United States Attorney Susan Lehr announced that the federal Grand Jury for the District of Nebraska has returned an Indictment charging Bryce A. Nolde of Garland, Nebraska, with one count of wire fraud affecting a financial institution. The maximum possible penalty if convicted is no more than 30 years imprisonment, a $1,000,000 fine, a 5-year term of supervised release, and a $100 special assessment.

An indictment is a charging document that contains one or more individual counts that are merely accusations. Nolde is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.

This case is being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation-Office of Inspector General (FDIC-OIG), and Federal Housing Finance Agency-Office of Inspector General (FHFA-OIG).

Customers, subcontractors, suppliers or others who may have done business with Bryce Nolde or BV Builders are encouraged to contact the FDIC-OIG tipline at 1-800-964-3342 or <https://www.fdicig.gov/oig-hotline> and reference "BV Builders."
