

Prohibited Personnel Practices

By law, Federal employees may not:

- Discriminate
  - Solicit or consider employment recommendations based on factors other than personal knowledge or records of job related abilities or characteristics
  - Coerce the political activity of any person
  - Deceive or willfully obstruct any person from competing for employment
  - Influence any person to withdraw from job competition
  - Give an unauthorized preference or advantage to improve or injure the prospects of any particular person for employment
  - Engage in nepotism
  - Take or threaten to take a personnel action because of whistleblowing
  - Take or threaten to take a personnel action because of the exercise of a lawful appeal, complaint, or grievance right
  - Discriminate based on personal conduct which does not adversely affect the performance of the employee or other employees
  - Knowingly take or fail to take personnel action in the violation of veteran's preference laws
  - Violate any law, rule or regulation implementing or directly concerning merit system principles
  - Implement or enforce a nondisclosure agreement or policy lacking notification of whistleblower rights
  - Access the medical record of an employee or applicant, as part of, or in furtherance of any of the above-listed prohibitions
