people
- 14 any time they ask you for advice.
- Q. So there wasn't any conversation about you
- 16 mentoring her?
- 17 A. No.
- Q. So when do you recall her the first time
- 19 approaching you for career advice or career
- 20 opportunities?
- 21 A. As I recall, it would have been -- I
- 22 asked, at some point in 2014, I asked Simone to write

...

Page 95

- 1 a memo about what the PMO office did. I think it
- 2 would be helpful for you to go back and get that
- 3 memo. It's a very extensive memo that she wrote.
- 4 And, actually, the first meeting I recall having with
- 5 Simone, formal meeting, was about that document. And
- 6 I think pretty much from that point on, you know,
- 7 I've given -- I've given Simone advice about what
- 8 kind of car to buy, you know, after she had an
- 9 automobile accident. I've talked to her about her
- 10 travels to South Africa because I've made four trips
- 11 over there, one before apartheid, one after apartheid
- 12 before the election, one after the election, and one
- 13 to Nelson Mandala's funeral.
- 14 I mean, these are experiences that I share
- 15 with people that I think is important to share with
- 16 people. I mean, you know -- so --
- 17 Q. So is it to say that one of the purpose to
- 18 mentor her was to advice her on career advancement?
- 19 A. One of the -- yes, I would say that that
- 20 would be true, not necessarily advancement, but
- 21 options. I've talked to Simone about her about
- when and whether she should leave the agency and pursue other options. You know, this is not about

- Page 96

- 2 only advancement in FHFA, it's about providing an
- 3 honest response to options that people may have
- 4 available to them based on my own experience. And
- 5 that conversation was actually based on my
- 6 experiences with people in Congress who reported to
- 7 me, who I said, look, it's time for you to get out of
- 8 her and go into the private sector. You know, the
- 9 time is hot now for you to do this. You've got
- 10 experience.
- So, you know, for me not to share those
- 12 kind of experiences, I think would be derelict on my
- 13 part.

14

- Q. So do you mentor other individuals at
- 15 FHFA?
- 16 A. Yes, I have.
- 17 Q. All right.
- 18 A. Men and women.
- 19 Q. Men and women. Okay.
- 20 A. And some of their children.
- Q. Okay. So you gave Ms. Grimes your
- 22 personal cell phone number to contact you?

- A. Yes, I did.
- 2 Q. Do you have all your mentees contact you
- 3 by personal cell phone?
- 4 A. Sure. I mean -- and most everybody in the
- 5 agency that wants to contact me -- you'll notice I
- 6 only have a BlackBerry on my belt. I don't even
- 7 carry my office phone. I don't have a land line at
- 8 home. So there must be I bet you 50 to 100 people
- 9 in this agency who have my cell phone number because
- 10 if they really want to get me, if they want to
- 11 contact me, that's really the best way to contact me.
- 12 I don't answer the phone that was -- I use
- 13 it to get email messages. I don't bring it to the
- 14 office because I can check my email messages on the
- 15 computer here. But I do not carry -- I have resisted
- 16 carrying two phones. It's just -- I run back and
- 17 forth to work, it's hard enough to run with one phone
- 18 on your belt.
- You know, I hear where you're going, but
- 20 you know, if somebody is thinking that somehow that
- 21 is out of the ordinary for me, it is not.
- Q. So you would communicate by phone, by text

Page 98

1 messages?

- A. Yes.
- Q. Do you maintain those text messages?
- 4 A. No, I normally delete messages fairly
- 5 quickly. And I think you all have made a request for
- 6 those messages, so I've given you -- I mean, you
- 7 know, they may be accessible through a service
- 8 provider, I have no idea, but I don't keep them on my
- 9 phone because I get too many calls and too many text
- 10 messages to maintain them. I'm not a pack rat. You
- 11 know, most of what I have on my phone now is of my
- 12 grandchildren, because when a message comes and I'm
- 13 through with it, I'm going on to the next thing.
- 14 Q. Do you tell your mentees to stop by your
- 15 office whenever?
- 16 A. Sure. I've made it -- the very first
- 17 speech I gave to the whole agency, I said, my door is
- 18 always open. If the door is not closed, it's open.
- 19 People walk into my office all the time.
- Q. So does Ms. Grimes stop by your office
- 21 regularly?
- 22 A. Yes.

Page 99

- Q. How frequently does she stop by your
- 2 office?

1

- 3 A. You know, at various times she has dropped
- 4 by more or less frequently, depending on whether she
- 5 had something to talk about.
- 6 Q. Did you talk about -- as relates to?
- A. Relates to whatever she wants to talk
- 8 about, you know, as long as I got time. You know,
- 9 I'm not -- you know, I'm not a director who is
- 10 distant from the people in this agency. And I think
- 11 you'll find that my employee viewpoint scores have
- 12 gone up dramatic every year that I've been here. I
- 13 think that's important for people to for my
- 14 employees in this agency to believe that I'm
- 15 accessible to them.
- Q. So during those meetings they are
- 17 typically one-on-one?
- 18 A. Yes.
- 19 Q. Are they --
- 20 A. Unless somebody brings somebody with them.
- 21 I mean, if they walk in one -- yeah, yeah.
- Q. How many times have you met her outside of 1 the office one-on-one?

- 2 A. Let me see if I can count. Five, I think.
- Q. Can you identify where you went in those
- 4 five times?
- A. We talked about the PMO memo at a
- 6 restaurant in southeast. We had a meeting at Rosa
- 7 Mexicano. We walked in Rock Creek Park. We went
- 8 to -- we met at a concert at Blues Alley. And we met
- 9 at my condo on one occasion. And so I guess there
- 10 would be six, because she was at -- she also came to
- 11 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) retirement reception, which was at my
- 12 condo also.
- 13 Q. What are the timeframes of these meetings?
- 14 A. Starting in June of 2014, and I think the
- 15 last meeting was in November of 2016 -- you're
- 16 talking about off campus.
 - Q. But onsite you've continued to see -- have
- 18 meetings with her one-on-one?
- 19 A. Sure.

17

21

- Q. In your office, elsewhere within FHFA?
 - A. Well, at division conservatorship
- 22 meetings. In my office. If my door is open, people

- 1 walk in. That's the way I also ran my congressional
- 2 office. People thought I was crazy when I told my
- 3 staff not to filter my calls. Not to ask whose
- 4 calling. If somebody called and asked for me when I
- 5 was a member of Congress, I said, put them through.
- 6 1 just, you know, it's amazing how we
- 7 diffused issues that way, I mean, because people
- 8 never expected to talk to me. And they'd get on the
- 9 phone, oh, no, I never -- I thought you asked me.
- 10 Oh, I didn't have any idea that I was going to be
- 11 able to talk to a member of Congress.
- 12 I mean, that's just who I am. I'm sorry.
- 13 I'm not sorry, I'm actually very happy with who I am
- 14 in that regard.
- Q. So you said the first thing, you discussed
- 16 the PMO memo someplace in southeast?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. Were they all for mentoring Ms. Grimes?
- 19 What was the purpose of those other meetings?
- 20 A. I think probably a combination. Some of
- 21 them I think the Blues Alley and the walk in Rock
- 22 Creek Park, probably no discussion of work. You

		-
200	102	Т

- 1 know, these things merge in my mind what was
- 2 discussed when, where, and how, but, you know, I
- 3 just -- I've talked to her about work. I've talked
- 4 to her about a lot of things that are not related to
- work.
- Q. So the walks in the park and the Blues
- 7 Alley, would that be a social activity that you were
- 8 engaged in then?
- A. Social in the sense that, you know, it
- 10 probably 25 to 50 people in the agency that I've
- 11 played golf with. Is that social? Yes. Males and
- 12 females, by the way. So, you know, it's just -- I
- 13 don't know that I always distinguished between social
- 14 and, you know, because if somebody wants to talk to
- you, they want to talk to you about what they want to
- 16 talk to you about. And so I don't try to make that
- 17 kind of distinction.
- 18 Q. Just so I'm clear, that means you
- 19 socialize with other mentees?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. And you meet them one-on-one as well?
- 22 A. Yes.

Page 103

- 1 Q. For dinners, concerts?
- 2 I have, yes. I have, yes.
- Q. And have other mentees met you at your 3
- 4 home alone?
- 5 A. Yes.
- Q. Have they met you when other individuals
- 7 are present?
- A. Yes.
- Q. I'm going to show you an exhibit which is 9
- 10 a transcript of your colloquy with Congressman Trott
- from the September 27th hearing. So what I'll do is
- 12 I'll read -- I marked it Exhibit J -- I'll read the
- 13 question and you can read the response.
- 14 (Exhibit No. 9 was marked for
- 15 identification.)
- 16 BY MS. CHOY:
- 17 Q. So, we're starting --
- 18 A. Let me get rid of this. I'm accumulating
- 19 documents over here. Tell me which ones I can get
- 20 rid of that you're finished with now.
- 21 MR. PARKER: I'll tell you what. May I
- 22 come over and get them from you?

