These records were submitted by me on or about January 19, 2016. These records contain, including but not limited to: (1) proof that my home was illegally foreclosed on by alleged Trustee MTC Financial dba Trustee Corps (hereinafter "MTC") allegedly selling my home at an auction on October 16, 2014 using among other things, a fraudulent Substitution of Trustee (hereinafter "SOT") filed at the County Recorder's Office (hereinafter "CRO") swearing under penalty of perjury that The Bank of New York Mellon (hereinafter "BNYM") gave them the authority to foreclose. (2) proof that the BNYM did not give MTC the authority to foreclose because the Vice President of Mortgage Backed Securities, Corporate Division of the BNYM, (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) sent an e-mail to Bank of America (hereinafter "BofA"), denying ownership of said Loan (b)(6): stating that since we do not own this loan we have (a) No authority to foreclose	2018-FOPA-00016	FOIA/PA	All Other

		(b) No authority to sell and, (c) No authority to modify a loan we do not own. (3) a telephone number to the Torrance, California Sheriff's Department (310) 222-3345. This number is to access the Sheriff in order to inform him not to break my door down and throw me in the street without probable cause because I am the only owner of this home. When purchasing a home in California you must comply with the requirements dictated by California Civil Code section 2924. Therefore you must "duly perfect the title." If there are defects on title like there is in my case, especially since no lender exists, among other issues, you cannot sell the property. I made sure that the FHFA-OIG had the correct telephone number to the Sheriff's Department in Torrance to stop any illegal eviction when an illegal order to evict me is issued. FHFA-OIG is a federal agency. When I originally filed my Complaint I asked (b)(6); one of the FHFA-OIG representatives if the FHFA-OIG had the authority to stop an illegal foreclosure. (b)(6); and (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) said they could. (4) proof that I was sued with an Unlawful Detainer Complaint on November 4, 2014, by a company called Pacifico Partners2, LLC (hereinafter "Pacifico") who lost against me at the Los Angeles County Superior Court ((b)(6);). Instead of appealing they sued me again violating the Doctrines of Res Judicata, Collateral Estoppel and Issue Preclusion. On March 10, 2015 Pacifico served me with a second Unlawful Detainer Case # ((b)(6);). This is like permitting Double Jeopardy in a criminal case when it is clearly a violation.

29	06/11/2018	I am seeking financial information that is (or at least should be) included in Freddie Mac's audited financial statements (Form 10K), which is not clearly visible in those statements due to Freddie Mac's "consolidation" of its numbers. Specifically, Freddie Mac's "other assets" admittedly include mortgage servicing rights, but there is no break-down of how much of the "other assets" mortgage servicing rights represent; what Freddie Mac's acquisition costs associated with those assets were, or what Freddie Mac received from its sale of those servicing rights assets – both of these numbers are buried somewhere on its "consolidated" income statement. While the Form 10K is publicly available and need not involve the FOIA, the supporting information is not. (Date Range for Record Search: From 6/15/2012 To 6/15/2017)	2018-FOIA-00021	FOIA	All Other