- 1 THE WITNESS: I'll hand them to you and
- 2 you can give back the ones that you think I still
- 3 need.
- 4 BY MS. CHOY:
- Q. So the paper is right by your glasses.
- A. I see that one. I'm looking for something
- 7 else. Okay. Go ahead.
- Q. So starts at the bottom -- sorry for the
- 9 small print. During one of the dinners with your
- 10 mentee, did you ever say to her: Well, you probably
- 11 wanted to know what I wanted to talk to you about? I
- 12 mentioned to you there is an attraction here that I
- 13 think needs to be explored. In my experience, there
- 14 are four types of attraction, emotional, spiritual,
- 15 sexual, or friendship. So the exercise here is to
- 16 find out which one exists. Did you ever make such a
- 17 comment?
- 18 A. Do you want me to read what I said?
- 19 Q. Yes.
- 20 A. I absolutely think if you're going to
- 21 mentor somebody, you got to know what they are
- 22 thinking.

- 1 Q. About attraction?
- A. Yes.
- 3 Q. Could you read the --
- A. About attraction. And then I say, I don't
- 5 have any recollection. I've got a lot of mentees.
- 6 I've never discussed attraction with any -- no.
- that's Trott that said that.
- Q. He says, I got a lot of mentees, I've - never discussed attraction with any of them?
- 10 A. My response was: Well, then you haven't
- 11 mentored them and figured out if they are giving the
- wrong vibrations, and you're not clear with them what
- 13 the expectations are, I think you've got problems.
- 14 Q. Well, I'm pretty confident I'm a pretty
- 15 good mentor over the years. You ever ask Ms. Grimes 16 about her tattoo?
- 17 A. And my response is, I don't recall.
- 18 Q. Thank you. So I'm going to ask you a few
- questions about it. Could you explain when you say
- 20 exactly to your mentees, when you say you're trying
- 21 to be clear of the expectations and to not give the
- 22 wrong vibrations?

	Washing	ton	, DC Page 28 (106 - 109)
	Page 106		Page 108
1	A. So let me just explain the sequence of	1	transcript. The complainant confirmed that if she
2	events so that you're clear. I would say	2	had given me a contrary impression in any way, it was
3	between well, it might be better for me just to	3	not intentional, and we went on to other topics of
4	read it to you because I've been preparing my	4	discussion.
5	responses to interrogatories on the EEO matter. I	5	Q. Okay.
6	assume this is on the EEO matter. I don't know	6	A. So that gives you the context in
7	MR. PARKER: We're only looking into the	7	which and my response to Trott to
8	hotline complaints, sir.		Representative Trott, it was consistent with that
9	THE WITNESS: I didn't understand the		because that's what happened.
10	distinction that Laura was making when she testified,	10	Q. So you were trying to be clear with her
11	and I still don't understand it. But let me just		that you wanted to get clarification from her that
12	let me I think it's probably easier so that I		she was not attracted to you?
13	don't end up giving contradictory statements.	13	A. And I got that clarification. And
14	In the period following $(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)$	14	actually it was that clarification that made it
1000			possible for us to have the kind of walk the walk
	retirement reception at my condo in July 2015 and my	15	A STATE OF THE STA
-22000	February lunch meeting with the complainant, that is	16	in Rock Creek Park or meet at a performance venue or
17		17	even have her come to my house to talk about work.
	complainant started to make periodic visits to my	18	Because, you know (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
	office, during which we would discuss work and		(6)(6),(6)(7)(6)
20	The Table Control of the Control of	20
21		21	(b)(6
22	account of the second state of the second se	22	(b)(6) The last thing I need is for somebody to get
	Page 107	-	Page 109
1	suspicions that complainant could be developing an		over their skis, you know, and have some kind of
2	attraction to me that would be inappropriate for	723	emotional relationship with me in a situation where I
3	either an employer/employee relationship or a	3
4	friendship or a mentor/mentee relationship.	-	friend.
5	Sometime prior to June 8, 2016, that is	5	So, you know and that's based on
6			experience before, too, which I am not going to go
7	conversation took place. I requested an off site		into. But the last thing you ever want is somebody
8	A W W W EDG	1	to be thinking one thing about you, and you not be
9			there with him, because then it destroys them, and
10		10	that's just not the way to be a good friend or a good
11	intentions.	11	mentor.
12	The complainant picked me up in the	12	Q. Okay. So with that response in mind, I
13	parking lot and drove me to Rosa Mexicano. During	13	want to play for you a recording, and then follow up
14	the trip there I made the specific comments quoted in	14	with some questions.
15	interrogatory 52, which is the comments that you just	15	(Exhibit No. 10 was marked for
16	read, or similar comments. The complainant denied	16	identification.)
17	that she had any attraction of the kind I had	17	(Whereupon, the audio of the
18	suspected.	18	transcript contained in Exhibit 10
19	I confirmed that my intention was to make	19	was played.)
20	sure there was no confusion about whether there was	20	THE WITNESS: I'm having trouble
21	anything other than, quote, an attraction of	21	hearing it myself.
1		1

22

22 friendship, closed quote. You'll find that is in the (Recording playing.)

D
Page 110

1 BY MS. CHOY:

- Q. So a couple of questions. Is that your
- 3 voice?
- 4 A. Sure. Uh-huh.
- 5 Q. So where did this occur?
- 6 A. I believe it was -- that was the meeting
- 7 at my condo.
- 8 Q. When did that occur?
- A. According to her it was in November
- 10 of 2016, but I don't have any independent
- 11 recollection of the date.
- 12 Q. And it was just you and Ms. Grimes?
- 13 A. Yes.
- Q. So what did you mean when you said you're
- 15 guilty of having an attraction to her?
- 16 A. I have a friendship attraction to all my
- 17 mentees, you know, I just, you know -- so I don't
- 18 think there's anything in that transcript that you
- 19 just played that is inconsistent with what I just
- 20 said to you, to be quite honest. And so --
- Q. So what did you mean by you can draw the
- 22 line, much to your disappointment?

Page 111

- You heard her chuckle because she knew I
- 2 was kidding her about -- the line drawing is draw a
- 3 line between making decisions based on friendship and
- 4 making decisions based on my responsibilities as
- 5 director of this agency. And I've been very clear
- 6 with Simone throughout this whole process that that's
- 7 always the way -- I don't operate any other way.
- 8 Q. And so do you tell other mentees that you
- 9 think that they are gorgeous?
- A. Oh, yeah, I told a number of my mentees
- 11 that I think they're gorgeous, yeah.
- 12 Q. Did you have an attraction to them?
- A. A friendship attraction, yeah. They
- 14 understand that I'm not, you know, that is part of
- 15 building up their perception of themselves. And part
- 16 of what I'm trying to say there is, look, you know,
- 17 you got to be careful here in a relationship of this
- 18 kind not to have a different opinion of yourself.
- 19 But you also have to be careful about what other
- 20 people's perception of it is.
- So that's gotten more and more difficult
- 22 over the years, I suppose, which is one reason I'm

1 glad my term as a supervisor of anybody is about to

- I glad my term as a supervisor of anybody is about
- 2 end because it's just gotten more and more difficult
- 3 to mentor people. And, equally, you know, you
- 4 really -- you kind of have to understand where I came
- 5 from.
- 6 I practiced law in a civil rights law firm
- 7 that did extensive employment discrimination work.
- 8 And in our firm we really never distinguished between
- 9 men and women in the way -- I mean, the whole
- 10 objective here is to get to a point where you don't
- 11 have to get suspicious if you invite a female to do
- 12 something that you would be not be suspicious
- 13 about if you invited a male to do it. That's
- 14 equality, from my perspective.
- And so I've always tried to approach male
- 16 and female friends and mentees in much the same way.
- 17 And I carry -- for 22 years we fought for that in the
- 18 courts, landmark decisions to do away with employment
- 19 discrimination. When I went to Congress, I took the
- 20 same concept. It's in my DNA. When I came here,
- 21 it's a bigger agency, and I've tried to follow the
- 22 same concept. I haven't had -- well, I've had as

- 1 many friendships, but not as many mentoring
- 2 relationships as I have had, although I've had a
- 3 number in the period that I've been here, not only
- 4 with employees, but with the children of employees.
- So, you know, that's who I am. And now
- 6 I'm not sure that that's, you know -- I'm the first
- 7 to tell you, this is in a sense a wake up call, it's
- 8 a depressing wake up call when I know that there are
- 9 men in this agency who have stayed at my house in
- 10 Charlotte, who have visited in my home, who have
- 11 visited in my condo, who I have much, much closer
- 12 relationships with than the relationship I have with
- The same and remaind the first that the first that the same and the sa
- 13 Ms. Grimes. And somehow the public is now saying
- 14 that kind of equality is unacceptable. And, in my
- view, it's time for me to ride off into the sunset
- bccause the standards have become so confused that
- 17 it's difficult to operate in them.
- But, you know, I don't, you know -- the
- 19 thing that is disappointing to me is, I don't have
- 20 any view that Simone had any opinion that I was
- 21 trying to have a romantic relationship with her.
 - Q. So you --

A. I'm going to invite you, if you don't

- 2 mind, to listen carefully to the May 10 recording.
- 3 Listen to it all the way through, in which we are
- 4 still wrestling with this. Simone called me, I guess
- 5 at the instance of her lawyers, or maybe it was her
- 6 own instance, to ask me if I would help her build a
- 7 timeline of our relationship. And I said, Simone,
- 8 why in the world are you doing that?
- 9 There was nobody more shocked than I was,
- 10 May 10, in that recording. When we got to the end of
- 11 it and Simone said to me that she was -- that her
- 12 lawyers had suggested that she file these harassment
- 13 charges, because I don't believe Simone believes that
- 14 one iota. And, you know, I hope everybody gets all
- 15 of these tapes that -- she says she recorded all of
- 16 them, and puts everything in context.
- But I've done nothing with Simone that I
- 18 believe is improper. Now, you all may -- some court
- 19 may find it's improper. Maybe they won't even allow
- 20 me to talk about the relationship that I've had with
- 21 men in this agency, and previously. But I think
- 22 we're setting ourselves up for a very unequal

Page 116

- 1 A. I don't think you can appreciate it
- 2 without hearing the whole conversation. I hope you
- 3 will --

6

- 4 O. We have the whole conversation?
- A. No, you don't.
 - Q. Tell me what I'm missing?
- 7 A. You're missing a bunch of --
- 8 Q. I'd like you to take this opportunity to
- 9 tell me exactly what we're missing and put it on the
- 10 record.
- 11 A. What we talked about at some length was
- 12 employment options in the agency. This was at the
- 13 end of the year. I thought -- and you're going to
- 14 find this if you get all these recordings. I thought
- 15 that a couple of possibilities existed that could
- 16 play themselves out, and I've discussed those options
- 17 with her.
- 18 Q. What were these, sir, please?
- 19 A. Well, I think you're better off to get the
- 20 tapes and listen to them.
- Q. I'm trying, but I really would like you to
- 22 put everything on the record because we promised that

Page 115

- 1 situation here. And I'm kind of glad I don't have to
- 2 deal with it beyond January 6 of 2019, because that's
- 3 just not the way I have lived the last 22, plus 21,
- 4 almost 5 years of my life now.
- 5 It is difficult for me so -- you know, I
- 6 was surprised when Laura testified that she was
- 7 distinguishing this and that. You know, I assume
- that I'm going to be forthcoming about everything that has happened in this relationship. And if
- 10 somebody says that I've done something wrong and
- 11 somebody has to pay, I will think it would be a sad
- 12 day because I will know that Simone -- Ms. Grimes,
- 13 knows in her heart that there was no effort to pursue
- 14 any kind of romantic relationship with her.
- 15 BY MR. PARKER:
- Q. What were you trying -- what I want to
- 17 understand is, what were you trying to accomplish by
- 18 inviting a young woman to your apartment with soft
- 19 music in the background playing, telling her that
- 20 she's gorgeous and you're attracted to her, but that
- 21 you can draw the line, much to your disappointment?
- 22 What were you trying to accomplish by that?

Page 117

- 1 we would give you an opportunity to put everything on
- 2 the record, all the context. Please take your time
- 3 and give us everything that you think is important.
- 4 A. Well, I'm not going to be able to remember
- 5 every conversation we had, if that's what you're
- 6 suggesting.
 - Q. You can supplement -- I'll come back.
- 8 A. Well, you come back after you get the
- 9 tapes and we'll listen to them, and I'll tell you
- 10 exactly what was being discussed. But one thing --
 - Q. Just continue --
- 12 A. -- I can tell in general, onc thing that
- 1.3 was being discussed was (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 14 (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 15

11

- 16
- 17 possibility that I might consider Ms. Grimes as a
- 18 potential (b)(5);(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- chief of
- 19 staff, because a lot of the skill sets that you
- 20 develop being over the Project Management Office are
- 21 similar, and in fact, very similar to what (b)(6); has

(D)(O), has

22 ended up doing.

Page 31 (118 - 121) Page 120

Marine Contract
lana	118

Washington, DC

- I told her, as I recall, that I was
- 2 pressing (b)(6); to either take the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 3 either by competing for it or by me making a direct
- 4 appointment, because that is a position that I
- 5 could -- that I could make a direct appointment for.
- 6 We had -- that was part of that discussion. And if
- 7 that happened, then that would create an opening in
- 8 an executive level position. And the one thing I
- 9 have done to try to get people who are at level 15
- 10 into executive level positions, is when there is an
- existing open executive level position, make sure
- that we allow people at the 15 level to bid for those
- positions. Don't restrict it to people who are 13
- 14 already --
- But I couldn't promise that she would get 15
- that job, because that would be a competitive
- process. And I've never promised -- I've never 17
- 18 promised Ms. Grimes any position, because -- not even
- the chief of staff position, which I have -- I would
- have complete control over. I believe I said to her,
- 21 you know, I might consider you for that position if
- (b)(6),(goes another route. But, you know, that was

Page 119

- 1 not by any means any kind of offer of employment.
- 2 I've never offered Ms. Grimes any position in this
- 3 agency.
- Q. So you have this conversation where you
- 5 talk to her about the chief of staff position and
- 6 other positions alone with her in your apartment with
- 7 soft music in the background, and then tell her that
- she's gorgeous, you're attracted to her, and you can
- draw the line. I don't get it.
- 10 A. Look, look, look, wait, wait, wait, wait.
- 11 Wait a minute. Wait a minute. Wait a minute.
- 12 Q. I don't get it. Do you see how that
- 13 looks?
- 14 A. Well, you don't get it because you're
- 15 trying to make something of something that doesn't
- 16 exist.
- 17 Q. No, sir.
- 18 I'm at my condo, she walks in, music is
- 19 playing. What am going to do? Cut off the music
- and have a conversation with her. I mean, this
- 21 whole -- hey, you couldn't possibly be above board if
- 22 you got soft music playing in the background.

- 1 Q. It doesn't help.
- 2 Well, okay. That's your perception.
- 3 MR. FAY: That's Mr. Parker's perception.
- 4 THE WITNESS: That's Mr. Parker's
- perception. And so you all can make whatever you
- 6 want of it. You get the tapes and you all can write
- 7 your report. I'm telling you what happened. And I'm
- 8 trying to be as forthcoming as I can be.
- 9 BY MR. PARKER:
- 10 Q. Any other part of that you want to tell us
- 11 about because I'd like to ask you a few questions if
- 12 you've given us all the context that you feel is
- 13 relevant?
- That's the context that I recall. 14
- 15 Q. Is there anything else?
- 16 A. I don't know, there may be. I'd have to
- 17 hear the tape to --
- 18 Which tape would you like to hear, sir?
- 19 A. The one that you haven't gotten,
- 20 apparently because she's refused to produce all the
- 21 tapes.
- 22 What would it tell us, sir? What would it

- 1 tell us?
- A. I just told you what it would tell you.
- Q. Okay. So is there anything else you'd
- 4 like to add? Take your time?
- 5 BY MS. CHOY:
- Q. The recording that we listened to earlier,
- 7 it suggested that you had a previous conversation
- with Ms. Grimes regarding --
- 9 A number of them.
- 10 A number of them.
- 11 Yeah.
- 12 So how often have you had that
- 13 conversation with her?
- 14 The Rosa Mexicano was the primary one,
- 15 which kind of -- actually, it was the only one that I
- 16 initiated. I initiated that Rosa Mexicano meeting
- 17 because of my concerns. I just testified about that.
- 18 Q. And you said that she was showing up at
- 19 your office at odd hours. What was that -- what were
- 20 the hours?
- 21 Well, you know, if somebody – if somebody
- 22 comes by the desk (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

		-
1	Page 122 (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) is not going to let them in, if she's	1	Page 124 why I was going to sit here and look at your
Office	there, without coming and announcing them. Now, they		colleague there until you all get the tapes before I
3	still get in, but they but the number of times	3	made anymore comments about them.
4	that Ms. Grimes was showing up unannounced with (b)(6)	4	Q. Again, when you said, much to your
5	not being there is really what the frequency and	5	disappointment after you made the comment about you
6	the timing of them is what I got I started to get	6	know how to draw the line. What did you mean by much
7	suspicious about.	7	to your disappointment?
8	Q. What time does (b)() eave the office?	8	A. That was a joke, and she laughed, which
9	A. I don't know. Back at that time there	9	and I laughed because she knew I was joking.
10	were different flex schedules. I don't know.	10	Q. You were joking about?
11	Q. In that first conversation where you said	11	A. About if she thought I had any kind
12	you can draw the line. What was Ms. Grimes' response	12	attraction to her.
13	to that?	13	Q. Physical or sexual attraction?
14	A. Which conversation are we talking about?	14	A. Right.
15	Q. When you said, I can draw the line?	15	Q. You mentioned a lot earlier that in the
16	A. Are you talking about the Rosa Mexicano?	16	same conversation, actually, on the if we agree
17	Q. Well, you said that was the first	17	that's on November 2016, that you had been talking to
18	conversation where you had the	18	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
19	A. Which conversation are you talking about?	19	A. I'm sorry.
20	Q. So you said the first time you talked	20	Q. You were talking to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) about
21	about attraction was at Rosa Mexicano, right?	21	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
22	Setting up the expectations and discussing did you	22	A. Yes, for several years now I tried to get beaming of the expectations and discussing and you	770
_	Page 123		TO SECURE A SECURE A SECURE AND A SECURE ASSESSMENT ASSESS
1	Page 123 tell her then also that you knew how you knew	1	Page 125
1 2	Committee of the commit	1 2	TO SECURE A SECURE A SECURE AND A SECURE ASSESSMENT ASSESS
1	tell her then also that you knew how you knew		Page 125
2	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line?	2	Page 125
2	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah.	3	Page 125
2 3 4	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response?	2 3 4	Page 125
2 3 4 5 6	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know	2 3 4 5	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position?
2 3 4 5 6	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the	2 3 4 5	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position?
2 3 4 5 6 7	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever	2 3 4 5 6 7	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(h)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had h)(7)(C) had been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had h)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had h)(7)(C) been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not well-founded. And, actually, I was relieved, to be	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it, whether I went through a posting or whether I didn't
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not well-founded. And, actually, I was relieved, to be quite honest, because, you know, I have no interest	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(h)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(h)(7)(C) been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it, whether I went through a posting or whether I didn't go through a posting. Whether I just because I
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not well-founded. And, actually, I was relieved, to be quite honest, because, you know, I have no interest	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it, whether I went through a posting or whether I didn't go through a posting. Whether I just because I had the authority to make that appointment. I can
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not well-founded. And, actually, I was relieved, to be quite honest, because, you know, I have no interest in shadowing something. Q. So I'm clear, that's what made her feel	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had h)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had h)(7)(C) whether I went the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it, whether I went through a posting or whether I didn't go through a posting. Whether I just because I had the authority to make that appointment. I can shift executives existing executives around. I
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	tell her then also that you knew how you knew where to draw the line? A. Yes. Yeah. Q. What was her response? A. She said, great. I mean, you know Q. Okay. Did she ever say that the statements you've made to her, to Ms. Grimes, ever made her feel uncomfortable? A. Yeah, she said that. But she you notice at the end of that statement she was very clear that if she had done something to give me that impression, she did not intend to. And that was really, from my perspective, the key part of what she was saying, because she was saying, clearly, you know, you've misinterpreted my suspicions were not well-founded. And, actually, I was relieved, to be quite honest, because, you know, I have no interest in shadowing something. Q. So I'm clear, that's what made her feel	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Page 125 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Q. But you understand (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) position? A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I've been appreciative of that. Q. Did you ever consider posting it for a (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) A. Well, yes, but I thought after (b)(6);(had been in the position for awhile, if he wanted the position, he would be the logical person to get it, whether I went through a posting or whether I didn't go through a posting. Whether I just because I had the authority to make that appointment. I can shift executives existing executives around. I have that authority. I have not done it, but I do

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 4

Part 3 of 3

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy and their input during the deliberative process.

	Page 126		Page 128
1	multiple occasions that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	1	wasn't in all of them, but (b)(6),(b)(7)(s the primary
2	b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	2	person, but she was involved in a lot of those
3	Q. So I think you have the transcript of the	3	discussions preparing us for the meetings that we had
4	recording, but we can also put it as an exhibit.	4	directly at the top level with the Inspector General.
5	That first page of the conversation. So	5	Q. This might be part of the recording that
6	Ms. Grimes, says: Is there, I mean, either position	6	you were talking about, I can play the recording or
7	seems, from my perspective, I think to be qualified	7	we can look at the transcript. This is part of that
8	for. What other position was she what were you	8	same
9	discussing with her?	9	A. Can I give a copy to the court reporter?
10	A. I think she probably thought she would be	10	No, this is consistent with what I have been saying.
11	qualified to bid for (b)(6),(b) position. I couldn't	11	And so our original plan was to at least one of
12	have appointed her to that position, she would have	12	the options that we were looking at was to try to
13	had to bid for it. And that was one of the things	13	bring you into $(b)(6),(b)$ office, and that would have
14	that I was saying to her, I'm trying to get(b)(6):(to	14	put you in line (b)(6):(b)(7)(C) to become chief
	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	15	of staff. So, yeah, that was one of the options we
16	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	16	looked at.
17	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	17	We decided(b)(5)
18	(b)(6),(b)(7)(C) So she thought she would be	18	(b)(5)
19	qualified for that position. And the other position,	19
20	as I recall, was the chief of staff position. So	20
21	that's if you get the rest of the transcript or	21
22	the recording, I think you'll see what the positions	22
	Page 127		Page 129
1	Page 127 were.	1	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7)
2	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in		Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or
2	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer?		Q. That was discussed with (b)(6),(b)(7) (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I
3 4	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This	3	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at
2 3 4 5	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my	3 4 5	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page
2 3 4 5	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either	3 4 5	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few
2 3 4 5	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was	3 4 5	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to	2 3 4 5	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she	2 3 4 5 6 7	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (c)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6):(b)(7)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7) is the way we	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(d)(d) it was with the ultimate
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7) is the way we pronounce it in North Carolina. But a lot of the	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(d) it was with the ultimate purpose of her becoming (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But she
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) either of staff, and a lot	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But she decided she didn't want the position, so I didn't
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7) is the way we pronounce it in North Carolina. But a lot of the things that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) chief of staff, and a lot of that is — some of it, I shouldn't say a lot of	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) But she decided she didn't want the position, so I didn't you know, I wasn't going to push somebody. It wasn't
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) thief of staff, and a lot of that is — some of it, I shouldn't say a lot of it, but some of it is running interference and	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (c)(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) decided she didn't want the position, so I didn't you know, I wasn't going to push somebody. It wasn't that (b)(6);(was doing you know, I just thought he
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Page 127 Were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7) is the way we pronounce it in North Carolina. But a lot of the things that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) chief of staff, and a lot of that is — some of it, I shouldn't say a lot of it, but some of it is running interference and managing our relationship with the IG's office.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) but the decided she didn't want the position, so I didn't you know, I wasn't going to push somebody. It wasn't that (b)(6);(was doing you know, I just thought he was getting older and at some point he would probably
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Page 127 were. Q. So you thought she was qualified to be in the chief of staff or chief operating officer? A. No, she thought she was qualified. This is her saying, I mean, either position seems, from my perspective, I think I would be qualified for either position. So it was clear that she thought she was qualified. And I thought she would be qualified to be considered for either position. Now, whether she would get either position would be a function of who else was being considered. So, yeah. I mean, as I previously testified, a lot of the PMO skills are consistent with what (b)(6);(b)(7) does, as (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) something like that. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) thief of staff, and a lot of that is — some of it, I shouldn't say a lot of it, but some of it is running interference and	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. That was discussed with (b)(6);(b)(7) A. Probably with Ms. Grimes, or in my mind I don't know who I discussed it with. But that was at least one of the options. And up at the top of page 2 so, anyway, we have been looking at a few different scenarios. I wanted to move (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) really came in wanting to be (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) she's found a different niche, and she wants to do more policy stuff rather than (b)(6); stuff. So, that is true. It's not a secret. It is not a secret to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) knew when we hired (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) decided she didn't want the position, so I didn't you know, I wasn't going to push somebody. It wasn't that (b)(6);() was doing you know, I just thought he was getting older and at some point he would probably want to retire, and I've had that discussion with

Me	lvin L. Watt Washing	ton	10/11/2018 i, DC Page 34 (130 - 133)
	Page 130		Page 132
1	Q. So given the conversation with Ms. Grimes	1	probably was going to get that job, but that wouldn't
2	about the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	2	mean that she wouldn't be able viable applicant. And
3	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) would you say that you	3	that wouldn't have been something that I would have
4	thought she had potential to be an executive?	4	controlled, other than ultimately, because for a
5	A. I think she would certainly have had the		position like that we would have had at least three qualifications to be considered for those positions.		people go through the interview process, and they
	Every one of them other than the chief of staff would		would filter they would narrow the list down to have had to be a competitive position. And I		hopefully one, and they would make a recommendation.
	probably would have made the chief of staff a		Or they would at least narrow it down to not more competitive position. The only reason I didn't make	10	than three, and then I would interview them. That's it competitive when I hired (b)(6).(was because she	11 was basically a political appointee. She was a	12	had a wide range of people applying for that 13	political appointee. So I didn't have to go	13	position, both internal and external. And the
14	through but if I were filling that position with	14
15	internal people or somebody from inside, I would bid	15	people, and then I interviewed those three people and
16	it, yes. I would definitely have required people to	16	selected the person.
17	compete for it. And I would have thought that Ms.	17	But, you know, there are different
18	Grimes would have been one of the people who, if she	18	processes that we followed on these, but it could not
19	applied, would be considered because of her PMO	19	have gotten to me without her going through a
20	background and the similarities of some of the	20	different process. The only one that could have
21	duties.	21	gotten to me without going through other processes,
22	Q. Were there any other positions that you	22	theoretically, would have been the chief of staff
	Page 131		Page 133
1	discussed with Ms. Grimes?	1	position. And I can tell you, if I was filling that
2	A. I don't recall having any other	2	position internally as opposed to bringing somebody
3	discussions about any other positions.	3	in from outside as a political appointee, which is
4	Q. And you conclude that Ms. Grimes had the	4	what we did with (b)(6);(I can assure you, I would
5	qualifications to compete for these positions based	5	E1/71/01
6	on your interactions with her?	6	people unhappy without going through the process.
7		7	Q. So did you have in mind your discussions
8	24	8	with Ms. Grimes about her interest in becoming an
9		9	executive when you approved (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) request
10		10	for a new executive position in OCOO?
11	-47 PT 4 TY WARREN	11	A. I assumed she was going to apply for the
12		12	position when he created it, but and she did
13	V. Bistovilla series and a resident series and series are series and series and series and series are series and series and series are series and series and series are series and series are series and series and series are series are series are series and series are series are series a	13	apply. But I didn't know who the who the would have thought would have been a viable candidate	14
15		15
16	\(\lambda(C)\)	16
17	2 magnetic - 10 mars - 10	17	point that she had become the unanimous choice.
18		18	Q. Did you have any discussions with Ms.
19	(7)(0)	19	Grimes when the job was announced about that
20	multiple existing executives who would want that	20	position?

21

21 position. She would have been competing with (b)(6)

22 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) you know. And so no way a level 15

A. No, I think I tried to stay away from that 22 because I didn't -- I really didn't want any 14

۱

- 1 appearance issues. I kind of sensed that
- 2 November 2016 meeting, I mean, you know, I've seen
- 3 Simone around, you know, comment on her shoes. She's
- 4 a big shoe person. We always joke about her shoes.
- 5 You know. But aside from that, I haven't seen a lot
- 6 of Simone since November of 2016. I'm not saying 1
- 7 haven't seen her at all, and there wasn't any reason
- 8 for me to go seeking her out.
- 9 I did call her after the investigation
- was -- the investigation of the hotline complaints 10
- found no impropriety, I called her, and said, hey, we 11
- have a letter now, and I think we're going to be able
- to start the process. But even then -- and at that 13
- point I think in that conversation, I think that be 14
- 15 the May 8 conversation, I said, I have been advised
- 16 that you were the selected candidate. But I didn't
- have any real personal knowledge of that even at that 17
- 18 point.
- 19 And then I called her back two days later,
- 20 and said to her, I may have misled you on the time
- 21 that this -- that this thing will move because now
- 22 that I've got the letter, it says we got to wait

Page 135

- 1 13 days, and I just didn't want you to be sitting by
- 2 the phone waiting on somebody to call you about it.
- 3 And it was in that conversation that she indicated to
- 4 me that either she had or was in the process of
- 5 filing a sexual harassment claim. And at that point
- 6 I cut off the discussion completely. And that is a
- very interesting conversation.
- Q. Right. You just said that you told her she
- got the job and that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) would be reaching
- 10 out to her, if I recall correctly, from the May 8
- 11 call?
- A. Yeah. I told her the process was going to 12
- 13 start again, it still had to come to me to sign off
- 14 on it. And to tell you how much I went out of way to
- 15 avoid any appearance issues. And once she told me
- she had filed these charges, when the file came to
- 17 me, I immediately delegated it -- the decision to
- (b)(6),(b) and didn't even tell her why I was delegating
- it, because I didn't want to negatively influence her
- 20 selection for the position, even though she had told
- 21 me she was filing these charges.
- 22 Q. Why do you think she filed the complaint?

- A. Well, it's only speculation, and I can
- 2 only speculate based on what I've heard on the tape.
- 3 But when somebody gets to the point, and says, my
- 4 lawyers think this is a good strategy, which is what
- 5 she says on the tape -- and I'm going along with my
- 6 lawyers. I mean, the only conclusion I could reach
- is that her lawyers thought that by adding this
- sexual harassment allegation is going to somehow
- enhance the value of her claim. But I don't know
- 10 that. I mean, I'm just telling you what my
- conclusion was based on your hearing what she said to
- 12 me in that phone conversation.
- 13 So to go back to earlier about the
- 14 attraction -- your conversation about attraction and
- 15 that it was about friendship, not sexual or physical
- attraction. So at any point in time did you have a
- 17 physical relationship with Ms. Grimes?
- 18 A. No, she's testified about that. She's on
- 19 record -- look at page -- I quoted that to the
- 20 committee. I think it's on page 45 of the -- where
- 21 she specifically says, no groping, no hand-holding,
- 22 no touching, no kissing, no sexual relations of any

- 1 kind because there has been none. There has been
- 2 none.
- And, you know, even in this conversation
- on November, whenever it was, November of 2016, I
- went out of my way to sit on one side of the room and
- 6 she sat on the other side of the room. I mean, you
- know, because there was just not going to be any kind
- 8 of relationship there, and I knew that, and I was
- comfortable with that. I think even if you listen to
- 10 that tape, you'll find that I said, I have no
- 11 reservations about this, because, you know, I knew
- 12 nothing was going on between me and Ms. Grimes.
- 13 So no hugs?
- A. The only -- the only time I ever hugged 14
- 15 Simone, that I can recall, was when she came to (b)(6);(b)

- 16 (b)(6);(b) going away reception. And I reached out my
- 17 hand to shake her hand, and she pulled me in, and
- 18 said, we're not on the job now, or something to that
- effect. This gives me an opportunity to clarify
- 20 something for you because --
- 21 O. Please.
- 22 -- which will probably confuse you, it

- 1 confused me at first, because she was saying that
- 2 this conversation that we had about the PMO office
- 3 was in 2016, it was actually in 2015.
- Q. You mean the conversation about the PMO --
- 5 the function of PMO and --
- The one over in southeast.
- Q. Right. Your very first conversation. You
- said 2015? 8
- 9 A. It was 2015, it was not 2016. And she was
- 10 also very mistaken about -- I'm just free-flowing
- 11 now. I'm trying to help you-all's investigation.
- 12 She's also mistaken about the date of (b)(6):(b)(7)(C)
- 13 leaving the agency. That was in 2014. She says it
- 14 was in 2015. It was actually because -- and the
- reason it confused me is because I knew that on the
- date she said whatever conversation took place, which
- 17 I think was the day that I said to her, do the memo,
- or maybe I had already told her to do the memo, and I
- said, let's have a discussion about the memo. But
- 20 she's a whole year off on that equation, because the
- 21 day she says that that conversation took place, the
- 22 conversation -- the conversation itself what she says

Page 139

- 1 is inaccurate, but the date is also inaccurate,
- 2 because I was on a train to New York on the date that
- 3 she says that conversation took place.
- Q. This is the conversation where she says
- you approached her and said there is an attraction --
- an attraction that you need to explore?
- A. Yeah, she says that that's what the - conversation was about, but I don't believe that was
- what the conversation was about at all.
- 10 Q. So what was it?
- A. I approached her, and said, either do the 11
- 12 PMO memo or we need to have a discussion about the
- 13 PMO memo that you've already done. And it must have
- 14 been -- let's arrange to have a discussion about the
- 15 PMO memo so that I could understand more about what
- 16 the PMO office does. But there was not any kind of
- discussion about any kind of attraction in that 17
- 18 meeting. That was 2015.
- Q. I think she said September 2015 was (b)(6);(b)(19

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 20

- 21 It was September 2014. Go back and -- I
- 22 can help you because I tried to put the time line

Page 140

- 1 together myself. I'm trying to find the actual
- 2 documents. Yeah, I got them.
- Q. Uh-huh. Yes. Announcement for (b)(6);(b)(

- (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 5 MR. PARKER: Can we have a copy of that
- 6 because if we talk about it, I think it would be
- 7 helpful to anybody reading the transcript to have it
- as an exhibit.

13

- THE WITNESS: I assume you all would
- recover it from your document search, but I'm happy
- 11 to give you a copy of it.
- 12 MR. PARKER: That would be wonderful.
 - THE WITNESS: And with that -- and put it
- 14 in the record I can give you a copy of that, too,
- 15 which says that on that date in 2015, I wasn't even
- 16 in the office. So I know that conversation didn't
- 17 take place. So, yeah, I would be happy to make a
- 18 copy of it for you.
- 19 MR. PARKER: Do you want to give it to me
- 20 and I'll put a sticker on it. I'll put a sticker on
- 21 it and put it in the record, if that's all right.
- 22 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Well, I don't want a

Page 141

- 1 sticker on -- let me make a copy of it. I'll run up
- 2 there quickly and make a copy of it.
- MR. PARKER: I appreciate that, sir.
- 4 Thank you very much. So we are going to mark, ma'am,
- next both the (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)has earned is passport
- 6 to retirement poster, and Mr. Watt's calendar, as the - next two exhibits in the series, please. Thank you,
- 8 Mr. Watt.
- 9 (Exhibit No. 11 was marked for
- 10 identification.)
- 11 (Exhibit No. 12 was marked for
- 12 identification.)
- 13 THE WITNESS: Are we finished?
 - MR. PARKER: I'm thanking you for the
- 15 exhibit.

14

- 16 THE WITNESS: I thought you were saying --
- 17 BY MS. CHOY:
- Q. You said earlier --18
- 19 I thought that was a pretty abrupt ending.
- 20 Go ahead.
- 21 MR. PARKER: Thank you for the exhibits.
- 22 BY MS. CHOY:

	wasning	Stor	Page 37 (142 - 145)
1	Page 142	,	Page 144
2	Q. You said you had other mentees at FHFA?	2	that right?
	A. Yes.		THE WITNESS: No. No. Well, in a sense
3	Q. Others that you had invited to your home?		that we have played golf together and she's given me
4	A. Yes.		advice about tech stuff. And I've talked to her
5	Q. Could you identify some of these mentees?		about she actually left the agency there, she
6	A. The one that I have probably the closest	l	retired, and I talked to her at that point about her
7	relationship with is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) We regularly	7	future plans, and where she was moving to. So I
8	play golf together. I don't know if he's been to my	8	wouldn't necessarily characterize it as an ongoing
9	condo here, but he's spent the night at my house in	9	mentoring relationship, no.
10	Charlotte, and has been to my home in Charlotte on	10	BY MS. CHOY:
11	more than one occasion. So that's probably the	11	Q. So no one else. No other female mentees
12	closest one.	12	have visited your home in D.C.?
13	I mentored six kids, one of whom is the	13	A. No.
14	son of $(b)(6)(b)(7)(C)$ and five of his high school	14	Q. Should I have her mark it?
15	graduating classmates, the first year I got here.	15	MR. PARKER: Can you mark it. I'll give
16	And (b)(6),(b) asked me if I would just sit and talk to	16	you the original, sir you should give the court
17	them. I said, sure. Bring them up here and we'll	17	reporter back the exhibits. You're done with, sir.
18	have lunch. So we had lunch. And lo and behold,	18	THE WITNESS: A and B. These are not
19	four years later, five of the six came back, getting	19	mine, that's what I'm getting confused about. What
20	ready to graduate from college, and we had another		is mine and what is yours? I guess
21	session.	21	MR, PARKER: You can take them back.
22	So, you know, (b)(6);(b) and I have been, you	22	Those were just for your convenience while we asked
_	Page 143		Page 145
1	know, I think I consider her a mentee.	1	questions.
2	Q. Has she been to your home?	2	THE WITNESS: I'm trying to make sure we
3	A. No, but I invited her to come to my home.	3	don't give you back something that was mine.
4	She was actually there last weekend for she was in	4	MR. PARKER: Thank you, Mr. Watt.
5	Charlotte for a Facilitates Management Convention	5	(Exhibit No. 13 was marked for that was taking place, and I invited her to come.	6	identification.)
	She wasn't able to come, but I invited her.	7	(Exhibit No. 14 was marked for
8	Q. Any other female mentees that have been to	8	identification.)
9			identification.)
	your home or met you at your home in D.C.?	9	ACAMBANIAN PROPERTY CONTROL OF THE C
10	your home or met you at your home in D.C.? A. No. Well, the person who was over the	9	BY MS. CHOY:
10 11	A. No. Well, the person who was over the	10	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy
11	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6),(b) ast name who was over the tech group	10 11	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal
11 12	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is $(b)(6),(b)$ ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together,	10 11 12	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number?
11 12 13	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(7)(C) I played golf I'll have to I can't	10 11 12 13	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes.
11 12 13 14	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);() I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name.	10 11 12 13 14	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text
11 12 13 14 15	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) is her first name?	10 11 12 13 14 15	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The
11 12 13 14 15	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);() I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);() is her first name? A. (b)(6);() is her first name.	10 11 12 13 14 15 16	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017?
11 12 13 14 15 16	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);(I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);(is her first name? A. (b)(6);(is her first name. Q. But she was at my condo to set up my home	10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017? A. Uh-huh.
11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);() I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);() is her first name? A. (b)(6);() is her first name. Q. But she was at my condo to set up my home computing capabilities with the office, not in kind	10 11 12 13 14 15 16	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017? A. Uh-huh. Q. It shows that you had a communication
11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);(1) played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);(1) is her first name? A. (b)(6);(1) is her first name. Q. But she was at my condo to set up my home computing capabilities with the office, not in kind of a at that time, I mean, it was just work at	10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017? A. Uh-huh. Q. It shows that you had a communication about — Ms. Grimes reached out to you to schedule a
11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);() I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);() is her first name? A. (b)(6);() is her first name. Q. But she was at my condo to set up my home computing capabilities with the office, not in kind of a at that time, I mean, it was just work at that time, but she's been there before.	10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017? A. Uh-huh. Q. It shows that you had a communication about Ms. Grimes reached out to you to schedule a meeting to chat at 2:30 p.m., and you said, okay.
11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A. No. Well, the person who was over the what is (b)(6);(b) ast name who was over the tech group has been to my home. And we played golf together, (b)(6);() I played golf I'll have to I can't remember her last name. Q. (b)(6);() is her first name? A. (b)(6);() is her first name. Q. But she was at my condo to set up my home computing capabilities with the office, not in kind of a at that time, I mean, it was just work at that time, but she's been there before.	10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	BY MS. CHOY: Q. So this exhibit, the first page is a copy of the contact information. Is that your personal cell phone number? A. Yes. Q. And the next two are copies of text messages, exchanges between you and Ms. Grimes. The first one is dated January 4, 2017? A. Uh-huh. Q. It shows that you had a communication about Ms. Grimes reached out to you to schedule a

Page 146

- Q. Ms. Grimes --
- 2 A. 8:37 a.m. Is that not the one --
- 3 O. Yes. So that's when the text exchange
- 4 begins. So it was January 4, 2017, 8:37 a.m.
- 5 A. Okay.
- 6 Q. Right. And the first text comes from Ms.
- 7 Grimes where she says, Happy New Year. Do you have
- 8 time to chat today? And your response: Sure. Any
- 9 time after noon probably would be better. She says:
- 10 Does 2:30 work. And you say: Okay. Great. Thanks.
- Do you recall having that meeting with Ms.
- 12 Grimes, this is the January 2017?
- A. I don't have any recollection of it, but
- 14 obviously we had this exchange. I hope you get the
- 15 recording of it.
- Q. So when she reaches out to have meetings
- 17 with you, do you put it in your personal calendar?
- A. No. I don't have a personal calendar. I
- 19 don't have any calendar other than the official
- 20 calendar. I don't keep a personal calendar.
- Q. The next one is dated May 25, 2017, it
- 22 starts at 9 a.m.

Page 147

- A. Uh-huh.
- 2 Q. So you can see it in the next page as
- 3 well. And Ms. Grimes says: We should have a
- 4 conversation. Your response was: Stop by after the
- 5 CC meeting this morning?
- 6 A. Uh-huh.
- 7 Q. She tells you she's not in today, and that
- 8 she will check your schedule for the -- following the
- 9 holiday weekend. So do you recall having a meeting
- 10 with her after that Memorial Day weekend, this is in
- 11 2017?
- 12 A. I don't recall. I don't recall. No.
- 13 Q. So you stated that after November 2016 you
- 14 didn't see Ms. Grimes as frequently?
- 15 A. That is correct.
- Q. But you did see her in the office?
- 17 A. Yes. Uh-huh.
- Q. In addition to the conservatorship
- 19 committee meetings and the OIG liaison meetings, you
- 20 did have meetings with her onsite, one-on-one in
- 21 2017?
- 22 A. Yeah, probably. Yes.

1 Q. And do you recall what those conversations

- 2 would have covered?
- A. Whatever she wanted to talk about. I
- 4 wasn't initiating the meetings, so -- I mean, I've
- 5 told you about the meetings I initiated with her. So
- 6 whatever she wanted to talk about, I mean, we would
- 7 talk about.
- 8 Q. Any recollection of what some of those
- 9 topics might have been?
- 10 A. I won't read what I wrote. It could have
- 11 been music. It could have been walking. It could
- 12 have been automobiles. It could have been travel.
- 13 You know -- and the timeframes that we had
- 14 conversations, I mean, I just -- I can't put
- 15 timeframes on it, but those are the kinds of things
- 16 that I remember having conversations with her about.
- 17 I can't tell you the time sequence in which they
- 18 occurred.
- 19 Q. So these were in 2017, did you continue to
- 20 have one-on-one meetings with her in 2018 of this
- 21 year?
- 22 A. Yes. Not frequently, but yes.

- 1 Q. So not frequently as in maybe once a month
- 2 or once every other month?
- 3 A. I don't know that I can put a frequency on
- 4 it, but if she has all of the recordings, all of
- 5 them, I encourage you to get them because I don't
- 6 think you're going to find a lot of them, you know.
- 7 The one I can tell you about, I mean, I can tell you
- 8 the ones that I know about specifically, if you want
- the ones that I know about specifically, if you make
- 9 to kind of cut to the chase.
- 10 O. Please.
- 11 A. And you probably have -- you probably have
- 12 text messages or something about those, so why don't
- 13 I just wait for you to ask your questions. I'll wait
- 14 on you.
- MR. PARKER: Can you give that to the
- 16 court reporter, Mr. Watt. Thank you, sir.
- 17 BY MS. CHOY:
- 18 Q. Do you recall something?
- 19 A. No, I was trying to put this -- I tried to
- 20 go back and kind of construct my own timeline. And I
- 21 was trying to put this into that timeline. But I
- 22 don't see anything that would allow me to do that.

_		•
2	160
-aue	1 711

- 1 May 25, 2017. Unlike Ms. Grimes, I was not recording
- 2 or keeping a calendar on these things. So, I mean,
- 3 I've had to go back and try to piece together as best
- 4 I can what I remember the sequence of events being.
- Q. So when we start turning away from the
- 6 2017 text messages, you were starting to talk about
- 7 2018?
- 8 A. Yeah, but I decided to wait on you all to
- 9 get to 2018. I assume you'll get there, so I'm happy
- 10 to answer any questions about it.
- 11 Q. Actually, would you give us permission to
- 12 retrieve those text messages from your phone?
- 13 A. Huh?
- 14 Q. Would you give -- you said you delete your
- 15 text messages as soon as you're finished responding
- 16 or reading them, we don't have the 2018 text
- 17 messages.
- 18 A. I thought you did. I thought they were --
- MR. PARKER: We're talking text messages
- 20 on your phone.
- 21 THE WITNESS: Oh, text messages.
- MR. PARKER: We don't have any for 2018.

- THE WITNESS: There might be text messages.
- 2 Maybe phone messages. Do you have phone messages?
- 3 MS. CHOY: We have a couple --
- 4 THE WITNESS: There weren't a lot of them
- 5 because there wasn't anything to talk about. I
- 6 mean --
- 7 BY MS. CHOY:
- 8 Q. So what you're referring to are not text
- 9 messages in 2018, you're saying there were either
- 10 phone messages or conversations. I'm trying to
- 11 understand what kind of --
- A. Right. Right. I mean, I don't really,
- 13 from my own perspective, I delete text messages. I
- 14 delete phone messages or phone, you know, my phone
- 15 automatically deletes after 20 days phone -- the
- 16 phone calls that come in. I don't even have to
- 17 necessarily go back and do that.
- 18 MR. PARKER: If we had text messages from
- 19 2017 and 2018, would it give us a fuller
- 20 understanding of the context of your relationship,
- 21 such as it was with Ms. Grimes?
- 22 THE WITNESS: No, not from the text

- 1 messages.
- 2 MR. PARKER: What would help us?
- 3 THE WITNESS: It would probably give you
- 4 an indication of when we had -- when we had
- 5 conversations, because typically I don't either by
- 6 phone or text, certainly not by text, strike up a
- 7 conversation with somebody. I mean, you know, if
- 8 somebody wants to talk to me, either call me on the
- 9 phone or come see me. I'm not a big text messaging
- 10 guy. You know, I will text, but as you have already
- 11 seen, my texts are pretty short. So you're not —
- 12 you know, so what it might give you is an indication
- 13 of when there was a conversation, and it might spur
- 14 my memory about what the conversation was about. But
- 15 I think if what she's saying is I've recorded every
- 16 phone -- every conversation we've had since 2016,
- 17 then the best evidence of that would be the
- 18 recordings, which is exactly what I've been saying
- 19 all along.
- 20 I mean that's why I've been anxious to
- 21 get all of the recordings, because I think if you
- 22 looked at this in its totality, it won't be me

- pursuing Ms. Grimes, it won't necessarily be her
- 2 pursuing me either, but it will be her initiating
- 3 conversations with me, a lot more than me initiating
- 4 conversations with her.
- 5 And there won't be many of either one of
- 6 those things, I think, in 2017, 2018. In 2016 there
- 7 may be more of them, but after -- there's just not
- 8 much there. Now, if you got phone recordings -- do
- 9 you have recordings of anything in 2018?
- 10 BY MS. CHOY:
- Q. We discussed the May 8th and May 10th
- 12 call, right? You have said when you talked to Ms.
- 13 Grimes after (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 14 (b)(6),(b)(7 in relation to the selection for the new
- 15 position. But if there's any other conversations you
- 16 recall, that would be helpful in giving us context,
- 17 we'd appreciate you let using us know.
- 18 A. Well, I think you're better off -- if she
- 19 says she's got all of the phone conversations and the
- 20 conversations we've ever had, I think you're better
- 21 off --
- MR. PARKER: We don't have them at this

	Washing	ioi	n, DC Page 40 (154 - 157)
	Page 154		Page 156
1	time. Right? You know that because it's in	1	MR. PARKER: It looks like Ms. Choy might
2	litigation.	2	have a question.
3	THE WITNESS: Come back and talk to me	3	MS. CHOY: I do.
4	after you have them.	4	BY MS. CHOY:
5	MR. PARKER: For right now, sir, whatever	5	Q. It's page 2 on the top. So that is the
6	you want to put on the record, whatever you want to	6	one where the conversation begins. It's highlighted
7	tell us about this relationship, we're willing to	7	in yellow. I just want you to explain and provide
8	give you	8	some context to that statement when you say: Is it
9	THE WITNESS: This is not about a	9	better to go through a charade process to get you the
10	relationship.	10	job or is it better for me just to give you the job?
11	MR. PARKER: I have a relationship with	11	A. This is about (b)(6);(b) This is not about
12	you, Mr. Watt. I'm one of your subordinate offices.	12	Ms. Grimes. And I've already told you, I told (b)(6);(b)
13	I am not suggesting anything untoward. So if there's	13	that I thought (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
14	anything that you want to tell us about this, please.	14	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) And there were two ways that we
15	MR. FAY: It's pretty frustrating, I	15	could do this, either if he wanted the job.
16	mean, we expected a Q and A, that is what you	16	The state of the s
17	represented this would be. This is not one of these,	17
18	you know, cell block interrogations where you tell	18
19	me anything about that you feel like telling us.	19	me, given the fact that by this time he had been in
20	I mean, he's answered every single question, and you	20
21	doubled the estimated time we're going to be here.	21	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) By this time he had been in the
22	And whatever you asked him he's going to respond to.	22	job over two years, right?
	Page 155		Page 157
1		1	And so and I'm inviting you to look at
2	MR. PARKER: Do you have anything else	2	his annual performance reviews because every year I
3	you'd like to tell us about, sir?	3	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
4	THE WITNESS: No not I mean, I have my	4
5	own timeline.	5	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
6	MR. PARKER: Do you want	6	(b)(6),(But the first couple of times I went to him,
7	THE WITNESS: I don't think that's	7
8	relevant to any hotline complaints. I'm certainly	8	either appoint you or we can go through the bid
9		9	process. And (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
10	sequence what I believe the sequence was, but, you	10	E-10 a selico
11	san a arang ar	11
12	THE RESIDENCE OF STREET	12
13	White the second of the second	13
14	ACMANA AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	14
15		15	And so you didn't highlight the first part
16		16
17		17	35.63
18		18
19		19
20	100 AN	20	THE REPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF
21	The same of the sa	21	(/L)(C)-/L
	proceeding going on parallel to this and —	1	with Ms. Grimes. So you might do yourself a favor
122

Redactions on this page concern individuals who are not subjects of the investigation. The text is redacted to protect their privacy.

	Page 158		Page 160
1	and highlight the first line of that, too, and not	1	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2	just pick up with the second line, because it's clear	2	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
3	if you go back up above that that we're not talking	3	(b)(6)(b)(7)(C) going to, you know that litigation is
4	about Ms. Grimes, we're talking about is(b)(6);(going	4	still pending. You know, it started in 2014, a
5	to be interested in this taking this position, and if	5	couple of months after I came here.
6	he is going to be interested in taking the position,	6	So there's a remote possibility that the
7	then that might open up an opportunity for you to bid	7	next director (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
8	for the position that he is vacating.	8	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
9	Q. You were saying charade process because	9	think it's remote, but it could happen. So, you
10	you would have selected him?	10	know, there was yeah, you know, you know, as he
11	A. I felt like I felt like from my	11	stayed in the position longer and longer, he's gotten
12	perspective, two years into this, am I going to go	12	more engaged in making decisions that are longer term
13	and start over with (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	13	with a longer view. But this was 2016, we're talking
14	mean, you know, I would have been prepared to appoint	14	about. And, you know, he got two more years under
15	him to the position without competition. But as it	15	his belt by now.
16	turned out.(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	16	Q. So you're saying that his prior
17	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	17	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
18		18
19		19	A. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
20		20	but that's not because there's any legal impediment
21	And then because I think you're trying to	21
22	provide continuity in the agency, and I don't want to	22	were(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)
	Page 159		Page 161
1	(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)	1	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Page 161 [t's more, how do I perceive my
-			(E) (C) (E) (7) (C)
1		2	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) It's more, how do I perceive my
1 2		2	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that
1 2 3	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	2	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived
1 2 3 4	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him	3 4 5	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived
1 2 3 4 5	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had	2 3 4 5 6	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an
1 2 3 4 5	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid	2 3 4 5 6	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm
1 2 3 4 5 6 7	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have	2 3 4 5 6 7	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6); ultimately	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered,
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 100	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. But it's not because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. But it's not because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6); ultimately would come back and say (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(about what he should do as an acting person. He can do exactly the same thing as an	2 3 4 4 5 6 7 8 9 100 111 122 133 144 155	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. But it's not because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to control what happens next year after I'm gone.
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) (b)(6),(b)(7)(about what he should do as an acting person. He can do exactly the same thing as an acting person that he can do as a permanent (b)(6),(b)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 100 111 122 133 144 155 166 177 18	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to control what happens next year after I'm gone. There was some perceptions that I had to deal with when I came in that the deck had been
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6); ultimately would come back and say (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(about what he should do as an acting person. He can do exactly the same thing as an	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to control what happens next year after I'm gone. There was some perceptions that I had to deal with when I came in that the deck had been stacked against me. Right? And I'm conscious of
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) (b)(6),(b)(7)(about what he should do as an acting person. He can do exactly the same thing as an acting person that he can do as a permanent (b)(6),(b)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 144 155 166 177 188 199 20	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to control what happens next year after I'm gone. There was some perceptions that I had to deal with when I came in that the deck had been stacked against me. Right? And I'm conscious of not of trying not to leave that perception when I
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	and so, yes, I would have been willing to appoint him directly, and I would have been willing, if he had taken the job and wanted to me to go through a bid process, I would have gone through that bid process. I believe that that bid process would have been a charade, but it was all a theoretical discussion at that point because (b)(6), ultimately would come back and say (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Q. But as acting, you said earlier that there's limitations, right, to be able to take certain actions or decisions? A. There's no limitations (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) (b)(6),(b)(7)(about what he should do as an acting person. He can do exactly the same thing as an acting person that he can do as a permanent (b)(6),(b)	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 144 155 166 177 188 199 20	own role, you know. And I'm beginning to have that feeling now in my last 90 days. I'm in my last 90 days. The decisions that I make now get perceived different than the, you know, I'm pretty much an acting caretaker in this position. See what I'm saying. So it's hard not to have that perception when your days may be numbered. And it's hard not to have that perception when your days are numbered, because I'm experiencing that myself. But it's not because I don't have the authority to do it. I can make the same decisions now that I made in 2015. But from my own view, I don't want either the next director or the public to perceive that I'm trying to control what happens next year after I'm gone. There was some perceptions that I had to deal with when I came in that the deck had been stacked against me. Right? And I'm conscious of

_		sion, DC	1 age 42 (102 - 10
1	Page 162 new director would have a vision of how things should
2	be. (b)(5)
3	(b)(5)
4	(b)(5) so the next
5	director could make a call
6	A. First I've heard of it. I never heard
7	that before from anybody.
8	MR. PARKER: So do you have anything else
9	you want to put on the record, sir?
10	THE WITNESS: No.
11	MR. PARKER: We don't have any further
12	questions, that's why I asked.
13	THE WITNESS: No.
14	MR. FAY: Okay.
15	MR. PARKER: We'll adjourn.
16	(Whereupon, at 6:17 p.m. the interview in
17	the above-entitled matter was concluded.)
18 19 20 21
22
	Page 163
1	CERTIFICATE OF SHORTHAND REPORTER
2	I (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Registered Professional
3	Reporter and Federally Certified Realtime Reporter,
4	the court reporter before whom the foregoing
5	deposition/interview was taken, do hereby certify
6	that the foregoing transcript is a true and correct
7	3
8	was taken by me stenographically and thereafter
9	reduced to typewriting under my supervision; and that
10	I am neither counsel for, related to, nor employed by	h'
11	anyof the parties to this case and have no interest,
12	financial or otherwise, in its outcome.
13	IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my and
14	affixed my notarial seal this 11th day of October,
15	1000 1000 1000 1000 1000 1000 1000 100
16	My commission expires August 14, 2022.
17
18
19	(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
20	NOTARY PUBLIC IN AND FOR
21	THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
22

CERTIFICATE OF DEPONENT

I hereby certify that I have read and examined the foregoing transcript, and the same is a true and accurate record of the testimony given by me.

Any additions or corrections that I feel are necessary, I will attach on a separate sheet of paper to the original transcript.

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)	7.400

Signature of Deponent

I hereby certify that the individual representing himself/herself to be the above-named individual, appeared before me this __/SF__ day of November___, 2018, and executed the above certificate in my presence.

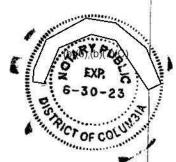

NOTARY PUBLIC IN AND FOR

Washington, District of Chumbra City Country Name

MY COMMISSION EXPIRES: June 30, 2023

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

NOTANY PUBLIC DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
My Commission Expires June 30, 2023

TRANSCRIPT CORRECTIONS - DEPOSITION DATED 10/11/2018

PAGE/LINE	NOW READS	SHOULD READ
33, 11	"moved to PMO office"	"moved the PMO office"
82, 5	"they"	"there"
93, 14	"stop"	"start"
97, 12	"was"	"was issued to me by FHFA"
97, 15	"carry"	"carry it"
99, 11	"my"	"our"
100, 14	"2014"	"2015"
101, 9	"asked me"	"asked for me"
107, 7	"place."	"place,"
136, 11	"your"	delete "your"
158, 5	"in this taking"	"in taking"

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 5

Transcript of May 10, 2018 Conversation

Grimes: Okay

Watt: I hope you take it and I hope you'll be back to work, hopefully from my perspective and that perspective, hopefully before the middle of June. But that's up to you all and I'm sure you can work that out and I'm not trying to micromanage that.

Grimes: So, just so you're clear, the complaints that they are going to put forward have to do with you specifically.

Watt: Well, I gathered that they must because any kind of work environment situation I guess I am ultimately responsible for ... so, you know...but Grimes: It's gonna, I mean, it's gonna be more specific to kind of advances you've made towards me.

Watt: Oh..okay, well, okay well now we're into a me too situation. So, if you're pursuing that, I definitely should cut off any further discussions about it because, you know, I think, you could – I don't want to be in the middle of trying to influence what you're saying on that, so. You know.

Grimes: Okay, yeah. It was a strategy they were putting forward. So when I contacted you I was trying to rationalize in my own, for myself kind of, the series of events. But I'm just gonna go with whatever their counsel is.

Watt: Well if they feel like that will lead somewhere positive, I mean ya'll can assess that, but I don't think I'm free to express any opinion about that because that, that too could be misinterpreted. So these things have to play themselves out and I'm sure you're getting good legal advice and I'm not trying to give you personal advice that is either confirming or at odds with whatever legal advice you might get on that.

Grimes: Okay.

Watt: I hope to see you back at work at some point and I hope it all works out to everybody's advantage.

Grimes: Ok thanks.

Watt: Ok, bye.

RESPONSE TO DRAFT OIG REPORT OF INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST FHFA DIRECTOR MELVIN L. WATT NOVEMBER 26, 2018

EXHIBIT 6

In Observance of Women's Equality Day

Reflections from FHFA Director Mel Watt:

Talk about a woman who has inspired you to cause a lasting impact on your life/career?

You could probably guess that the woman who has inspired me most, and who had the greatest impact on my life, has been my mother. My mother endured the death of both her parents by age 12, gave birth to three hardheaded sons (including me) by age 18, became a single parent by age 23, made sure each of her sons finished school before she got her GED, never let either of us believe that we were poor or couldn't achieve, and pushed all three of us to be successful in life (two of us finished college and got doctoral degrees).

In our little four room house, she taught us values, responsibility, humility, determination, compassion, and just about every other good thing I can think of. Fortunately (b)(6),(b)(7)(C) and she continues to inspire me every day.

Do you have different considerations when mentoring women or men?

I never recall establishing a formal mentoring relationship with anyone, but I suspect there are a number of people who may consider that I have mentored them, either informally or by example. I suspect all of them, whether men or women, would say that I was tough, honest, blunt, direct and demanding. I hope they would also say I was fair and that I was always pushing them to reach and sustain their highest level of excellence and success with integrity, honesty and patient persistence. One of the greatest joys I have as a former practicing attorney is seeing the large number of lawyers who joined my former law firm after I did (and "trained under me") who later became partners, judges, elected officials, or leaders of non-profit organizations fighting for equal justice under the law. One of the greatest joys I have as a former elected official is seeing former staff members either go to law school and become successful lawyers, or find success in the private or public sector. I feel very proud that at least 10 former members of my staff decided to go on to law school. I also have former staff members who later moved on to take responsible positions at companies in the financial services sector or positions with prestigious lobby shops, other members and Committees in Congress, cutting edge non-profits, in state and local governments, and in the executive branch of the federal government (including a former Secretary of Transportation). While I don't pretend to take credit for all of their success, it certainly makes me proud to know that I had at least some influence on the lives of all these people. I'm equally proud to say that, while I've never stopped to count, I'm confident that well over half of them were women.

Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this e-mail and any attachments may be confidential or privileged under applicable law, or otherwise may be protected from disclosure to anyone other than the intended recipients). Any use, distribution, or copying of this e-mail, including any of its contents or attachments by any person other than the intended recipient, or for any purpose other than its intended use, is strictly prohibited. If you believe you have received this e-mail in error: permanently delete the e-mail and any attachments, and do not save, copy, disclose, or rely on any part of the information contained in this e-mail or its attachments. Please call 202-649-3800 if you have questions.